Synopsis of Probate Proceedings - Estate of Clifton R. Mitchell, Fayette Co., Texas.

A petition by Thomas B. Mitchell directed to the County Judge (known as Chief Justice at that time) of the Probate Court, Fayette Co., Texas, states that his father is deceased and that he is a son of the decedent. He therefore asks the court to appoint him admr. of the est. 17 Apr. 1857. (Inv. and Appr. of Est. filed 20 May, 1857. Children(heirs) besides Thomas B. Mitchell were:

Tombstones of Clifton R. Mitchell and Ruth, his wife, are to be found in Round Top Cemetery. Inscriptions as follows:

RUTH MITCHELL - Consort of C.R. Mitchell - Died August 4, 1850-
Age 62. C.R. Mitchell Died in 1857 in his 73rd year.

Signers on behalf of the "Municipality of Washington" setting up a provisional government, Nov. 13, 1835, at Columbia, included Asa Mitchell, Phillip Coe, E. Collard & James Grimes. July 13, 1835, at an election of officers for the new Municipality of Washington, the colonists of said municipality (later Washington County) elected Asa Mitchell as their Register. One James Mitchell was one of the persons selected to designate a place as the county seat of Montgomery Co. when said county was established by the Republic of Texas.

From the TEXAS HISTORIC (Washington), Aug. 31, 1839: "Col. Richard Matson. On Sunday morning, Aug. 25, 1839, about 20 miles from Washington Texas, an encounter took place between Mr. Asa Mitchell and Col. Matson.

Richard Watson, which resulted in the death of Col. Watson from wounds, it is supposed, inflicted by Dr. Mitchell. Dr. Mitchell was one of the first emigrants to this county. Himself, and the deceased, were regarded as good citizens." (Note: Asa was brot. of C.R. Mitchell)

Asa Mitchell and James Mitchell were all on the first tax list of Washington Co. in 1837 as well as Isaac Mitchell. Asa was one of the THREE HUNDRED. Asa and J.R.(James) were also on the 1840 tax list.

Edwin T. Mitchell and Napoleon S. Mitchell were both among Tamm's soldiers who died at the siege of the Alamo. (Should be Travis. This should be checked against the more recent lists of those as having died at the Alamo.) Edwin T. Mitchell is said to have come from Ga.

Jennet, in her "Congresses and Conventions" says that Asa Mitchell had a brother Eli Mitchell (from whom Miss Bright, Gonzales, Texas, is descended.) And that they were born in Penna. This, I believe, is incorrect. Asa Mitchell originally came from Laurens Dist., S.C., where his father, Joseph Mitchell, settled in an early day, and was a neighbor of the Garretts, and others, who also came to Washington Co., Texas. In 1817 Asa Mitchell was living in Livingston Co. Ky, and there executed the deed to land in Laurens Dist., S.C., where he had formerly resided, to John South; "Asa Mitchell of the Co. of Livingston, State of Ky., for $150.00 sells to John South, of Laurens Dist., 150 a. on the waters of Reedy River, same being part of a tract grtd. to Thos. Shubrick, by him conveyed to Asa Mitchell. Signed - Asa Mitchell. Witnesses: Wm. W. McDavid and John Sean Cunningham" Book E., p. 227, Laurens Co., S.C."

The real frontier in the early days of the Republic was above Bastrop where Reuben Hornsby and his family lived at the "bend" of the Colorado River known as Hornsby's Bend while the west side, practically the same "bend or twist" was known as Mitchell's Bend for it was there that Uncle Bob Mitchell lived with his family. (Not e the initial "R" in the sound too Mitchell.) The Mitchell cabin was near the point where Onion Creek discharges its waters into the Colorado River.

(Note: Miss. Bright says that her Asa and Eli Mitchell were born in Penna. - sons of Lewis Mitchell. In 1817 Nathan Mitchell - son of Asa and Charlotte (Woodmanson) Mitchell was born in Penna. They later moved to Hopkinsville, Ky. and by 1822 to Texas.)

Note: Miss. Bright has much more data on Texas Mitchells if this data is desired. ULE.

One William Mitchell (brother to Asa and Eli) moved to Tenn. -later to Texas. His aunt, Elizabeth Mitchell, m. James McKinney

Mitchell is a Saxon name. "Mickel" meaning big, mighty, strong. Goes back to 1336, Battle of Otterburn, when Andrew Mitchell (Mickel) was knighted.

Durham, Box. 213, Durham, N.C. has the following Mitchell line:

Samuel Mitchell, d. in Richmond, Va. in late 1710 leaving one son, Sally, who m. Walter King Cole (from this marriage she descends). Samuel had a brother Robert Mitchell who was a "harriner". The father of Samuel and Robert was William who in one deed was dead or living in the "suburbs" of the city of Londonderry and in another as being "now of Dublin."

In 1783 Robt. Mitchell signed a quit claim for himself and his father giving to his niece, Sally Cole, 500 a. of land in Charles Co, half of a vessel and cargo which had been left to William Mitchell. This deed leads me to think that Robert Mitchell, "harriner" had settled in Richmond, since he is listed as Robert Mitchell of the city of Richmond.

In 1811 a Robert Mitchell died in Richmond, leaving a daughter, Sarah and a son, William. He left a good bit of property, including some in Mason County on the waters of the Ohio River and in Lincoln Co., Ky. Whether this Robert Mitchell is the same as Robert Mitchell "harriner" is a moot question. There was a Robert Mitchell who was an early mayor of Richmond, but here again I do not know whether this is the same man.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT
FOR THE YEAR 1911

HISTORY OF SOME BRANCHES OF THE MITCHELL AND STOVALL FAMILIES

By Bates Mitchell Stovall

First mentioned was a James Mitchell, a member of the Scotch Guard under King Louis XIII of France.

"On a tombstone in Scotland in the year 1750 the following inscription could be made out: 'Here lies, in hope of a blessed resurrection, a man of approved goodness, Thomas Mitchell, baillie of Aberdeen, who died in the year of our Lord 1686' etc."

"Here lyeth the remains of Thomas Mitchell of Bronlara who departed this life June ye 27th, 1780, aged 83 years, also his wife Anne Mitchell, otherwise Black, who departed this life January the aged 86 years." The foregoing inscription was copied in the year 1857 from an old tombstone in the old burial ground and churchyard of Tedavnet, in the Townland of Mullanarocken, in the south-eastern part of Tedavnet Parish close to the Townland of Tedavnet. By order of Council dated November 15, 1754, the parish church was removed further south to the Townland of Mullaghmore West, near the village of Bellinode. At this graveyard near the village of Bellinode several Mitchells are buried.

At the beginning of the 17th cent. several families of Mitchells moved to the north-eastern part of Ireland.

The first Mitchell to arrive in Va. was Francis Mitchell who came on the ship 'Neptune' in the year 1618. In 1624 he was 38 years of age and was residing in Elizabeth City Co. With him was his wife Maudlin, aged 21 years, who in 1820 had come over in the 'Bono Noua.' To this couple was born in 1824 a son John.

James Mitchell, Sr., came from Ireland and settled in Bedford Co., Va., and married Mrs. Rodgers whose maiden name was Caldwell, said to be related to John Caldwell Calhoun.

James Mitchell, Jr., was born in Bedford Co., Va., 17 nov 1754 and married Elizabeth Brumfield after he migrated to Ky. after Revolution. Several pages were devoted to his Revolutionary War service.

Children of James and Elizabeth Mitchell:

1. John fought in Seminole War and later moved to Texas.
2. Eleanor m Thomas Williamson
3. Elizabeth m Caleb Irvine
4. Margaret died young
5. Robert Brumfield m Margaret Catherine Linebaugh. He was born 1798.
6. Tabitha m Thomas Williamson after Eleanor died
7. S. Finley m Elizabeth Linebaugh
8. Susan married a man named Prince.

In 1781 he moved from Bedford Co., Va., to Mercer Co., Ky., and in 1807 he moved to Robertson Co., Tenn., 15 miles from Springfield.

Children of Robert and Margaret Mitchell:

- | | | |
|------------------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| 1. Katherine Elizabeth | 2. James Thomas | 3. Robert Henry m |
| 4. Margaret | died young | Ophelia Majors |

Katherine married Hartwell Dickenson Stovall. John Mitchell, bro. of R. B., had a son R. B. who was killed in Mexican War.

OF A LETTER FROM THE H. I. PAGE OF 55 LAST EDITION, OCLC 130, 131.
 131. AN IL. 100 IN 100 OF 532 COLLECTIONS WYNN, 131, 132, 133.
 131 at Livingston,
 Florida, Fla. Apr. 11, 1951.

My dear Cousin:

My, how thrilled I am to have just rec'd your letter which was sent me from home. And I am answering immediately, although I haven't much information for you, yet your interest surely peps me up. I just cannot find anyone interested in our Mitchells. So I am happy to find you and to know that I have such a cousin in Georgia. My husband and I have stopped in Athens very often and I love the old city. It may interest you to know that Abraham Baldwin, the founder of the University, was of my father's grand father's (Mrs Baldwin) line. My grandfather, Dr. Charles Grider Mitchell, married the daughter of Sara Baldwin and, too, I have a clipping written when my grandfather's uncle John Mitchell died, which told of his winning a foot race in Bowling Green and Andrew Jackson winning $1000.00 on the race. This was a great event then.

Now, he was your great grandfather. I thought he had only one daughter who lived with him on Days Branch when he died - I have heard my father, George Solomon Mitchell, say that this Uncle John was a powerful - very tall and a perfect physical specimen. I will send you a copy of the notice, if you have not one already. Mrs. Drake used to do a great deal of genealogical work, but since her husband's death she has dropped all such. She is a descendant of Charles Mitchell who married a Grider, sister of my late Thompson Mitchell's wife. -- After his death she married a Boon, cousin or nephew of old Daniel, I understand.

Why could we not get some data from the 1850 census of Ky. from Washington? about John Mitchell. I have asked my sister (who really isn't interested in such) to please look up about John -- She is staying with my husband's old aunt (80 yrs. old) while we are away.

Asa Thompson was born at Dean's Station, Tenn. I imagine when the family was on the way to Ky. I have not been able to get the name of Uncle John's wife and I am not sure that the father of our Asa and John was named William. Some claim that this was his name. We do not know the mother of John and Asa. My line starts with Henry Grider, born Lancaster Co., Va. 1755, moved to Va. when young and migrated in the Rev. from Rockingham Co., Va. (as a Co. as your John Spears Sr.) I believe our Mitchells came from this section of Va. but could be mistaken. In Va. he m. Elizabeth Smith, dau. of Zachariah Smith. I understand this Smith family has descendants around Knoxville, Ky. where they settled. I feel sure Elizabeth had a brother who lived around Knoxville. His name was Jesse. I think he married a Pendleton. My grandfather had a brother, Henry Pendleton Mitchell. My Rev. ancestor, Henry Grider and Elizabeth Smith had Jesse, Henry, Sally, Mary, Elizabeth, and Asa. Their son, Sally m. 1811, Asa Thompson Mitchell. They had: - Solomon Sharpe (a very intellectual and splendid man) Joseph Lapalay, Henry Pendleton, Charles Grider (born in Warren Co. Ky 1817), and six daughters. My Dr. Charles Grider Mitchell m. 1832, Francis Elizabeth Blackwell, dau. of Michael Blackwell and Sara Baldwin. Their son, Geo. Solomon Mitchell was my father. We went to sleep all our young lives to the tune of Ky. constantly told by my grandfather. He loved his Ky. kin -- His uncle, Henry Grider, was in congress for a great number of years. I have a great many letters which my grandfather saved -- also old pictures of Ky. kin, -- most of which were Griders. I have one letter from Asa Thompson written to my father when he was in the state legislature. I found out about a Bible which is in the library of Texas University. It is the Bible of Asa Thompson Mitchell who went from Ky. to Texas. But I have not been able to connect the two names. The owner of the Bible went from Penn. to Ky. Of course our Mitchells could have easily have gone from Tenn. as the Griders did.....(rest of letter illegible)....

Sincerely - Francis Mitchell says.

Mrs. M. Robney Luke,
5606 Seminary Ave.,
Richmond 27, Va.

Dear Mrs. Luke:

The MITCHELL girl (that of THOMAS MITCHELL) was awaiting me on my return home last night (had been away most of the day.) As you know, I was afraid something had happened to my letter to you, as one of mine had gone astray recently.

I honestly believe that this is my ancestor, but I now have to be certain of the PLEASANT MITCHELL, his son. As you know, I merely picked him out because of the name PLEASANT, as my Elizabeth M. Mitchell had a brother, PLEASANT MITCHELL, and a son, PLEASANT E.C. HENRY (who d.y.) and a son, CARNEY PLEASANT HENRY (who was killed in Civil War at age 18).

It now appears that the children of Thomas Mitchell who wrote his will in 1779 (when was it proved?) were named in order of their birth, namely: MARY, WILLIAM, RACHEL, ROBERT, SARAH, ELIZABETH, RICHARD & PLEASANT MITCHELL - hence Pleasant was probably youngest child. At least some - and probably all of the children were "under 21" at time the will was made - 1779 - so when PLEASANT M. REBECCA COLEMAN in 1791, doubtless he was barely 21 at the time, so born ca. 1770. Also, it will be noticed that on the 1782 census of Amelia Co. only 2 Johns and James C. Mitchell are named - no M., Robt., Richard or Pleasant. (I believe there was also a Thomas - but there is no Thomas Jr. in the will.).

I do hope that ANN, wife of THOMAS MITCHELL, doesn't turn out to be a JONES. (It almost looks as if she might be, because of the Richard Jones Jr. (both exor. and witness; and Thomas Jones, wit.) I read the names John Houston and John Cooch as other exors. Is this correct? and BOLAN HALL and Peter (or Petro) Robertson as other witnesses. (In this census on, didn't James C. Mitchell of Amelia M. a Robertson? Were Thomas and James Locke Mitchell related in some way?

You mention in your letter that you have just finished looking up the Mitchells of New Kent, Brunswick, Amelia & Bedford Cos. Va. I presume that Thomas Mitchell is of these Mitchells, since Amelia was taken from Brunswick, I believe, in 1734 - and from Fr. Geo.

For some years I have been trying to get the Mitchells out of Tenn. All I had to go on was that they were born "in Virginia" - (which has a number of counties to choose from!). It is interesting to note that the Mitchells of Davidson Co. Tenn. (which adjoins Sumner) were descendants of JAMES MITCHELL, Rev. Sold. from Bedford Co. Va. - m. a Mrs. Rogers, formerly Caldwell - this James was born in Amelia Co. and moved to Middle Ky. - later some of his children to Robertson Co. Tenn. One of these was Robt. Brunsden Mitchell; another was Daniel and another was John. I eliminated all of these as parents of Elizabeth except John, whose children I wasn't sure of. I have some data on these Mitchells, if you should ever want it.

To get back to PLEASANT MITCHELL - and my Elizabeth (Setay): I find that the marriage bonds of Davidson Co. Tenn. (also adjoins Sumner - where Nashville is) p. 452 - shows that ELIZABETH M. MITCHELL married Ann Ridley, April 5, 1834. (This could be a second marriage of Pleasant (bro. of Eliz.) who in 1827 m. Elizabeth Hunt (dau. of J. H. Hunt (whose will, 1829, shows wife Polly, dau. ELIZABETH MITCHELL and others. JOHN MITCHELL, brother of Pleasant, m. SUSAN HUNT, but perhaps her cousin and not sister.

of course I want to "go on from here" and if you have already followed 4 this line and know where it leads, let me know what you will charge to copy the microfilm for me.

We have some microfilms from Amelia Co. in our library here, and I note that in Will Book 3 - 1772-1786 - Will of THOMAS MITCHELL - p. 70 (1779)
Will of THOMAS MITCHELL - p. 186 (1782)
THOMAS MITCHELL estate settled - p. 277
THOMAS MITCHELL - Est. Inv. - 284
THOMAS MITCHELL & WILL - p. 347
Book 4. (1786-1795) - shows THOMAS MITCHELL Est. Inv. - p.
Appraised - p. 161

etc. etc. etc.
Wills before 1800 show 4 separate wills of a THOMAS MITCHELL; in 1779, 1782, 1783, 1784 - all in Amelia Co. (Were these different Thomas Mitchells? The Inventory and settlement of estate of the first Thomas show show and should give additional data. Perhaps he did have a son Thomas, who does not show in his will.)

I am glad that Thomas had no son JOHN MITCHELL. There were about 3 John Mitchells in Sumner Co. Tenn. but they were all there before our Mitchells left Va. (with the exception of John, brother of Elizabeth, of course; he lived for a time in Ky. but also had land in Tenn.)

In Brunswick Co. - I also find there were three THOMAS MITCHELLS who left wills - 1747, 1768 and 1774. Some Henry lived in Brunswick Co. Va.
One AMY MITCHELL left a will in 1740 and Co. 1745. Could she have been widow of Thomas? (But his widow doubtless re-married, since he died rather young).

Perhaps you can suggest how I can connect all this up - will give you a few Tenn. records which might point the way:

The following were taxable inhabitants of Sumner Co. Tenn. 1838:
John Mitchell 11 Civil District.
Henry Mitchell 13 Civil Dist.
PLEASANT MITCHELL - 13 Civil Dist.
PLEASANT MITCHELL for the heirs of Hunt: 13 Civil Dist.
John Mitchell 13 Civil Dist.
Solomon Mitchell 20 Civil Dist.

I wrote for Tenn. Land Grants to Mitchells. There were none to a
THOMAS MITCHELL. - but several John Mitchells on land grants -
(the latter's grant no. 417 - granted 7-4 - number of acres not given - June 27, 1793 - Sumner Co. on Cedar Creek - Book 4-7 - p. 61 - 100 acres. (This seems too early as Mitchells were b. in Va. later than this, but an uncle could have come earlier).

I told you of the following: THOMAS MITCHELL m. James Henry, Oct. 181
Lebanon, Wilson Co. Tenn (near Sumner) - James Mitchell & James Henry bondsmen
One Thomas Mitchell m. Fisa West, 1817, Madison Co., Ky - John Henry bondsman
" Elizabeth Mitchell (da. of Wm. Mitchell) m. Henry Shelton, Aug. Co. Va. 1
1817 - James Henry, bondsman.

On Archibald Mitchell received a land grant of 250 acres of Green River in Warren Co. Ky. (Warren Co. just north of Sumner Co. Tenn.) Archibald from Fincastle, Va.

From the records, I have this: The first Mitchell land grant in Sumner
Co. were: Elijah - 1797; Jeremiah, 1800; John, 1801; 1802; 1803; 1804;
1795; Robert, 1806; ROBERT B. 1808. (Robt. B. was Capt. Crombough Mitchell)
If you think any of these significant, I will order them in full.

I have no record of the marriage of H. H. MITCHELL to Elizabeth Hunt, but sure see her his wife. I have:

JOHN MITCHELL m. MARY H. (should be Henry H.) MITCHELL Dec. 20, 1821
 JOHN MITCHELL m. Mary, bondsman
 JOHN MITCHELL m. Miles Woodall 1-1-1827 - John Henry, bondsman
 JAMES MITCHELL m. Miles Stewart 9-18-1821 - William H. Henry, bondsman
 JOHN MITCHELL m. Susan Hunt 10-17-1830 - John Henry, bondsman.
 POLY AUSTIN (formerly Mitchell) - to JAMES READON - 1825 -
 Moses Henry, bondsman.

JOHN MITCHELL m. MARY MITCHELL June 6, 1806, Sumner Co. Tenn. -
 John Mitchell, bondsman. (not ours)

But in 1830 (approx) in the household of Polly (Mary) Mitchell Readon, we find: Mary Fleming - 6 & Beverly H. Fleming, 24. (children of above?)

Have a number of deeds from Elkton, Todd Co. Ky, such as: Deed from JOHN MITCHELL & his wife Susan of Todd Co. to Squire Brown of Sumner Co. Tenn. ---land on Whipperrill Creek..1849..wits. by JAMES MITCHELL, Jno. Trout.

W. G. Henry and Emily (Stovall) his wife; James Dickson and Elizabeth (Henry) his wife, all of Todd Co. to H. MITCHELL of same....land on n. side Whipperrill Cr. - 1855 - wits. by JAMES MITCHELL & Harriet H. (Shawwell) Mitchell, his wife..... (several other similar deeds concerning Henry Mitchell)

Do you happen to know to which HALL family the father of the Thos. Mitchell will belongs? It may have been a HALL, instead of a HENRY connected before the marriage of Eliz. to John Hall Henry (who was grandson of HENRY HALL (Gen. M.) and DAVID HENRY (Capt. Gen. Rev.)). Note that James Hall Henry signed the m. bonds of these Mitchells. None of them were signed by Mitchell which would signify that their father was perhaps not living.

One ROBERT MITCHELL m. Nancy Latimer in 1808; I do not know who he was.

One WILLIAM MITCHELL deeded to Benj. Honey, 2 Feb. 1805 - Sumner Co. Lot in Gallatin Co. 11 - BK 3 - p. 438.

Henry Coleman m. Thos. Tucker 23 Jan. 1793 - Amelia Co. - Evan Mitchell, b. (Was this Evan related to Pleasant?)

Brunswick Co. Va. p. 186 - Will of John Willey of Brunswick Co. & daughter - 14 Sept. 1734 - beloved wife Sarah.....etc.. wit. JOHN MITCHELL.

Will of William Mitchell 1814-1819 - p. 209 - wife Elizabeth; child named Will died Nov. 18, 1816. Tenn. (Washington or Wilson Co.)

William Mitchell m. Sarah Perkins, 1795, Potomac Co., Va.
 Thomas Mitchell m. John Goldbreath, Jan. 11, 1798, Aug. Co., Va.
 Robert Mitchell m. John Smith, Br. Geo. Co. Va. Feb. 3, 1790
 Wm. Mitchell m. Agnes Brownlee - Sept. 15, 1785, Aug. Co., Va.
 Thomas Mitchell m. Margaret Collison, Apr. 4, 1786, Aug. Co., Va.

An old letter from a cousin says: "We are related in some way to the PLEASANT family. A Judge of our line was Judge Pleasant Henry....."

Robert Mitchell m. Brucilla Everett June 1, 1789.
 Robert J. Mitchell m. Martha A. Oldham - Jan. 25, 1820

Robert Tynes Mitchell Sr. from Ulster, Ireland to Philadelphia, Pa. 1682.
 Robt. Tynes Mitchell Jr. m. Polly Anderson & settled on "disto Riv. S.C. - to East Tenn. ca. 1794. His son Solomon m. Nancy --?

Will of Robert Mitchell - Washington Co. Tenn. 1808-1809 - p. 77 - wife & children when educated. Land willed by grandmother to his father and by his father to his wife Eliza. Son James; dau. Jenny and dau. Eliza.

Wilson Co. - Will of Thomas Mitchell - W.B. 1803-1814; p. 299. mentions wife Rachel; son Everett; son Asa (Asa); son Allen. sons Thomas & Henry. dau. Franky Petway; other son Thomas. dau. Polly Mitchell & her son Jesse William Mitchell. dau. Polly Mitchell dau. Nathaniel Mitchell; dau. Scotty & Rebecca Mitchell; son in law Mr. Petway. Will dated Oct. 12, 1811.

Land on Cedar Lick Creek in Sumner Co. by mother, Samuel Mitchell and his brother Joseph Mitchell. July 21, 1794. proved same year. (Note same Robt. who had land in Sumner Co. (another copy of this will gives yrs. 1814 - proved that year.

Washington Co. Tenn. will of Thomas Mitchell - W.B. 1 - p. 8 - mentions dau. Margaret McAdow; son James; dau. Elizabeth Thompson; sons James & Thomas & Sarah Mitchell. Friend John Morrison and my wife Eliza, 14 June 1794.

Robert Mitchell

Have you any data on the MITCHELLS of Potomac Co. Va.? Went ancestry of JAMES MITCHELL, wife of WILLIAM MITCHELL, who died Potomac Co., Va. 1771. (this may be the connection to my father's Henrys in N.C. - Conn.) Also the MITCHELLS (Occell Co. Md. to Conn. to Va. to N.C.) in into this Mitchell family; also into the Hall family.

Brunswick Co. Va. Deeds: pgs. 221-23 --1736. Wm. Fletcher of Brunswick Co., wife, Elizabeth to John Smith of same - Lease & release - 100 a. on S. side of Roanoke --Robert Mitchell's line..along the river . . . Wm (4) Fletcher - 7 Oct. 1736. Ack. by Wm. Fletcher.

3 Apr. 1740 - Ack. by HENRY MITCHELL & SARAH his wife.

JAMES C. MITCHELL m. Patience Robertson Oct. 29, 1789.
(this is the Robertson m. I alluded to earlier).

Will wait to hear from you further regarding these Mitchells. As for the COLEMAN family, if I can find definite connection to this RICHARD COLEMAN, will want you to go ahead with them. If you can find anything definite of the RICHARD COLEMAN family - SUSAN A. B. 1755; GUTHRIE & WILLIAMSON COLEMAN of the 1782 census - as have before that in Lunenburg & Brunswick Cos. - will be glad to have you try to do also.

GOODWYNs of SURRY AND SUSSEX COUNTIES, VIRGINIA.

THOMAS GOODWYN of Surry Co., Va. Mariner, was residing there prior to Aug. 1717 in the Parish of Southwark. Of his ancestry, there is no positive knowledge, though it seems probable he was of the family of Centridge in England, a member of which family, THOMAS by name, is said to have emigrated to Virginia. On Aug. 8, 1717 Thomas Goodwyn executed a power of attorney to Henry Harrison, Gentleman, of Surry Co. In 1720 he made a deed to John Smith Jun. who had married his daughter, AMY GOODWYN. These two documents are just about all that remains of the records of his activities, excepting his will, dated 7 Feb. 1730 and proved Oct. 20, 1731 at Surry Co. Court...though much torn, it shows his wife's name was MARY --? and he had at least 3 sons - JOHN, FRANCIS and WILLIAM and a daughter, PENELOPE, who married a Taylor. He also mentions a grand-son THOMAS GOODWYN, though whether son of John, Francis or Wm., or another son, not known. Name of his daughter AMY SCOTT is also not mentioned - or obliterated - yet from the deed to John Scott Jun. he knew of her - (see Va. G. & S. Quar. Vol. VIII No. 2 - Supplement pp 148-9 for his will.)

THOMAS GOODWYN of Surry Co., Gentleman, died in Parish of Southwark, in 1730 or 1731. By MARY, his wife, he left at least 5 children - perhaps others, whose names are lost to us through the obliteration by time of portions of his recorded will. His known issue were:

I. JOHN GOODWYN (or Goodwyne) of Surry Co.. Later, in the formation of Sussex, he resided within the new county, in parish of Albemarle, the ketister of which parish now is in the Va. Hist. Soc. at Richmond, and furnishes us with the names of nearly all of John Goodwyn's children. He seems to have been a man of prominence in Sussex in his day and time and was living there as late as 1754. He married Winifred, daughter of ----TUCKER by whom he had:

1. Francis Goodwyn b. 7 Nov. 1747
2. Patsy (Martha?) Goodwyn b. 15 Jan. 1752
3. Robert Goodwyn b. 15 Mar. 1739
4. Wm. Goodwyn - b. 24 Jan. 1745/6
5. James Goodwyn b. Aug. 1741
6. AMY GOODWIN - b. 31 Aug. 1732, m. THOMAS MITCHELL, the elder of Sussex Co. He, dying in 1761 or 1762, she married, second, 1762, Capt. John Raines, of Prince George Co. Va. While the birth of AMY GOODWIN is not recorded in the parish of Albemarle Parish Register, it was found recorded in the family Bible of THOMAS MITCHELL the YOUNGER, her son, (who married ANN RAINES, daughter of Capt. Nathaniel Raines of Prince George County) who removed to Georgia and she died in Thomas County 27 July, 1826. The writer is descended from AMY GOODWYN through both of her marriages.

II - FRANCIS GOODWYN of Prince George County (un-traced)

III - PENELOPE GOODWYN - m. ----TAYLOR

IV - AMY GOODWYN - married John Scott, Jr. of Prince George Co. 1720

V - WILLIAM GOODWYN (un-traced)

(note: there is much more to the above article- all I had time to copy. ULE.)
(note: I have, in the Carolinas, on my direct line, one AMY, daughter of JESSE HOPKINS, who married a Rev. Sold. THOMAS YOUNGBLOOD. This Hopkins family intermarried with the Goodwyns - many Amys on this line - so think my AMY had a Goodwyn ancestry - perhaps leading to above-outlined family. ULE)

26 W (1) 30, 126, 127 (Branch - Mitchell):

HENRY MITCHELL of Sussex Co. Va. m. TABITHA Branch prior to 1727. Her death is recorded in the Register of Albemarle Parish (Surry-- later Sussex Co.) as occurring 14 Jan. 1752. HENRY MITCHELL then married his second wife, SARAH ---? who survived him. He died Mar. 1754 - will 2 Apr. 1754 pvd. 8 Apr. 1754 in Surry County.

Dear Margaret:

Perhaps you are not so very interested in the family history, but want you to know that I am slowly but surely making progress on our MITCHELL family, which I had about given up as a "lost cause."

To begin with we only knew that our gr-grandmother, ELIZABETH M. (Betsy) MITCHELL was born in Va. in 1801 and that she married Rev. John Hall Henry (Methodist Preacher) in 1820 in Sumner Co. Tenn.

She died Dec. 14, 1875 and I have a copy of her obituary from a newspaper clipping from the Hartsville, Tenn. paper, which was in Cousin Betty Mimmo's scrap-book. This quoted her as being a "lifelong Methodist".

We knew of her sister, Polly (Mary) Mitchell who was born in 1806 and who married, first a Mr. Austin, 2nd, Jesse Meador and who, according to Cousin Emma, lived in a house, part of which was in one county, part in another. Cousin Emma also insisted to me that she had a brother, HARRY MITCHELL who lived in Allensville, Ky. at whose home she had visited when a child, remembering that he had a record of both Mitchell and Henry families.

After further research I have located the following who appear to have been brothers and sisters of Elizabeth:

1. NANCY MITCHELL m. Miles Stewart 9-18-1821 - William H. Henry, bondsman.
(Note: 3 months before she m. John H. Henry)
2. ROBERT MITCHELL m. Wiley Woodall 1-18-1827 - John Henry, bondsman
3. JOHN MITCHELL m. Susan Hunt, 10-17-1830 - John Henry, bondsman.
4. POLLY AUSTIN m. Jesse Meador March 20, 1825 - Moses Henry, bondsman.
5. PLEASANT MITCHELL - m. Sarah Hunt (sister of Susan & dau. of Thomas Hunt)
6. HENRY MITCHELL (b. 1818 in Tenn. - m. Harriet Shemwell.
7. SARAH A. MITCHELL m. Joseph T. Tooley (who was made guardian of the minor heirs of Pleasant Mitchell).

(Sarah A., Henry and John moved to Todd Co. Ky where Wm. G. Henry (wife Emily Stovall) and Elizabeth Henry (wife of James Rickman) - brother & sister of John Hall Henry - also lived.)

I am not entirely certain that my list of the children of Rev. John Hall Henry and his wife ELIZABETH M. MITCHELL is correct, but I have it as follows:

1. WILEY K. HENRY - Dec. 19, 1822 - Apr. 17, 1853 - m. Euritha (or Urith) ("Ruthie" White - 5 children)
2. MALVINA E. HENRY - m. William Whitesides - d. June 30, 1847
3. ELAIRA (Nannie) Henry m. Samuel Harper Rickman - 6 children
4. NANCY EMERALINE - b. 1831 - m. (1) James Rickman (2) DAVID LOWMAN LINK
5. MARGARET A. HENRY - b. 1833 - m. Robert Bennett - 6 children
6. HARRIET J. HENRY * B. 1841 * m. Samuel A. Epperson - 5 children
7. JOHN MITCHELL HENRY - b. 1837 - m. Mollie Pursley - 5 sons & 1 dau.
8. CARNEY HENRY - killed in Battle of Shiloh - aged 18 years.
9. PLEASANT E.C. HENRY - b. 1850 - died young. (a grandson?)

If you can add anything to the above list or give me names of any of the children of the above-mentioned sisters and brothers and sisters, I will greatly appreciate it. At least perhaps you can give me your own family record from your grandmother down.

I know that your father was Mr. Garney Hickman. Did he have a "Pleasant" in his name? If not, what was his other name. (Cousin mine used to speak of him and my father as young boys playing together - apparently about the same age).

I have wondered what the "X" in Wiley K. Henry was for and where he got the name "Wiley" which came down to my father.

Polly Jordan, who lived in Transford, Tenn. had a son Henry who came to Texas and had several sons and a daughter Alice who married a Hicks. I have census records on Henry's married, who had William G., Henry J., Fannie Thomas, Augustus and Malvina (Polly). (Polly and our Eliz. also had sons named Malvina, if you will notice -)

I have no list of the children of the others, but will try to get them from census records as far as possible.

Apparently the father of these Mitchells was not living - or at least not in Sumner Co. in 1880 to 1887 (when his children married, also would have signed their marriage records).

There was absolutely nothing to indicate from which Va. county these Mitchells had come; only that they came to Tenn. between the years 1806 and 1818. So, when I came across the marriage record of one Elizabeth Mitchell 1791 in Amelia County, Va. to John A. Mitchell, daughter of John A. Mitchell of Amelia Co. the name rang a bell, and I was certain that at least this Pleasant Mitchell, if not father of Elizabeth, was at least a member of the same Mitchell family.

I have a maternal Coleman line, so was familiar with the family of this Daniel Coleman Jr. - can trace it "way back" if it turns out to be ours. In an old letter from our cousin Carolyn (wonder what has become of her?) she says that a daughter of Dr. Elihu Henry had told her we were related in some way to the PLEASANT family - that a Judge of our line was JUDGE PLEASANT HENRY and there was a GARNEY PLEASANT HENRY.

Quite a number of years ago I wrote to Dr. Joel Henry, who was then living in the old Henry home (but it originally in 1800 - on "Great Creek". He wrote very briefly and told me he thought they were children of a James Mitchell. (It occurred to me he was right - though Thomas was grandfather - not father, it would seem.

I had a Mrs. Duke search the Amelia records and she sent me a photostat copy of the will of a THOMAS MITCHELL, wife Alice, who names ELIZABETH MITCHELL among his children - apparently the youngest, since named last - all of them under 21 in 1779, when the will was made. (I am enclosing a copy of the will.) It is possible, of course, that our group of Mitchells were children of one of the brothers of Pleasant - WILLIAM, RICHARD or ROBERT.

I found Pleasant Mitchell listed on only one Amelia Co. deed, as follows: 1777 - THOMAS MITCHELL et al and JOHN A. MITCHELL - to John Appes.

On the same day another deed, as follows:

GIBSON & ANN MITCHELL et al and JOHN & THOMAS A. MITCHELL to John Appes.

(I am writing for copy of this deed - both of them. There is no Ivan, Gibson, John or Thomas A. listed among children of Thomas Mitchell. Could this be another Pleasant? 1771 MITCHELL was bondman to marriage of Mary Coleman to Trouble is - Pleasant Mitchell married Rebecca in 1791 and this was 10 years before Eliz. was born - 15 yrs. before Polly was born and 27 years before Henry was born! I do not think he was more than 21 in 1791, but if Henry born 1818 was his son he would have been 48 when Henry was born. There is always the possibility that they were children of a second wife.

In 1838 we find among the taxable inhabitants of Sumner County -

HENRY MITCHELL - 13 Civil Dist;

JOHN MITCHELL - 15 Civil Dist.

PLEASANT MITCHELL - 13 Civil Dist.

PLEASANT MITCHELL - 13 Civil Dist. - "for the heirs of Hunt."

(I presume this was Pleasant Mitchell, brother of Henry & Elizabeth)

Marriage bonds, Davidson Co. Tenn. 1787-1837 - p. 452 - show that PLEASANT H. (A?) MITCHELL married ANN RIDLEY April 5, 1834. (Was this also Pleasant Mitchell Sr.? or Jr.? (if either, it was a second marriage).

Book 20-page 342 - dated 12 Oct. 1846 - JOHN MITCHELL & SUSANNAH his wife of Todd County, Ky. to JOSEPH T. TOOLEY, Guardian of the minor heirs of PLEASANT MITCHELL.

(this is John, brother of Eliz. & Susannah Hunt - Joseph Tooley is husband of Sarah Mitchell. Was he guardian of the children of Pleasant Jr.? Or, of the "minor heirs" of the first Pleasant? (These guardianships often lasted over many years). However, more likely to be Pleasant Jr.

Mrs. Potter Womack of Gallatin, who has been helping me with the Mitchells, and whose family also lived on "Goose Creek" for generations, tells me that there were 3 groups of Mitchells in Sumner County. Those on the Sumner-Robertson border (from Bedford Co. Va. via Ky); those on Station Camp Creek near village of Cottontown, about 8 miles west of Gallatin and the 3rd group (ours) lived on or near GOOSE CREEK. She says: "PLEASANT'S land on ridge between head waters of Bledsoe Creek & Trammel Creek would be just east of Westmoreland, which is on the highway 31 E north of Gallatin. This is very near the head waters of Goose Creek - she thinks one branch of Bledsoe's Cr. and one branch of Goose Cr. head in what is now Macon Co. - just a hill or two between. She thinks this Pleasant was brother of our Elizabeth.

I find where one REBECCA MITCHELL married JAMES HENRY Oct. 13, 1818 in Lebanon Co. Tenn. James Henry & James Mitchell, bondsmen. This could have been a second marriage of Rebecca, widow of Pleasant Mitchell, who could have died soon after - or even before - the birth of his son HENRY in 1818. Or, Rebecca could have been a daughter of Pleasant & Rebecca.

Will of Hardy Hunt is in Sumner Co. He names wife Sally; Hardy H. Seawell; Martha Jane Walker Allen; ; Benj. Pate Seawell; Sally Bowlings; daughter ELIZABETH MITCHELL; dau. Lucretia Stroud; dau. Penelope Grimsley; dau. Savrina White; Fielding Grimsley; Patsy Linkey of N.C.; son Zion Hunt & Thomas Hunt, exors. (I thought this Elizabeth was wife of Pleasant Mitchell, but Mrs. Womack says his wife was Sarah Hunt. Strangely enough a Mrs. Martha McCann-3441 Kenneth Dr., Palo Alto, Cal writes: "I find a WILLIAM MITCHELL b. 1770 in Ashville, N.C. d. 1829 in Tenn. who married ELIZABETH HUNT of White Hall, Lincolnshire, England - with a son SION HUNT MITCHELL b. 1797 in Franklin Co. N.C." - and here is another Mitchell family "puzzle: You will note will of ANDERSON MITCHELL in Amelia Co. 1772 - Robert Fleming & Wm. Fleming witnesses. Now, in Sumner Co. ROBERT FLEMING married NANCY MITCHELL June 6, 1806 - John Mitchell bondsman. I have the 1850 census records on Polly (Mitchell) Meador and her family. Living in her home with her husband and children in that year were also BEVERLY M. FLEMING - age 34 and MARY FLEMING - age 26. Wonder who they were.

But Calling to mind the mortality of the Body and that it is appointed for all men to die, do make and ordain this my Last Will and Testament and as touching such Worldly Estate which has Pleased God to Bless me with in this life I give and Bequeath and dispose of the same in the following Manner and form - Vizt -

Petition of Officers & Soldiers of Amelia Co. to Convention June 4, 1773:

Signed by EVANS MITCHELL, WILLIAM MITCHELL and also by Abner, Abel, William Godfrey, Joel, Frank, Patchew & Shadrack TUCKER; and by Solomon, Burwell, Abraham, Isaac, Hezekiah, Daniel, Page, John & Joseph COLLIER, Daniel & Stith LEE; Stephen BAKER; Archer, John & Peter JONES; Daniel ALLEN James, Cornelius & SAMUEL CLARK; Bowler HALL; Matthew FASLEY; Rich'd ALLEN & c.

Miss. Leona Bearden, 15326 Bellota Ave., Paramount, Calif. is desc. from HENRY D. CRISPEN b. 1775 (abt.) supposedly in France; m. min Becklenburg Co. N.C. MARY MITCHELL, b. S.C. (Crenshaws were from Amelia, Lunenburg &c. some to Granville Co. N.C. So Mary could have been of the Amelia group.)

Rejected Pension Claim: THOMAS MITCHELL formerly of Charlotte Co. enlisted in Hezekiah Norton's Co. Pr. Edw. for 3 yrs. in Rev. Service. Served his time out excepting short time before he was discharged, being badly wounded in Battle of Guilford, F.C. when he was discharged as being incapable from wounds, of further service. In his life he rec'd 100 a. land only.

CLAIBORN MITCHELL, b. AN HOWARD (w. Benj. Howard) & SAMUEL MITCHELL are only ch. & heirs except FALSY LUCAS (wf. Gideon Lucas) and his wife, FRANK MITCHELL 3 Feb. 1834 (by Wm. Almond).

Mrs. Richard T. Daughtie, Jr., 24 South Rose Road, Memphis 17, Tenn. has the following MITCHELL line:

WILLIAM M. MITCHELL b. 1770, Asheville, N.C. (one reference says Franklin Co N.C.) another says England. all could be wrong as with articles on Co. Hist. where Wm. was listed as ancestor). He m. Mar. 3, 1790, ELIZABETH M. HUNT, b. Dec. 18, 1771, Whitehall, Lincolnshire Co. Eng. She was dau. of LORD FRANCIS TRAVIS HUNT and his wife LADY THERESA HUNT. (One of the articles referred to above states that Lord Hunt was knighted and was famous for his leadership in the Hunt Rebellion. She has not been successful in proving this or even finding mention of a Hunt Rebellion in English Hist.

WILLIAM MITCHELL d. 1816 in Wilson Co. Tenn. His will was exhibited in Ct Sept. 19th, 1816 in which he mentions his wife ELIZABETH and ZADOCK and SION MITCHELL (his sons). The will was pvd. by 2 witnesses Hardy Merritt and Born Webb. On Mar. 17th, 1817, the account of the sale of the property of WILLIAM MITCHELL was exhibited and recorded.

ELIZABETH MITCHELL moved to Ill. and d. there but she does not have date. The following account was sent to her by Daisy Roberts Malone of Col., who wrote a book "Our Families" in which she included MITCHELLS, COCKS, ROBERTS, etc.

"At the time of William Mitchell's death (1829 in Tenn.) their sons Zadock & Sion Hunt were already away from home having gone to Ill. about the time it became a state (1818). The Mother and youngest son, William Nazareth then made their hom with her brother, Dr. Hunt of Lebanon, Tenn." She has tried in vain to find a Dr. Hunt of Lebanon, Wilson Co. Tenn. at this time.

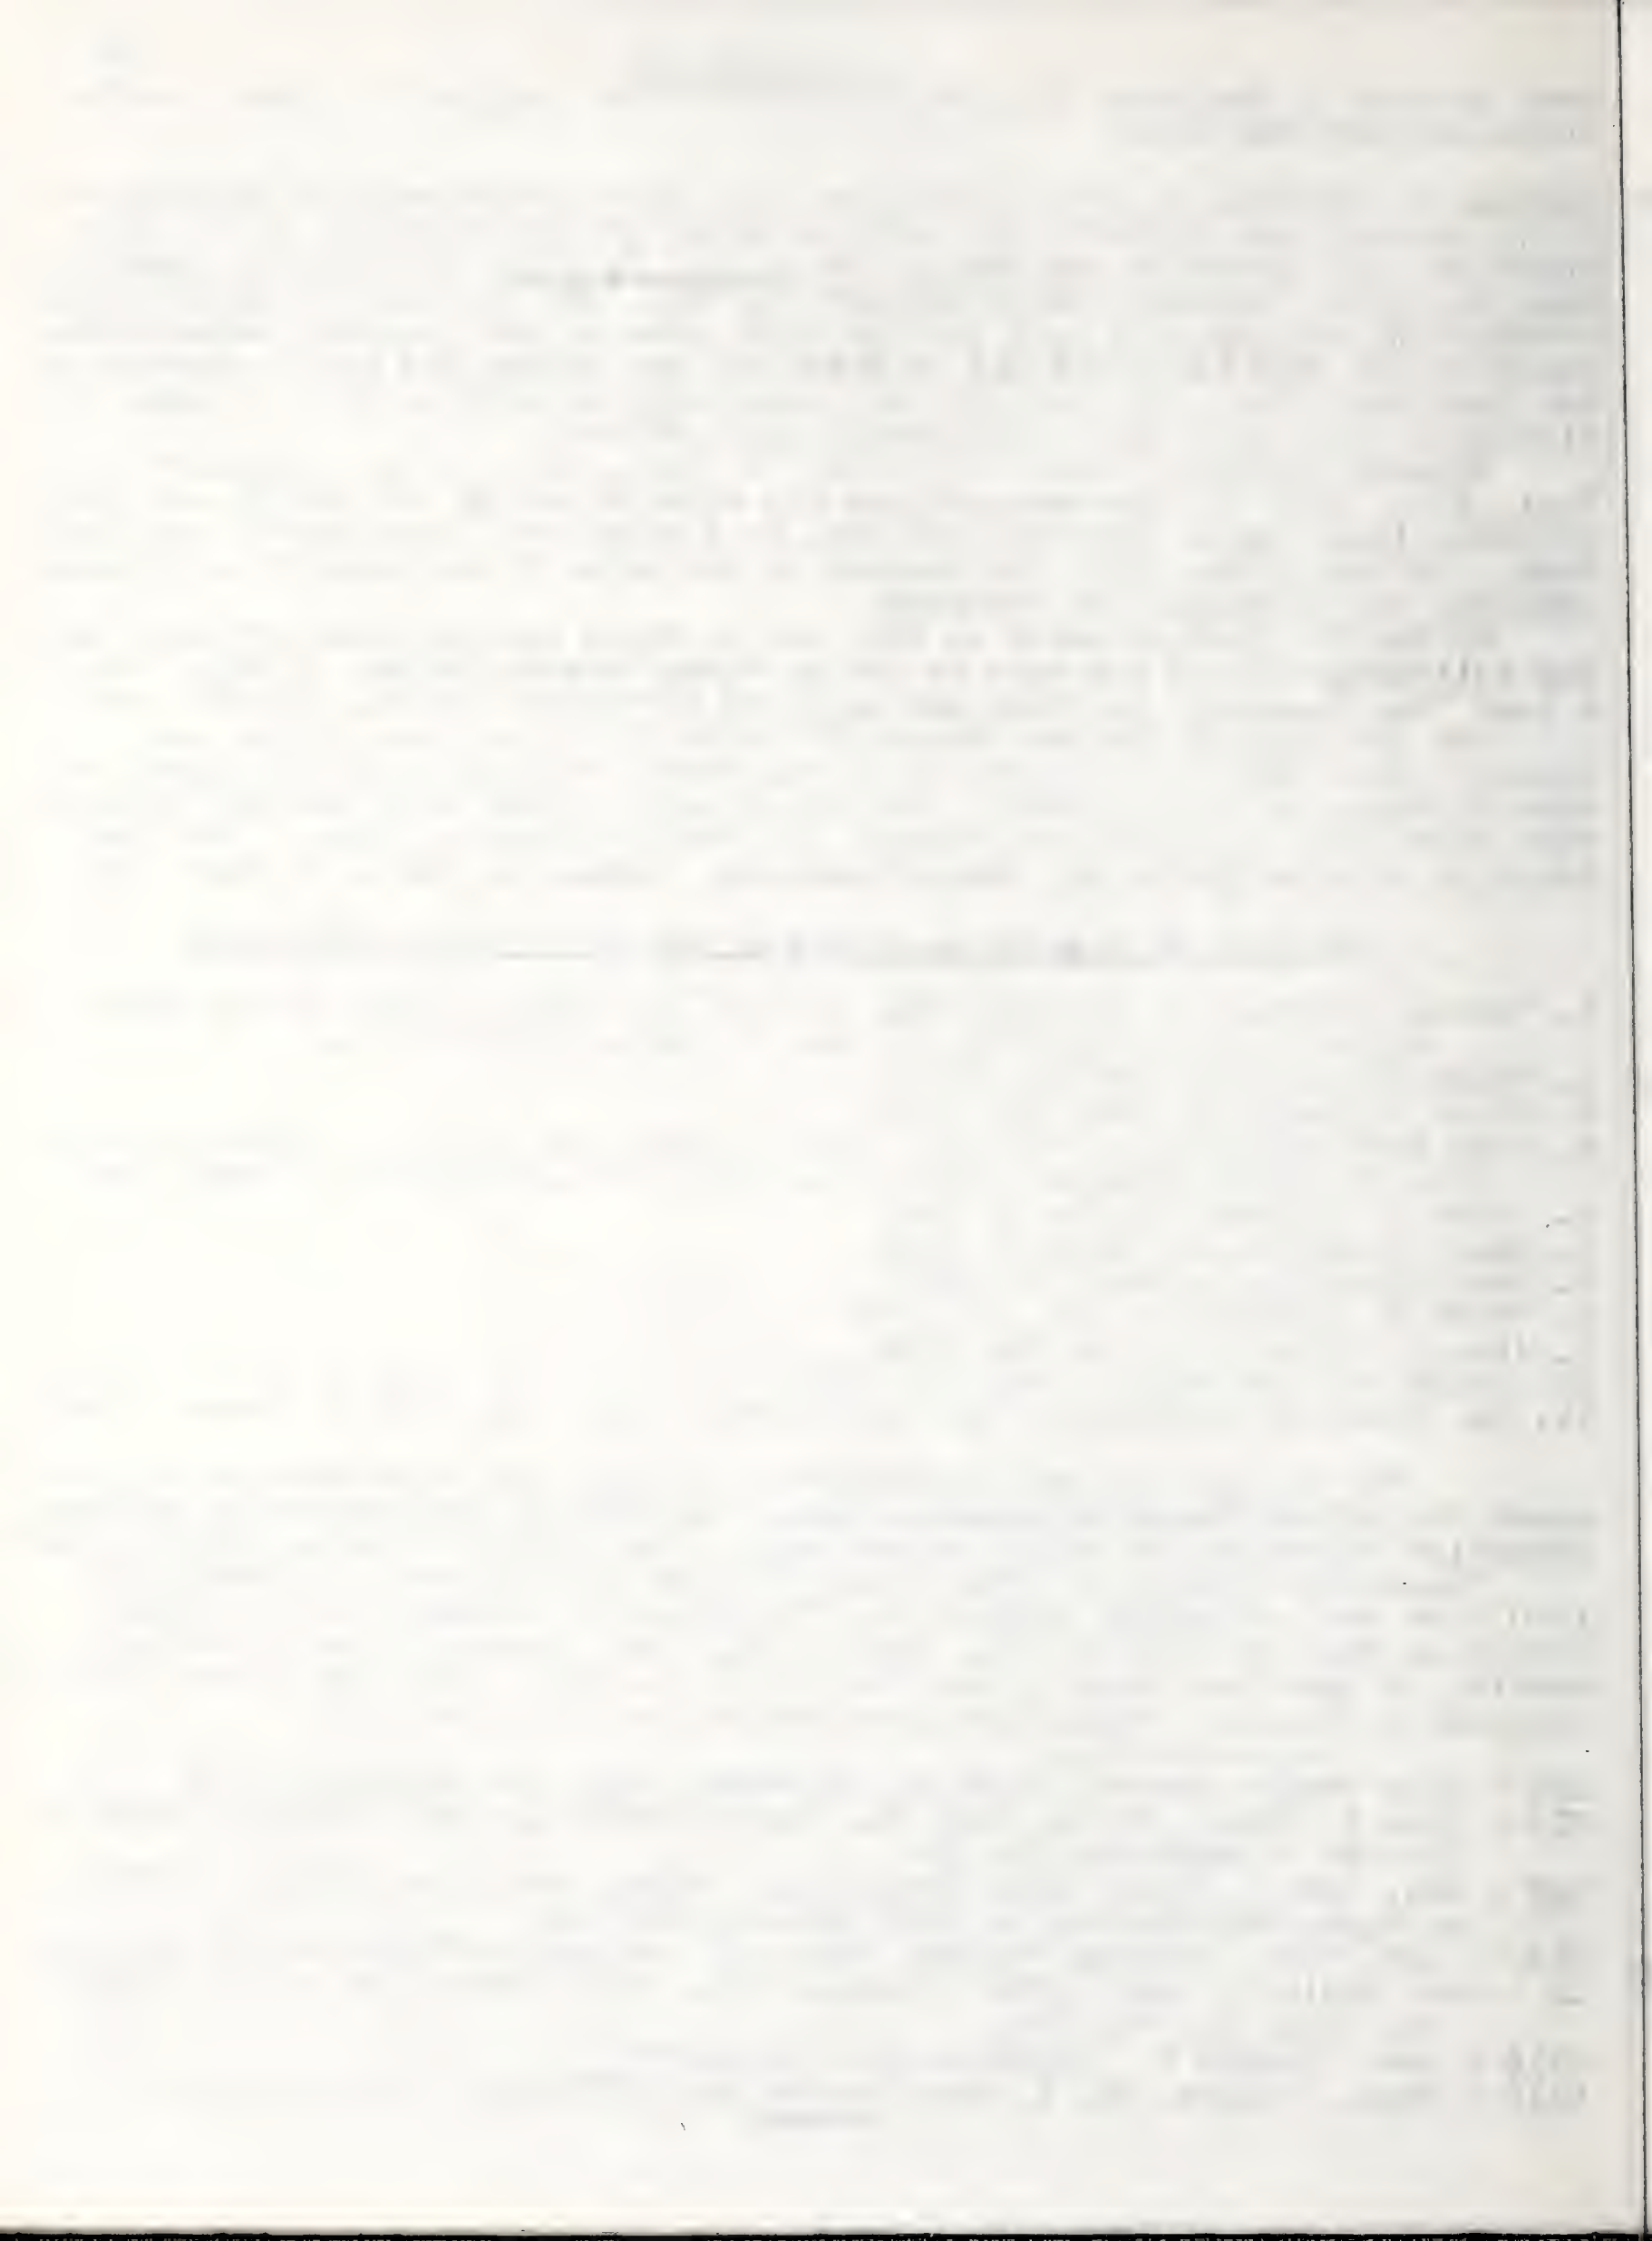

Children of WILLIAM M. MITCHELL and ELIZABETH M. HUNT were:

1. Zadock Mitchell, b. Apr. 3, 1781 d. Nov. 12, 1833 m. 1815, Sarah Ellen Davis, b. Aug. 22, 1789, d. Dec. 2, 1834, Corinth, Ill.
2. Nancy Mitchell, b. May 11, 1793
3. Miles Mitchell, b. Dec. 21, 1794
4. Sion Hunt Mitchell b. Sept. 17, 1797, d. June 21, 1875, m. ELIZABETH COCK Feb. 25, 1817, Lebanon, Wilson Co. Tenn. (Mrs. Daughtie's direct line)

She thinks they were Methodists - in Ill. they were members of Zion Church named for a Zion Church in Lebanon, Tenn. In 1826 it was changed to Liberty Methodist Church and is still active today. She copied following from a cousin:

"Nazareth Mitchell b. 1758 living Fayette Dist. Robeson Co. North Car. 17-C also bro. of Zadock Mitchell b. 1730 lived in Robeson Co. N.C. 1750, listed in Pension Rolls of N.C. Cont. & Mil. Rev. "It is in the New Kent Parish Register of St. Peter's that we find STEPHEN MITCHELL the father of 5 children. Then we have SAMUEL MITCHELL JR., father of JOHN MITCHELL. STEPHEN MITCHELL (Sr.) d. in 1720, and THOMAS MITCHELL SR. died in 1736....

THOMAS MITCHELL, son of THOMAS & ELIZABETH MITCHELL b. 1730 may have been father of THOMAS b. 1760.. Signed T. Mitchell, H. Claibourne, Nicholas Harrison Richard Banks. At a Ct. held for Amherst Co. the 18th day of Dec. 1820 this Guardian Bond was acknowledged in open court and ordered to be recorded.

We see that a Stephen is here mentioned as under 21 and son of William As another Stephen was in the Rev. the name was continued in the family. Apparently Thomas, who was the guardian was a brother of William who had the children as named. This Thos. & Ma. may have been sons of an earlier Stephen.

The only Stephen shown was in the Guardian's Bonds - evidently a younger Stephen. Further examination of individual will might show something on an earlier Stephen.

In an effort to place the deeds we have a number of deeds both "to" and "from" 1772 to 1806.. In an effort to place the 1806, B. in Richmond supposedly the son of Stephen we note that we have given the 1780 Tax list of Richmond in the 1st report as th Mitchell. Richmond deeds not yet examined..

Amherst County seems to be the head quarters of the desired family. This county was formed in 1751 from Albemarle Co. therefore the part of the family which was in that part of Albemarle previous to that date, which became Amherst, will be found under Amherst records. It appears that the Albemarle family became mainly Amherst on records.

Original records are the most important in tracing family history, but searching such records is slow work and takes much time to be thorough.

The first BILLY might have been in Albemarle and a WILLIAM MITCHELL was certainly in Albemarle in 1772. However, Stephen was in Amherst during the Rev. period, as shown in our 1st report.

Line of Mrs. Lovell: THOMAS MITCHELL b. 1760, Richmond, Va. Nancy Moran b. 1766, Amherst Co., Va. they were married in Nelson Co., Va. Daughter of above couple - AGNESS CHELLY MITCHELL m. Wm. Alex. Miller 1823.

(Thomas, b. 1760 would have been 22 yrs old and on the tax list. As neither Thomas nor Stephen appeared it would seem that they had moved from Richmond.)

Early Tax Payers - Pothergill Lists - 1782 to 1783 - Mitchells listed in counties of Fayette, James City, Berkeley, Jr. William, Aqueduct and Louisa (All counties not listed and Christian names not given).

Nelson Co. marriages - There were two Nelson counties in Va. - One was taken into Ky. in 1785. The other was formed from Amherst Co. in 1797. This latter would naturally be the county in which the marriage of Thomas Mitchell & Nancy Moran would have occurred.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE MITCHELLS:

In England, Wales and Scotland, and the Emerald Isle as well,
In U.S.A. and Canada, in city, plain and dell,
Where English tongue is spoken - that is where the Mitchells dwell.
The Clan goes marching on!

Glory to the name of Mitchell!
Glory to the tribe of Mitchell!
S-p-i-e-n-s O-i A-s-s-i-d-u-s!
The clan goes marching on!
(Tune, Annie Laurie)

Christo her, Dave and Sir Andrew
Were fathers of our clan;
Andrew was the King's Scotch Chaplain;
Nathan was a Minute man;
David was a Governor;
Many Mitchells died at sea;
Stephen was the U.S. Chief Justice;
Mitchells - they were proud to be!

(Tune, Dixie)
When you're with the Southern Mitchells meeting
You'll enjoy a happy greeting
You will stay, every day, all the way, in Dixie Land.
Dixie Mitchell wives are good at cooking.
Mitchell girls are sure good-looking,
Yes, I know it is so, let us go to Dixie Land

Yes the Mitchells of Old Dixie
Are true and do
Extend their hands to Mitchell kin
To welcome and their hearts win
Oh yes, God bless
Our kinsmen of dear Dixie;
Welcome Mitchell
Our cousins of Old Dixie.

(Tune - Auld Lang Syne).

There are a million Mitchells in this world - and maybe more -
But we believe we all are kin, as Mitchells were of yore.

So let each Mitchell neighbor be your cousin and your friend
Your hand of hospitality should to them all extend.

Introduction:

The Mitchell Family is among the 49 "best families" selected by the American Historical Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past two years.

The Mitchell Family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the U.S., its members having played important roles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Mitchells have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

The family name of Mitchell is some instances may have originated from the Anglo-Saxon "mycel", meaning great or mickle (that is, much) but in most cases it is supposed to be a Norman name from the Hebrew "Michael", which means "one who is like God".....Geoffrey Michel, of the Britains, was a manucaptor in 1302...

There are 24 British crests for the name Mitchell and CO works containin Mitchell genealogy. There were 57 Mitchell families in Conn. in 1790 and some 20 persons of the name had served in the U.S. Congress before 1816.

The Mitchell Coat-of-Arms (shown in the front of the volume) is the same as of the Mitchells of Scotland. Several other great Mitchell families use coats of arms very similar to it. This is the most widely known of all Mitchell Coats of-Arms- description:

Arms: Table a fesse between three fusces or within a chequy chequy of the last and first. (On a black shield a golden band between three diamond-shaped figures, also of gold. The shield within a chequered border of black and gold.)

Crest: A stalk of wheat with three ears

Motto: Sapientia qui assiduus (Latin) (He is wise who is assiduous.).

(Outlines are given of the following "Ancient Mitchell Families": Forbes-Mitchell of Thainstone; Mitchell (now Cleve) of Llanfarchell Cynge; Mitchell, late of Holmood; Mitchell of Carmo; Mitchell (now Macdonald) late of Holbrook Hall;

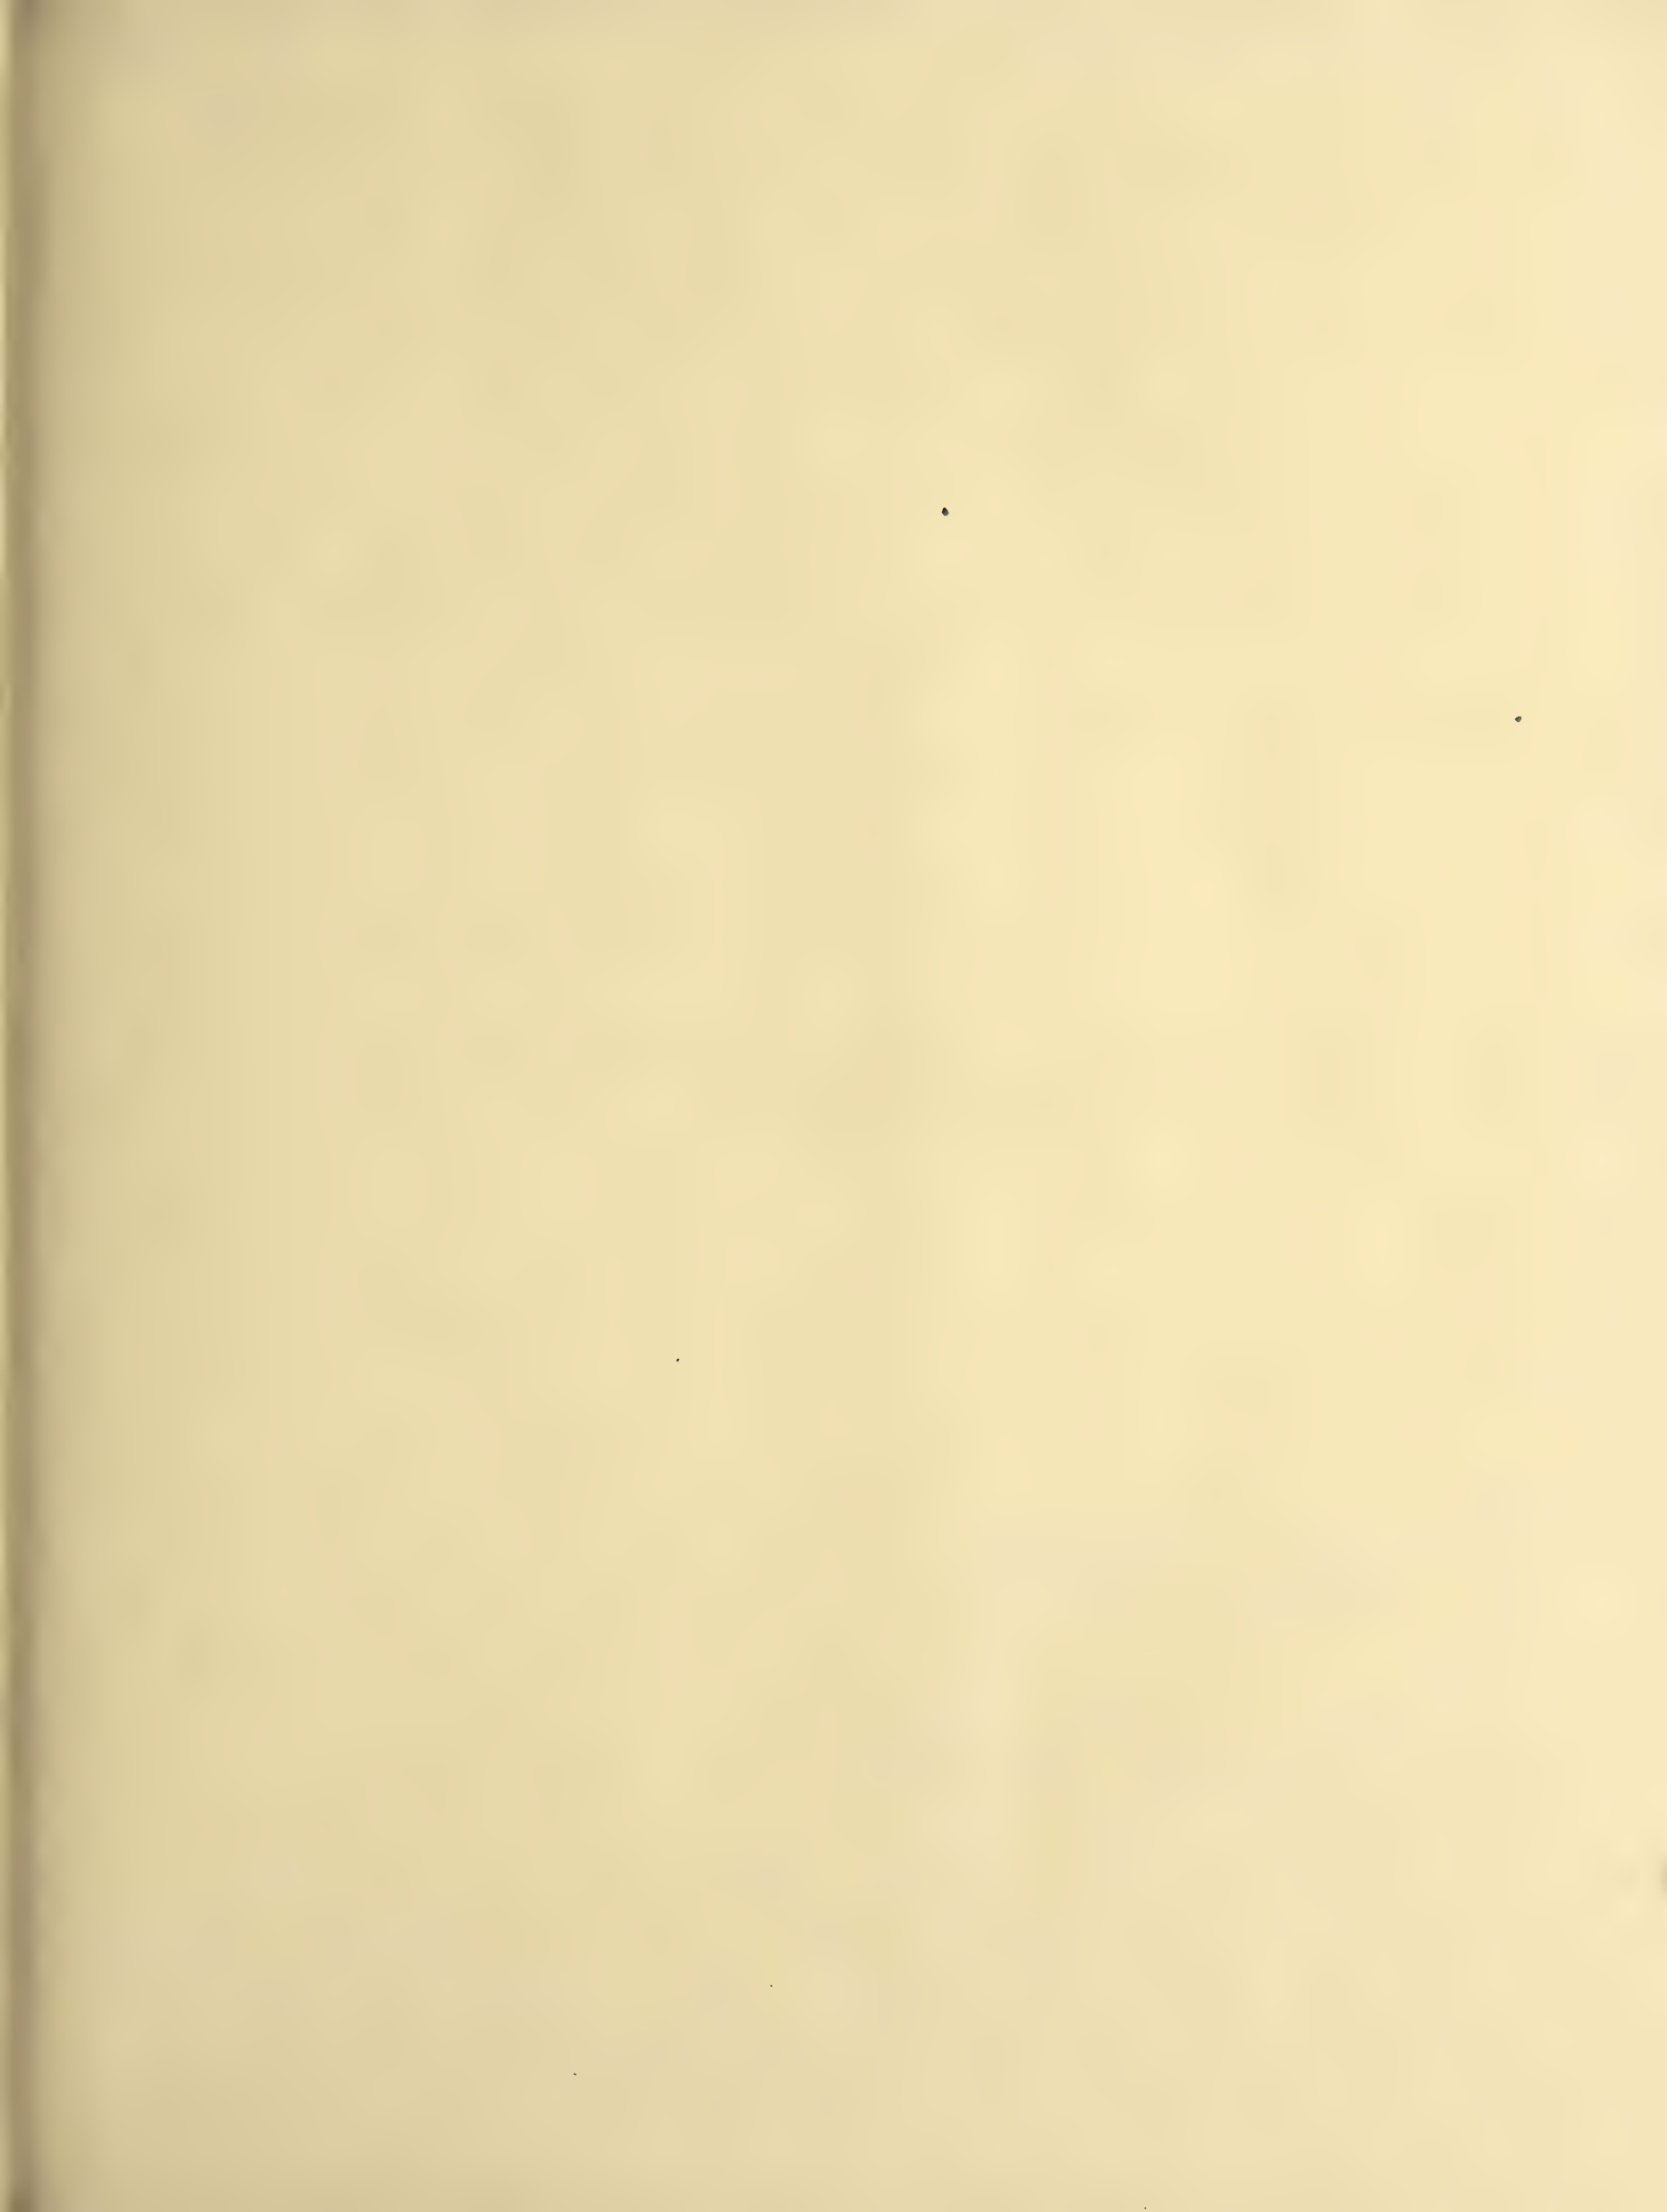

It also lists: "Prominent Mitchells of Today": American Mitchells of Royal Descent, including Alfred Mitchell Family, S. Fair Mitchell Family;

Amherst Co., Va.: Wm. MITCHELL from Jno. Loving Sr. D. of T. p 426, 1769

Miss. Leona Eerden, 15326 Bullota Ave., Paramount, Calif. is descended from MARY MITCHELL of Mecklenburg Co. N.C. - wife of Henry D. Greshaw, who is said to have been born in France about 1775; sailed to the U.S. in 1790, settling in Mecklenburg Co. N.C. He later moved to Laurens Co., S.C.

Mrs. Herbert R. Gentry, 3311 Clearview, Austin 3, Texas, has the Gaury Co. Tenn. Mitchells, most of whom were from Orange Co. N.C. and adjoining counties. She has one DAVID R. MITCHELL, b. ca. 1797 in N.C. His dau., MARGARET ALABAMA MITCHELL was b. in Tenn. in 1840. This family appears on the 1830 and 1840 census records of Gaury Co. Tenn. She found a Rev. Sold. James Mitchell there from Orange Co. N.C. who had son DAVID C. MITCHELL - so perhaps her ancestor was a bro. of James.

Mrs. Lillian Norton, 645 Leila Ave., Redding, Calif. says her 4th gr-gr-father, JACOB MITCHELL was one of 9 brothers who came to the U.S. before the Rev. Some of the others were CHARLES, BOB, WILLIAM, HENRY, JOHN & JAMES. Tradition states they were from Ireland. JACOB MITCHELL b. ca. 1756, m. ELIZABETH DUKE - children's names not known except her 3rd. gr-grandfather, HENRY MITCHELL. JACOB & ELIZ. lived in Mecklenburg Co., Va. and Anson Co., N.C. HENRY MITCHELL m. ABIGAIL JAMES COCK. They lived in Tenn. (near Chatanooga) in 1828 - Moved to Ill. no.-then Ark. Their 10 children were: ELIZABETH DUKE, OLDM COCK, JOHN, MARY ANN, JACOB, (her gr-gr-father), JANE, MARY, CHARITY, WILLIAM GREENE & HENRY BECTON. Some moved to Texas. JACOB m. AMERICA CLARK. Both d.

in Texas. HENRY BIXTON m. Mildred Ross (1st wife; 2nd Jane Neal.

WILLIAM M. MITCHELL, b. 1770, Asheville, N.C. (or Franklin Co.) m. Mar. 3, 1790, ELIZABETH N. HUNT, b. Dec. 12, 1771, Mitchell, Lincolnshire, Eng.; dau. of Lord Francis Travis Hunt and his wife Lady Theresa Hunt. Wm. Mitchell d. 1816, Wilson Co. Tenn. Will Sept. 19th, 1816 in which he mentions his wife Elizabeth and Zadoch and Slon Mitchell (his sons). The will 1817 - sale of his property exhibited & recorded. Elizabeth Mitchell moved to Ill.

Daisy Roberts Malone of Colorado wrote a book "Our Families" in which she included Mitchell's, Cooks, Roberts, Co.

"At the time of Wm. Mitchell's death (1829 in Tenn.) their sons Zadoch & John (Slon) Hunt were in Ill. (before it became a state). The mother and youngest son William Nazareth then made their home with her brother Dr. Hunt, of Lebanon, Tenn."

Children of William M. Mitchell and Elizabeth N. Hunt were:

1. Zadoch Mitchell b. Apr. 3, 1791 d. Nov. 12, 1833, m. 1813 Sarah Ellen Davis, b. Aug. 22, 1789 d. Dec. 2, 1834, Corinth, Ill.
2. Nancy Mitchell b. May 11, 1793
3. Miles Mitchell b. Dec. 21, 1794
4. Slon Hunt Mitchell b. Sept. 17, 1797, d. June 21, 1875 - m. ELIZABETH COOK Feb. 25, 1817, Lebanon, Wilson Co., Tenn.
5. Alice L. Mitchell b. May 8, 1800
6. Henry Mitchell b. Sept. 7, 1801
7. Mary Mitchell b. Dec. 22, 1804
8. Sarah T. Mitchell b. July 17, 1806
9. John H. Mitchell b. May 29, 1808
10. Julia Ann Mitchell b. July 31, 1811
11. William Nazareth Mitchell b. Apr. 10, 1814 d. Dec. 30, 1879 m. Rachel C. Roberts.

In Wilson Co. Tenn. is a deed of land to William Mitchell dated March 23, 1807. Could be same Wm. They were Methodists because in Ill. they were the 1st members of a church called Zion in memory of a little Zion Church in Lebanon, Tenn. In 1826 it was changed to Liberty Methodist Church and is still active today.

Notation by a relative of the above: "NAZARETH MITCHELL b. 1758 living Fayette Dist. Robeson Co. N.C. 17-0 also brother of ZADOCH MITCHELL b. 1750 lived in Robeson Co. N.C. in 1780, listed in Pension Rolls of N.C. Continentals and Militia Rev. Troops. Also listed as serving in same Rev. troop - was Nazareth Mitchell b. 1758. Dece. of these Mitchells assigned to Francis Jordan Fort (now Corinth Twp., Ill.) in 1829."

It may be a mere coincidence - one of those so often occurring in genealogical work, but I can't get away from the fact that the above Mitchells were perhaps close to mine. In fact, if it were not for his having been b. in N.C. I might believe this Wm. Mitchell to have been the brother, William, of our PLEASANT and his other brothers, Robert & Richard Mitchell. Two of the sons of Pleasant Mitchell married HUNTS and Wilson Co. Tenn. is just a "stone's throw" from Sumner Co. Tenn.

Cabarrus Co. N.C. 1798 - JOHN MITCHELL m. Hannah Johnston

One PLEASANT EVANS was living in Amherst Co., Va. in 1800. Could "PLEASANT" have been an EVANS family name? (Thos. & Wm. Evans were there at the same time (Wm. with large family). Related to EVANS MITCHELL, who is closely connected in some manner to our PLEASANT MITCHELL. Mrs. Doughtie copied the will of HARDY HUNT (of Sumner Co. Tenn.) and figures that her Eliz. Hunt Mitchell b. 1771 was about 55 at the time and could have been his sister.

Will of THOMAS HUNT (did not get date) - to Chambrose Duffer if he stays with wife. I will him if he stays until age 21 yrs. Wife, MARY HUNT. Three children, SUSAN HUNT, SARAH A. HUNT, JOHN T. HUNT. Appts. wife and Stephen R. Gilliam exec. 13 May, 1827. (She wonders if this SUSAN and SARAH were the two of the name who married JOHN & PLEASANT MITCHELL JR.)

Goodspeed's mentions (pg. 789) Williamson Co. - SION HUNT an early settler there prior to 1800. Also in Davidson Co. Bk. 1 p. 20, Sion Hunt m. Rebecca Nunham Feb. 11, 1801.

Mary Durham, Box 213, Durham, N.C. has the following Mitchell line:

SAMUEL MITCHELL, d. in Richmond, Va. in late 1770, leaving one child, Sally, who m. Walter King Cole (from this marriage she descends) SAMUEL had a brother, ROBERT MITCHELL who was a "marriner". The father of Samuel & Robert was WILLIAM, who in one deed was listed as living in the "subberbs" of the city of Londonderry and in another as being "now of Dublin."

In 1789 ROBERT MITCHELL signed a quit claim for himself and his father giving to his niece, Sally Cole, 300 a. of land in Henrico Co., half of a vessell and cargo which had been left to William by Samuel. This deed leads me to think that ROBERT MITCHELL "marriner" had settled in Richmond, because he is listed as ROBERT MITCHELL of the city of Richmond.

In 1811 a ROBERT MITCHELL signed a quit claim for himself and his father giving to his niece, Sally died in Richmond, leaving a daughter Sarah and a son, WILLIAM. He left a good bit of property, including some in Bacon Co. on the waters of the Ohio River and in Lincoln Co., K whether this Robert Mitchell is the same as Robert Mitchell "marriner" is a moot question. There was a ROBERT MITCHELL who was an early Mayor of Richmond, but here again we do not know whether this is the same man.

Mr. Austin Embrey, Clerk Circuit Court, Nelson Co., Lovingsston, Va., to whom I wrote asking for data on PLEASANT MITCHELL, who appears on the Nelson Co. tax records of Nelson Co. from 1810-1818, writes that they will do no research there and suggests that I employ Rev. Bailey F. Davis, Amherst, Va. to do the searching. (I am most anxious to prove that this is the PLEASANT MITCHELL who left Amelia Co. Va. 1797 and whose family later appear in Sumner Co. Tenn. (ca. 1818). Any suggestions will be greatly appreciated.

Mrs. H. R. Gentry, 3311 Clearview, Austin, Texas, can find no PLEASANT MITCHELL among her notes. She sends the following:

Mrs. Robert Bowling, Marion, Ala. does not think her ancestor came from Amelia - he was a generation older than my PLEASANT, as he was in Pitts. Co. 1767. Another James was in Amelia about the age of Pleasant. She wonders why James named a son John COLEMAN Mitchell and wonders if there was an earlier Mitchell-Coleman connection than that of PLEASANT TO Rebecca Coleman. She also wonders if THOMAS MITCHELL of various land surveys and her ancestor of other surveys were father & son. She says if I could prove my ancestor was dau. of JAMES & LOUISA MITCHELL of Sumner Co. Tenn. then she can connect me with his parents in Va. (will ask for this data). Says he was one of the older children & not living with his father in 1850. (Too young - but could be a connection) "There was a THOMAS MITCHELL who had a land grant in 1753 on both sides of Sandy River, 300 acres (Pitts. Co.? Father of James of Pitts 1767?"

Mrs. Roy E. Bailey, 605 Thomas, Jonesboro, Ark. says she has had correspondence with a Mrs. Thomas E. Miller, 1135 N. Watkins, Memphis 7, Tenn., and she quotes, "I have a history of Gibson Co., Tenn. Past & Present" 1961, p. 187, which names DR. PLEASANT H. MITCHELL, son of ELISHA MITCHELL of Mt. Mitchell, N.C. He attended medical school in Asheville, married there and had 17 children by his wife, ANN --? One son was Dr. Jim Mitchell. DR. PLEASANT MITCHELL died in 1873, at the age of 69. His sons fought on both sides in the Civil War."

(Note: would surely like to know who this Pleasant Mitchell was and how (if at all) related to Pleasant Mitchell of Amelia, who was son of THOMAS MITCHELL.)

MITCHELLMrs. W. R. Eckhardt, Jr.,
Nov. 15, 1962

Rev. Bailey Davis, Amherst Baptist Church, Amherst, Va. has offered to do some work for me on my Mitchells, which I will surely take advantage of after the holidays. Illness has delayed me. He says the name PLEASANT MITCHELL is familiar to him.

Mr. JAMES PLEASANT MITCHELL, Route #1, Trenton, Tenn. writes that his grandfather was PLEASANT H. MITCHELL and that he came to Tenn. from N.C. Says his father - or ~~uncle~~ was named ELIJAH MITCHELL and is buried on top of Mt. Mitchell, N.C. He is the oldest son - age 80 and remembers, as a boy, hearing his uncles and aunts saying that Mt. Mitchell and surrounding area was deeded by the government to his gr-gr-father for valor in the Rev. War. After some years in Tenn. his grandfather gave a brother in N.C. power to sell his interest. Says his grandfather, Pleasant H. Mitchell was born Mar. 4, 1804 came to Nashville as a young man to study medicine. There he met & m. ----H. Ridley (blotted) - they moved to W. Tenn. then to ----? He was the only doctor for miles around - accumulated a large plantation and lots of slaves. Raised 17 children - 16 to be grown. "Pleasant" is a family name, he says, as in "Tom".

(I am puzzled as to this Pleasant Mitchell, but feel sure there is a connection to my line - think he was a desc. of Thomas Mitchell of Amelia Co. Va.)

"In 1735, when Amelia Co. was created from Prince George Co. a part of Brunswick north of the Great Nottoway River and the ridge creating the water-shed between Roanoke & Appomattox rivers was added to Amelia. This left Brunswick with its present area west of Greenville Co. & the territory south of the north borders of present Lunenburg & Charlotte cos. extended indefinitely west.

Wills in Brunswick Co. are complete from 1732 to 1865. There is an index 1732-948 - An Index A-L through 1852 printed in the Va. Mag. of Hist. & Biog. V22, 68-80. 87-92-302-04 368-78-V23 pp 50-51 Wills through 1797 having surnames other than that of the testator mentioned in bequests were briefly abstracted by Anne Bradbury Peebles in D.A.R. Mag. V 69 pp 438-43.

Orphans' Bk. 1 1740-81 contains guardians' records from that period. Index to guardian's Accts. 1732 - 1948

Mrs. Robert Bowling, Marion, Ala. writes of a tradition that the Mitchells came over with John Robertson. Mentions a deed from John Mitchell & Amy to John Robinson Sr. Says one Thomas was in Va. 1662 owned 7 square miles of land. She does not know whether the Surry Mitchells were his descendants. She suggests that we secure and exchange Mitchell wills - says we can see the significance of the Thomas Mitchell of Surry Co. having a land grant of 612 acres in Brunswick Co., Va. & sons selling it - not sure if a James & a Thomas Mitchell were his sons. The wills of Thomas Mitchells seem later than sale of the land Thomas could have deeded his sons the land they sold.

Since her ancestor was in Pitts. Co. Va. in 1767, she is writing for the 1747 Thomas Mitchell will 2-134 - promises to send me a copy. Thinks she has other earlier Mitchell wills. There were 83 Mitchell heads of families in Va. in 1790 and 704 in the U.S. She suggests that we ask the Va. State Library if the land patent to Thomas Mitchell recorded in Land Bk. No. 17 for 1735-38 on pg. 75 is located in Amelia Co. It may or may not tell where Thomas lived before going to Amelia.

1. Introduction

The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of various factors on the performance of a system.

The study is organized as follows: Section 2 describes the system and the experimental setup. Section 3 presents the results of the experiments. Section 4 discusses the implications of the findings. Section 5 concludes the study.

2. System Description

The system under investigation is a complex system consisting of several interconnected components. The components are described in detail in the following sections.

The system is designed to process data and generate results. The data is input to the system through a series of sensors and is processed by a central unit.

The results of the processing are then output to a series of actuators, which control the system's behavior. The system is controlled by a series of algorithms and is monitored by a series of sensors.

The system is designed to be flexible and adaptable to changing conditions. It is able to learn from its experience and adjust its behavior accordingly.

The system is designed to be robust and reliable. It is able to handle a wide range of inputs and outputs and is able to maintain its performance over a long period of time.

The system is designed to be efficient and cost-effective. It is able to process large amounts of data quickly and accurately and is able to generate results in a timely manner.

The system is designed to be user-friendly and easy to operate. It is able to be controlled by a simple interface and is able to provide clear and concise results.

The system is designed to be scalable and able to handle increasing amounts of data and complexity. It is able to be expanded and modified to meet the needs of a growing system.

A Judge of our line was JOHN PLEASANT HENRY and there was a GARREY PLEASANT HENRY. (Note this in an old letter. Think the Pleasant connection is through the Mitchells and this lends force to the PLEASANT MITCHELL ancestry, especially since we have located one Pleasant Mitchell as brother of our Elizabeth Mitchell b. 1801.

Mrs. A. L. Johnson,
5716 Scenic Ridge Road,
Knoxville, Tenn.

Dear Mrs. Johnson:

It was most generous of you to send me the Mitchell data, and I am extremely interested in one of your notes: that of the children of Mark Mitchell.

You state that one JOSEPH MITCHELL, b. 1781 (place not stated) - d. Mar. 13, 1780, m. Mary Henderson on Oct. 14, 1781. He was a pioneer of the West, having lived with Daniel Boone in the fort where Booneboro, Ky now stands. He d. Knoxville, Tenn. His children were: Bath, MARK, ELIZABETH, Jacob, Richard, Manuel, Thomas, Edward, Angelina, William, POLLY & Susannah (b. from 1753-1779).

His son MARK, b. Jan. 17, 1786, is said to have had children: Thomas, ELIZABETH (DEIST), Benjamin, ~~Henry~~, ~~Manuel~~, POLLY, Bath, Louisa (Louisa), Mark, William, James Conway, and PLEASANT.

Now, my Elizabeth Mitchell, who, according to the 1850 census of Sumner Co. Tenn. was born in 1801 "in Virginia" surely had a sister named MARY (POLLY) Mitchell, who was also b. "in Va." in 1806. Also, she was called "DEIST" and her sister was called POLLY. I am certain that they were sisters. (She was wife of Rev. John Hall Henry and Polly m. 1st. a Mr. Austin, 2nd Jesse Meador).

An elderly cousin who lived to be 98 and lived in Tenn. told me before her death that Elizabeth had a brother, HENRY MITCHELL, of Todd Co. Ky. and she had visited him when very young. I finally located this HENRY MITCHELL and find he was born in 1818 "in Tenn." - he was 17 years younger than Elizabeth and 14 yrs. younger than Polly. I therefore have thought that Henry Mitchell could have been a nephew rather than brother - though it appears not. In this same neighborhood and on related deeds were JOHN MITCHELL, ROBERT MITCHELL, and PLEASANT MITCHELL - also NANCY MITCHELL. They appear to have been sisters and brothers, but I cannot be certain.

Now, among the children of Elizabeth Mitchell and her husband Rev. John Hall Henry, were 3 sons - WILEY K. HENRY; JOHN MICHAEL HENRY, and PLEASANT CARNEY HENRY. These names were carried down in the family, my own father being named WILEY LINK, for his uncle, above, and there were several Carneys, Pleasants &c.

Mitchell being such a common Scotch-Irish name, I have tried to follow the less common names, in order to identify the family. These Mitchells must have lost their surnames - or at least father before they were married, since some of the Henrys were bonded at some of their weddings. John & Pleasant Mitchell (above) married HUNT sisters - Sarah and Susan, and Pleasant Mitchell was evidently exor of the Hunt estate (see 1833 tax list, Sumner Co. Tenn.)

Now, one WILEY MITCHELL died in 1819, in Sumner Co. Tenn. and was evidently a bachelor. He named his "father & mother, SOLOMON &

Elizabeth Mitchell of Sumner Co., Md. This Solomon Mitchell was a son, told from Winchester Co. Md. I can't find any connection between him and our Mitchells, but there well might be one.

In our record of these S.C. Mitchells - the 1790-1800 - and there was later in S. Conn. - one record - in the Hist. of Wash. Co. Va. tells of a family which came from Ireland to the S. C. line in 1790. Va. rather early and from them the name "Miley" came down in the family. Solomon of the S.C. line is supposed to have been of this line, as well as the Capt. Tynes Mitchell of S.C. How much truth there is in this, I cannot say, since various of these versions are contradictory, with no definite evidence, so far as I have seen.

The Hendersons married in the S.C. Mitchell family and Mary (one of the ones) is also of that family. I can't see how my Elizabeth could be of the S.C. family, as she was definitely born in Virginia (county unknown) - as was her sister, Polly. If Henry was her brother, and youngest child, when the family had to come to Tenn. between 1800 and 1810. (I have not written for census records on John, Capt. or Lieutenant - but will try to remember to do so).

There is a tradition that in 1790, a man named "Assumed" that he was parent of my Mitchell group, but certainly have no proof of this. I find one Lieutenant Mitchell in Nelson Co. Va. in 1810-1817. Henry may have lived there and his family have gone to Tenn. and the wife, JANE MITCHELL who m. a JOHN HENDERSON in Davidson Co. in 1810, could have been his widow (her husband could have died shortly before the birth of Henry Mitchell in same year). Again, this is a tradition.

This is the first time I have heard that my grandfather had a son, THOMAS MITCHELL. It also appears that there was more than one son of that name in the earlier families - Bedford Co. Virginia, where so many of the Mitchells were from. One of these was son of "John" Mitchell, b. 1710 - 1780, another son was a son of "John" Mitchell, b. 1710 - 1780, another son was a son of "John" Mitchell, b. 1710 - 1780, another son was a son of "John" Mitchell, b. 1710 - 1780.

If you can tell me more of your Mitchells, I would be very glad to hear more. I have some leading backlogs (if of mine) - just a few - which I have copied from time to time on different Mitchell families - mostly Tenn. Ky. and Va. - some in the Carolinas and elsewhere. I can lend you these backlogs if you don't mind going back to both ways (just 3rd class, as they are quite lengthy). I have lots of these on various families and just can't afford any longer to keep them in the hall all the time at my own expense - but you understand. I also have various other things which have not been copied, but will be glad to copy for you anything which seems pertinent, when you learn a little more of your line.

One JOHN MITCHELL was buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Lebanon, Wilson Co. Tenn. b. d. Apr. 1858 - "A. B. 1810 of 176; age 60 years" as b. 1742 (son of John, b. 1756).

I find one JOHN MITCHELL listed among children of THOMAS MITCHELL, of Ashport Co. Va. - Will Oct. 5, 1757, as 1st son THOMAS & JOHN and Jane, b. 1710 - 1780. I also find the following:

Extracts from the files of the Virginia Gazette, Apr. 18, 1771:

Run away from the Subscriber, in Prince Edward, some Time in June last, a Negro Lad named Windsor, who for several Years past has waited upon me, and is acquainted with most Parts of the Country. He is a sensible and artful Fellow, about five Feet high, a handsome lively Look, and speaks quick. He was taken up by MR. WILLIAM MITCHELL OF YORK, and committed to that Jail, at which Time he called himself William Florence, and said he was free, and by the Assistance of some other Negro imprisoned with him, broke the Prison. He has since been seen about Williamsburg, near which place perhaps he is still concealed. He carried away with him a brown Holland Coat, blue Breeches, and good Shoes and Stockings. As I have reason to apprehend he will endeavor to get on board a Vessel, in Order to make his Escape out of the Colony, I do hereby forewarn all Masters and Commanders of Vessels from taking him on Board. I will give TEN POUNDS for such intelligence that I may get him.

William Watt.

(Same day) - For CHARTER - THE SHIP JOHNSTON, Thomas Wilson Master, Burthen about three Hundred Tuns, mounting fourteen Guns, and Men in Proportion. To terms apply to Hepburn and MITCHELL, or the Commander Portsmouth.

Since my Mitchells seem to have come from this section of Virginia, I will include the following:

"Brunswick Co. was created in 1720 by an Act which provided only that the beginning point of the boundaries should be the place where the Roanoke River intersects the N.C. border and that it should include the southern pass in the mountains. All of this area was formerly PRINCE GEORGE COUNTY. On 31 Oct. 1723 the Council ordered that the eastern boundary begin at the upper line of SURRY CO. (the line dividing SURRY from Pr. GEO. CO. and crosses Nottoway River near straight south to Meherrin River down Meherrin River to the lower line of SURRY CO. and from that point south to the N.C. border. The N. boundary was to run up the northern branch of Nottoway River to its head and then N.W. to the Mts. while the original Act would have excluded all of the present counties of Brunswick, Greenville, Lunenburg and most of Lunenburg from inclusion in Brunswick Co. the order of the Council added the considerable portion of Prince George south of Nottoway River and the S.E. $\frac{1}{2}$ of Surry Co.

MITCHELL (2)

The above Mitchell data was compiled by Willie B. Mitchell at Rogersville, Tenn. in 1847. Later information has been added by Miss Amelia N. Mitchell (deceased), and copied in 1933 by Prentiss Price; and copied 1963 by Mrs. All Johnson.

Another family of Mitchells came from Caswell Co. N.C. into Tenn; first, to Knox County, then to Overton County, and then on to White Co. Tenn. These were three brothers, DAVID, JOHN and SPENCER.

DAVID MITCHELL (1765-1831) married Jan. 30, 1788 Martha Love, daughter of Robert Love of South Carolina. Their children were: ELIZABETH, b. 1788; JOHN: NANCY, WHO MARRIED Woodson White, ALLEN, DAVID L., ROBERT, LODE, and JABEZ GILLION.

SPENCER MITCHELL, married Rachel Roberts in North Carolina in 1796. Their children were: ARTHUR, b. 1799; JOHN, b. 1802; SPENCER JR. b. 1804; WILLIAM LYNN, b. 1806; ROBERT SARGENT, b. 1808; STACY, b. 1810; BARNETT KENT, b. 1811; JOSEPH GOLD, b. 1814; DAVID LOCKHART, b. 181 ; three infants died under 2 years. They were KATHERINE, ELIZABETH, and an infant son. SPENCER died in Texas.

Mrs. Johnson's great-grandmother was LOCKY MITCHELL, born Aug. 31, 1811, buried in Anderson County, Tenn. She had a brother named JESSE MITCHELL, who was killed during the Civil War. Tradition says they were the children of WILLIAM MITCHELL, called BILLY MITCHELL.

WILL OF SOLOMON MITCHELL

Copied from the Mitchell Records found in the Tennessee Library and Archives, Nashville:

"I, SOLOMON MITCHELL of the state of Tennessee and Hawkins County being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament revoking all other wills heretofore by me made.

In the first place, I give and bequeath unto my wife, NANCY MITCHELL all my estate if she should survive me., that is all my personal and real property or estate of every kind whatsoever, of every debt due or owing that I may die seized and possessed of, to have and to enjoy her life time.

Secondly, I desire that at both our deaths, I desire that my two slaves, Betty and James may receive their freedom. And I do hereby at death and my wife's Nancy Mitchell's death give them their freedom. And I do hereby ~~at death and my~~ desire that my Executors may get a special Act of Assembly passed if it can be done, for them to receive their freedom according to the tenor of this my last will and Testament If they do not receive their freedom above stated, I give and bequeath the above slaves to JOHN MITCHELL, my son, forever, this is, in the foll wing manner. I give the service of said slaves to him one day in each week forever, and the other five days of each week during their lifetime I give to said two slaves, during their serviece to him, I desire that he shall not depart with said two slaves or trace his rights of them away.

Thirdly, at my death and my wife's death, I give and bequeath unto my eleven children; that is to say , REBECKAH...LEWIS...JESSE... GREENBERRY ...NANCY...ROBERT...MORRIS...ELIZABETH...POLLY...SUSANNAH... RICHARD.... fifty cents each.

The first of these is the fact that the system is not self-sufficient. It is dependent on the outside world for many of its raw materials and for the energy which it needs to operate. This is a serious disadvantage, especially in the case of a country which is surrounded by hostile powers.

The second disadvantage is that the system is very expensive. It costs a great deal of money to build and to maintain, and it is not clear whether it is worth the cost. The third disadvantage is that the system is not very reliable. It is liable to breakdown, and it is not clear whether it is worth the risk of failure.

There are, of course, many other disadvantages of the system, but these are the most important. It is clear that the system is not a very attractive proposition. It is not self-sufficient, it is very expensive, and it is not very reliable. It is not clear whether it is worth the cost and the risk of failure.

It is, of course, possible to build a system which is self-sufficient, which is cheap, and which is reliable. But it is not clear whether it is worth the cost and the risk of failure.

There are, of course, many other disadvantages of the system, but these are the most important. It is clear that the system is not a very attractive proposition. It is not self-sufficient, it is very expensive, and it is not very reliable. It is not clear whether it is worth the cost and the risk of failure.

MITCHELL (3)

Fourthly, I give and bequeath unto my son, JOHN MITCHELL, all my property which I have not before disposed of - of every kind whatsoever, that I may die seized and possessed of forever. I constitute and appoint Richard Mitchell, my Executor.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 31st day of Jan. 1837.

1802, page 8 John Varnall vs. RICHARD MITCHELL; the jury found RICHARD MITCHELL had paid $275.00 on the debt, and no more. They fined him $475.00, or the balance due, and gave Varnall $102.75 as damage, besides the Court costs.

Mrs. Johnson is beginning to doubt the history given to her regarding the wife of WILLIAM MITCHELL being WILLIE CLAYTON. (Note: one PEGGY CLAYTON m. SAMUEL MITCHELL, Sept. 1, 1791, Bedford Co., Va.)...Vardoman Johnson and his wife, LOCKY MITCHELL Johnson, had two grandsons named JOAB MITCHELL JOHNSON - making it appear that Locky is a descendant of JOAB MITCHELL.

PLEASANT MITCHELL, the son of MARK, and grandson of JOAB and MARY HENDERSON MITCHELL must have been born between the years 1802 and 1808, because dates are given only for the first four children, namely THOMAS, born Nov. 21, 1794 BETSEY, born Oct. 18, 1796 LOUISA, born June 17, 1798 MARK JR. born Jan. 17, 1800 POLLY, WILLIAM, JAMES CONWAY, and PLEASANT.

ROBERT TYNER MITCHELL was the father of SOLOMON MITCHELL from S.C. Mrs. S.E. Hayes, 3309 Garden Avenue, Knoxville, Tenn. has this lineage If the name WILEY and PLEASANT appear in this line, they must be related. The WILLIE BLOUNT MITCHELL pronounced his name, WILEY, but the name PLEASANT goes back to the father of Mary Henderson who married JOAB MITCHELL: Mary's father was Samuel Henderson, but he had a brother named PLEASANT HENDERSON, and named one of his sons PLEASANT (Mary's brother). The following relates to him.:

MITCHELL (4)

"Pleasant Henderson, born Jan. 8, 1756, near Chapel Hill, in Granville County, North Carolina; died Dec. 10, 1842 at Huntington, Carroll County, Tennessee. He was a native of Granville County, but for many years lived in what is now Rockingham, then back to Chapel Hill, and finally of the County where he died. Coming of age about the time of the American Revolution, he was much involved in the stirring scenes that ensued. He bore the commissions of Sergeant, then of Lieut., then of Major in General Greene's army, and was accounted a brave man and a very efficient officer. He was an officer in command of the troops that guarded the Commissioners who ran the dividing line between Tenn. and Kentucky in the year 1779. This was a duty of great peril as nearly the whole extent was occupied by hostile savages. He was a companion and friend of Daniel Boone in many of his adventures and enterprises in the early settlement of Kentucky, and at one time was deeply interested as a landholder in that State and Tennessee. His elder brother, Richard Henderson, had at one time a fee simple right for nearly the whole state of Kentucky, which was commissioned by the "Henderson Reserves" and finally lost to his heirs by some kind of legal chicanery. Pleasant Henderson was the private secretary of Alex. Martin, Governor of N.C. for nearly thirty years Chief Clerk of the House of Commons in that state. These several positions, as well as his long residence at the University of Chapel Hill, made him extensively acquainted with the distinguished men of that and other states, by whom he was much loved and respected, etc.

Mrs. Wm. Ruggles, R. 3, Bethel, Ohio 45106 has NATHAN MITCHELL, b. 1820 Tenn. 1st wife MARTHA; 2nd wife DIATTHA; children HENRY & NEVA b. 8 July, 1872 Mo. m. George W. Epperson.

Samuel Kelly married ELIZABETH MITCHELL, she born 1801, Westmoreland Co. Pa.; died 1892. Children: HIRSH S., MARTHA H., MARGARET A., REYNOLDS L., ROBERT, BEN S., CATHERINE A. lived in New Alexandria, Pa.

Sent by Mrs. Porter, Borger, Texas: JOSHUA MITCHELL (1) wife DEBORAH, had daughter DEBORAH.

Sent by J.H. Peterson, Indiana: NATHAN MITCHELL, b. 1820 in Tenn. - 2nd wife DIATTHA; 1st wife MARTHA, b. in Tenn. Their children: JOHN, WINNEY E., SARAH R., MARY, WILLIAM W., JAMES E., NAUCY, ELIZABETH & FRANCIS.

Mrs. H.L. Mitchell, 504 East Lincolnway, Jefferson, Iowa 50129 gives the following as her "basic Mitchell information":

ELIJAH MITCHELL (died Oct. 19, 1851, in Decatur County, Indiana) married FIDELIA HAMILTON (daughter of Robert & Mary Eward Hamilton - born September 18, 1796, in Bourbon County, Kentucky) in Paris, Kentucky on April 18, 1816. Note: since the Kentucky records are missing to a great extent, Nothing more about Elijah Mitchell and his parents has been found. Their children were:

1. MARCISSA MITCHELL - born April 16, 1817 - died April 16, 1836. single.
2. JAMES HARVEY MITCHELL - born May 27, 1819, in Bourbon County, Kentucky. He died July 8, 1886, in Axtell, Nebraska, while visiting a son. They had lived a lot of their lifetime in Pottawattamie Co. Iowa.

MITCHELL (5)

3. MARY EMARLINE MITCHELL - born 3 Apr. or 3 Aug. 1923.
Married a Dr. Wm. Ardery.

Mrs. Grady Hartwell Wright, 1415 Edley Place, Lynchburg, Virginia, writes that her MITCHELL line seems to be ROBERT MITCHELL, who died in Bedford Co. Va. in 1775. ROBERT was born in Londonderry, Ireland, and came to Lancaster Co. Pa. possibly about 1736. They were Presbyterians. Robert married Mary Enos, apparently of Lancaster Pa., and some of their children were born there, and then they came to Bedford Co. Va.

Court records at Bedford Co. show that ROBERT, DANIEL and JAMES MITCHELL were employed by the county for road work in the year 1754, when the county was formed. JAMES was either the brother of ROBERT and DANIEL, or else their father. There was also a JOHN MITCHELL who was in some way related to them.

Introduction

The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of various factors on the growth and development of the human body.

The study was conducted over a period of 12 months, during which time data was collected from a sample of 100 individuals. The data was then analyzed using statistical methods to determine the significance of the findings.

The results of the study indicate that there is a significant correlation between the variables studied. The findings suggest that the factors investigated have a positive impact on the growth and development of the human body.

The study also found that there are several factors that can influence the growth and development of the human body. These factors include age, sex, and environmental conditions.

The study was limited by the sample size and the duration of the study. Further research is needed to confirm the findings and to explore the effects of other factors on the growth and development of the human body.

The study was conducted in accordance with the ethical guidelines of the research institution.

The study was funded by the National Institutes of Health.

The study was conducted by the Department of Biology, University of California, Los Angeles.

Mitchell

Robt. Tyner Mitchell Jr., father of Mark Mitchell. Settled on Fainto River, near Charleston, S.C. Solomon Mitchell was born there and was married in Abbeville District. He came to Jefferson Co. Tenn. in 1774 - was a great friend to Daniel Boone. He fought with a S.C. Regiment against the Tories - was once captured by the British. From a stockade where they confined him, he watched Count Pulaski ride at the head of troops in training. He had to look through a knot-hole Solomon, that is.

"I suppose that Mark Mitchell was born in the Carolinas. He is listed just before Solo, on our tree. Mark's sister, Rebecca, mother of Mitchell Dooley - lived in Ga. I have heard that her son was a brilliant Senator from that State."

From a letter from Mrs. Jas. W. Shifley, 115 Pine St., Harboursville, Ky. to Mrs. Hugh Cassill, Indianapolis, Ind. Dear Mrs. Cassill:..... remembered that there was a Mark Mitchell on our tree. I have just looked over the notes and find that he was an older brother of my gr-gr-grandfather, Solomon Mitchell, who was a Rev. Sold. - wounded at the Battle of Stone Ferry
.....if the Mark Mitchell on this sketch is your fore-parent, then his mother was Jane Henderson. We have not yet been able to learn exactly who Jane Henderson's father was; she was related to Sam Henderson, father of old John of Transylvania fame - we think she must have been a niece - anyway, my gr-grandfather, Dr. Richard Henderson Mitchell, was named for old Richard H. and made him a considerable loan of money to use in the Transylvania Co.....
We had never known who Mark Mitchell's wife was, or anything about his child
.....Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Jas. W. Shifley."

Samuel Cunningham died in Augusta Co. Va. in 1747. His wife Mary qualified as Administratrix 21 Aug. 1847, with George Robinson and Robert McClenachan her sureties. Margaret was the orphan of Samuel Cunningham and on Sept. 17, 1747, Andrew Mitchell qualified in right of his wife, formerly Mary Cunningham, and was made guardian of Margaret Cunningham in the place of Robinson and McClanachan.

Mary (McKamey) Cunningham, the widow of Samuel Cunningham and mother of Margaret (later the wife of Robert Armstrong, very shortly after her first husband's death) became the wife of Andrew Mitchell.

There is no actual and positive evidence of the marriage of Margaret Cunningham to Robert Armstrong, but considering all traditions and the known facts about the family, there can be no doubt of the accuracy of the statement. The marriage is said to have occurred in S.C. "Her parents" are said to have settled there and to have established that as their home before 1767 the date of their daughter's marriage. This could only have been Andrew Mitchell, her step-father and her mother, Mary (McKamey) Cunningham, since Samuel Cunningham died in Va. in 1747, according to the record.

From the record of early marriages in Orange Co. N.C. Peggy Morrow m. Perry Mitchell on Aug. 27, 1816. Robt Morrow, Surety.

They were married at Rogerville, 11 Dec. 1823. They were parents of 9 children, including Richard P. Mitchell (1827) James Gaines Mitchell (1830) and Margaret (1831).

(There is quite a long item on the Rogers family, which reads: Children of Joseph Rogers and Mary Amis Rogers were:

1. Thomas Rogers
2. Mary Elizabeth Rogers (b. 1790)
3. Frances Rogers (b. 1795) m. James Taylor Gaines,
2nd. Dr. Hugh Walker.

From - History of the Cabin-Fort - Built in 1722 by WILLIAM HALL in Catawba VALLEY, VA.

"After a tempestuous journey of 60 days, "on the 15th May, 1707 three ships, the Sarah Constant, the Goodspeed and the Discovery were moored at "Amestown" subsequent to escaping hostile Indians at "Capt Henry". The strangers settled upon this "Amestown" of peninsula fastened to the mainland by a very slender neck and thrusting out into the midst of the channel".

"On the good ship Goodspeed was THOMAS HALL and wife (not named) and one son, WILLIAM, aged 5. After living near the shore of the mainland some 12 years, Thomas Hall took his family westward, by degrees traveling and camping, until they were awed by "perceiving one paradise after another," and finally located a few miles beyond "ye mountain that looks like ye nose", (Hecatee's Knob) in the summer of 1721 at Catawba Valley, likely so named after the Shawnee Indians, allies of the Catawbas against their foe, the Cherokees; it is likely that Shawavill derived its name from the Shawnees ; ; ;

"Several other families were with the Hall's then and in the fall of 1721 came on DANIEL MITCHELL, whose family included a daughter, JEAN.

"Thomas Hall died in January, 1728, and in the spring of that year WILLIAM HALL married JEAN MITCHELL, her father performing the rites. The marriage took place shortly after the decision to remain in Catawba Valley; partly because of evidence of unfriendly Indians (this was the most western frontier in Virginia) and the death of the leader, THOMAS HALL. Some families, branching out north and southward, were killed by the Cherokees but in the end, with the help of the Catawbas, a number succeeded in obtaining a foothold north in the neighborhood of present New Castle, and south at the foot of Fort Lewis mountain where they found a spring "like ye bed eggs", at Big Lick and further south. A line of communications had been established with friendly Indians and covered roads to the sea shore, more or less touching at the edges of settled territory, but it was until about 1740 that any kind of settlement was effected in these parts of Virginia.

"To withstand the onslaught of hostile Indians, William Hall started to build himself a substantial fort-cabin with port holes necessary for defense in these times. He erected his home on "Bear Run" (creek) 16 miles east of present Blacksburg, according to records it was:

"Rebuilt of right and proper Oak Logs by himself and good friends in 1722 by permission of the Crown and right Virginia authority."

Note by U.L.H. Mr. Hall died in Detention Co. Va. 1773 - his will naming wife Jean - sons William, Nathaniel, Andrew, John (in James also not named) and daughter Agnes Berry and Isabel Buchanan.)

Col. Washington visited the cabin on more than one occasion. He was a guest, also, at the cabin of DANIEL MITCHELL (the second) who accompanied Washington to New Castle where the fortified "Camp's Camp" had been established. Other visitors to the cabin-fort were: Col. Byrd, who was making an expedition against the Cherokees in 1756 and Col. Mr. Preston in 1762 (and others).

From: D.A.R. ⁶⁷, for Aug. 1966 - p. 698 - "The story of the Siege of Bryan Station" by Virginia W. Howard:

"The bodies of Robt. Adkinson and David Mitchell were found and brought into the stockade. The Indians had killed and scalped them in the cornfield. You witnessed the burial of these brave men just outside the stockade walls, their lives given in defense of the settlers of Bryan Station.....17th day of Aug. 1782.....(tells of attack upon the station by the British with help of "hair-buying-Hamilton". Daniel Boone and others came to the rescue. Tells of the defeat, later at the Battle of Blue Licks and the horrible slaughter of the pioneers. Calls it "the darkest hour of the settlement of Ky." It was in what was then Fayette Co., Va. (later Ky.)

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a complex and multifaceted story that spans centuries. It begins with the early Native American civilizations, such as the Mayans, Aztecs, and Incas, who built great empires in the Americas. The discovery of the New World by Christopher Columbus in 1492 marked the beginning of European colonization. The United States was founded as a new nation in 1776, and its history is characterized by a series of events, including the American Revolution, the Civil War, and the Great Depression. The country has grown from a small colony to a global superpower, and its history continues to shape the world today.

Hon. Mrs. Ruth W. O'Dell,
Newport, Cocke Co., Tenn.

Dear Mrs. O'Dell:

I thank you for the courtesy of referring the ladies letter to me. However I do not have any definite information. I am returning the letter to you with a few notes.

I have not found it possible to identify my great-grandmother, Sarah Mitchell. One Solomon Mitchell applied for revolutionary pension from Carlin Co. son of Robert & Jane or Fance Mitchell, b. in Abbeville Dist., S. C. in 1759. Served with Capt. Thomas Hall's Company Lt. Col. Francis Marion's S. C. Regiment. n. apparently Nancy; Children 1845: Stephen, d. y., Rebecca, Lewis, Greenberry, Jesse, Polly or Mary, Robert, Morris, Nancy, Richard, Susannah or Susan and Elizabeth. It is may be the one the lady refers to.

Also one Solomon Mitchell of Sumner Co. ~ from Dorchester Co., Md enlisted 1777 and served as minute man in Capt. Joseph Robertson's Co. Col. Bartholomew Hawks Maryland Reg. in 1781 in Guilford Co., N. C. enlisted as a minute man in Capt. Andrew Wilson's N. C. Company. Wife and children not named.

There are so many Mitchells. It is not possible to check all of them.

Also the Henry family of western N. C. was quite prominent in the Rev. They drew pensions and settled in Tenn. as shown by 24(X) Tenn. Pensioners by Mrs. Zella Armstrong of Chattanooga. They were named: David, Hugh, 2 Johns, Robert, William. I do not know their ancestry.

I am glad you got the law passed to have the histories of Tenn. counties printed. I imagine the cost is still an item.....

Sorry I can not help the lady more. Wish you well,

Very respectfully,

Sam R. Worring.

Note by ULE - Above are land grants made to various John Mitchells of the Middle Tenn. section. One of these could have been father of our group of Mitchells, but it is difficult to differentiate between them. It would seem that the father of this group possibly died early since others - mainly the Henrys - were bondsmen at their marriages.)

Rev. E. M. Sharp, 118 Roberta Drive, Memphis 12, Tenn. states that through his Dickey and Hillhouse data he has found that his SAMUEL HENRY of Livingston Co., Ky. (formerly of Anderson Co. S.C.) must be a son of JAMES HENRY and his wife, AGNES MITCHELL HENRY. Mary Henry (dau. of James & Agnes (Mitchell) Henry m. Robert Dickey. (b. 1745 in Albemarle Co. Va. - to York Dist. S.C. 1771. By his first wife, Margaret Hillhouse, he had dau. Martha Dickey b. 1776, m. Henry Ross, who was a son of James Ross & Mary (MITCHELL) Ross. He says either his Henrys or Mitchells - or both were from Halifax Co., Va.

DESCENDANTS" by Harry E. Mitchell, Capt. U.S.A. Ret'd:

THE MITCHELLS

The origin of the name "Mitchell" is lost in antiquity. The legendary explanation is Montoversigh. But the most generally accepted explanation is that Mitchell is derived from the Hebrew name "Michael". Numerous Biblical persons from the time of Ezra to Moses had that name. It means "Who is like God". "The great priest which standeth for the children of thy people", "The Warrior of the Heavenly Host." Some Scotch spelled it "Mithael" and some English "Michal". There are many Mitchell lines. Over twenty five family crests are of record. Our line of Mitchells were Scotch Presbyterians.

THE SCOTCH PRESBYTERIANS:

The Scotch Presbyterians were a devout and, sometimes, militantly religious group. As a result, they were so persecuted that many of them migrated to Ulster County in northern Ireland where the King of England had sequestered the land of the nobles and offered it to immigrants. These Scots became known as Scotch-Irish but, due to their proverbial clanishness, they did little mingling with the local Irish. From 1610 to 1688, there was a constant emigration from Scotland to Ireland.

The applied their energies and thrift in developing the land, from one of bogs and fens into beautiful fields with thriving towns. They established schools in every village. Almost every child learned to read and to write. John Fiske, the historian, after a study of the region, wrote that the people "gave evidence of exceptional intelligence". As one example showed, in a document signed in 1718, by miscellaneous groups, 319 men signed their names and only 13 made their mark." Fiske considered this a remarkable thing for that period in history. Fiske further stated that the Scotch-Irish emigrants from Ulster County and then to the southern half of the Colonial States" affected all of those states profoundly."

In Ulster County, Ireland, the Scotch-Irish found increasing interference with their religious practices. Economic trials inflicted on them by the English Parliament virtually deprived them of their civil rights. In 1704 the "Test Act" was passed and in 1714, the "Schism Act" was then passed. As soon as possible and as fast as they could, the Presbyterians emigrated to America. The first ones located in New England. Then, due to an attractive offer of religious freedom, there was such a rush of Scotch-Irish Presbyterians to Pennsylvania that the newer immigrants ultimately were refused permission to purchase land lest they predominate. This and the opening of the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia and northern North Carolina to settlers and the promises of such freedom in religious practice impelled the Scotch-Irish to move there. The opening of what is now eastern Tennessee offered another "promised land". in their devout practices treated the Indians

REPORT

The purpose of this report is to describe the results of the experiments conducted during the past year. The experiments were designed to determine the effect of temperature on the rate of reaction between hydrogen peroxide and potassium iodide. The results show that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature. The data are presented in the following table:

TABLE I

The data in Table I show that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature. The rate of reaction is measured by the volume of oxygen gas evolved per unit time. The temperature is measured in degrees Celsius. The data are as follows:

in the Shenandoah Valley so well that few conflicts resulted. The settlers in western Virginia, called "The Long Knives" by the Indians, were frequently at war with the natives. The Scotch-Irish in western Virginia were called "The Cohees" from "Quothe Me" (an expression often used by the Scotch-Irish Presbyterians). Among those people were some of our ancestors.

THE MITCHELL SCOTCH-IRISH PRESBYTERIANS.

There has been for generations legends about the origin of the family and their movements. None of these legends that have been proved ~~factually~~ factual has contradicted other legends. We now announce some of them in the hope that we may prove that they really are facts.

The Mitchells were devout Presbyterians living in Craigend, Sterlingshire, Scotland. (Craigend was a mere manor near the present town of Milngavie near Strathblane). There were evidently some Mitchells in that small place because the Encyclopedia Britannica records that the celebrated Australian explorer, Sir Thomas Livingston Mitchell was born in Craigend, Sterlingshire, Scotland in 1792. Legend says that our Mitchells emigrated to Ulster County Ireland in 1637 from there and then in 1682, emigrated to Chester County, Pennsylvania. They settled in E. Donegal and Nottingham Townships. We know from land transfers, recorded wills and other records that several Mitchells lived there, some of whom were definitely related. (We learn that James Mitchell a surveyor assisted by John and Alexander Mitchell marked the temporary boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania). But we do not know which, if any, were relatives of ours. We hope that someone will enlighten us.

Satisfied with treatment in Pennsylvania most Mitchells in the two townships named, remained there, some permanently. But attractive offers of land grants appealed to others including our line. All of Virginia west of the Blue Ridge Mountains including what is now West Virginia and parts of Ohio and Kentucky was a wilderness occupied only by Indians. The King of England then granted to Lord Halifax, "The Northern Neck of Virginia". Lord Halifax, in turn, made a grant of 92, 100 acres in 1739 to Benjamin Burdett with the proviso that he settle at least one hundred families there, most especially those in Pennsylvania. They were comparatively near. By reputation for peace with all mankind and as shown by subsequent actions they were friendly with the Indians. Then too, Burdett sought them because "They were of the stern school of Calvin and Knox, so much derided for their puritanical tenets, were distinguished for their religious education and their uniform attendance on the exercises and the ordinances of religion."

Among the Scotch-Irish in Chester County, Pennsylvania, were several families who, by marriage or close associations, affected their mutual interests down through several generations. One such group included our line of Mitchells, Fains, McMachens, Doaks and Houstons. Montgomerys joined them in the Shenandoah Valley later.

OUR TWO MITCHELL GROUPS

Two families of whom we Mitchells have the first positive knowledge (with definite proven dates) emerged in the same place and at about the same time. The place was Chester County, Pennsylvania in Donegal and Nottingham Townships. The time was about 1750.

Jane Mitchell married Samuel Doak in Ireland just before emigrating, or on the ship enroute, or on arrival in Pennsylvania. The exact location is controversial. (Chalkley's History, Vol. III Page 123 states that they were married in Chester County, Penna.)

The other Mitchell Group was the Adam Mitchell - Robert Mitchell (brothers) pair. They are definitely our line whose lineage will be the prime object of this work. But the Jane Mitchell - Samuel Doak pair were so important to us and to the Adam-Robert pair's descendants that considerable space will be devoted to the Doaks. The two groups may have been and probably were closely related. Some writers claim that Jane was a sister of Adam and Robert. One authority states that their father was a Thomas Mitchell. (We have by legendary report that our Mitchells emigrated from Ireland to Donegal Township, Chester Co., Penna. in 1682. From records there, we learn that two brothers, John and Thomas, arrived in Donegal Township in 1682. One of those probably was the grandparent of Jane and of Adam and Robert. (We ask aid to prove it.)

Jane and Samuel Doak migrated from Pennsylvania to Augusta County, Virginia near John Houston and his family. They settled near the New Providence Church.

Samuel Doak, Jr., was born on August 1, 1749. He was most eager to get an education and struggled hard to get it. Eventually, after schooling in smaller institutions, he was able, with funds and training making it possible, to attend New Jersey College (afterwards named Princeton College, and then Princeton University). Rev. John Witherspoon, the only Minister of the Gospel to sign The Declaration of Independence, was president of Princeton. He and Doak were very intimate friends. Samuel taught at Princeton. He was ordained a minister and soon began to fulfill his great ambition to teach on the frontier.

In 1776, Rev. Doak married Esther Houston Montgomery. He preached for two years at the junction of the Matauga and Holston Rivers in what is now eastern Tennessee. He then went on to settle permanently rather near the Fains. There he established "The first school south of the Alleghanies". (Theodore Roosevelt in his "Winning of the West"). Roosevelt used the word "south" rather than "west".

Rev. Doak also established the first presbyterian church west of the mountains. There, ultimately, he was joined by the descendants of William McIlhenny and of Robert Mitchell. (It is recommended that a thorough study be made of Samuel Doak, Jr., as given herein in the biographical and special genealogical section.)

ADAM AND ROBERT MITCHELL

Our definite ancestors Adam Mitchell, born 1712, and his brother, Robert Mitchell, born 1713, became interested in land grants being offered in North Carolina. They joined a group known as the Nottingham Colony in Nottingham Twp., in Chester Co. Penna.) to investigate.

Originally all the land south of Virginia had been granted by Charles II of England to eight Lord Proprietors. But colonization was slow. The King withdrew seven of the grants but the eighth was held by Lord John Carteret, Earl of Granville. He refused to sell the grant that had been assigned to his father. The tract was a strip about 50 miles wide extending along south of the Virginia line.

Lord Carteret offered grants to the Nottingham Colony, formed in the bounds of the Nottingham church in Chester Co., Penna. The Nottingham church Colony sent agents to survey the North Carolina offer and secure rights to thirty-three plats or sections of about 640 acres each lying in the drainage areas of North Buffalo and Reedy Creeks. The grants were considered to be deeds but there was a provision that the grantees pay a nominal semi-annual fee to the Earl.

The Colony seemed to have had an agreement with a young man in the Nottingham Church area named David Caldwell to study to be a minister and then to join the group in North Carolina as its pastor. He started at New Jersey College (Princeton) in 1750 about the time the colony started to acquire land grants. Some delay ensued in getting the grants of land. Among the nineteen members of the original group were Adam and Robert Mitchell. In Dec. 1753 grants were made and soon thereafter the nineteen families arrived. Others joined at later dates. A Quaker settlement was made just west of the Nottingham Group and a German settlement east of the group. The three groups lived in harmony through the years.

BUFFALO CHURCH PIONEERS

Buffalo had run wild in the region. A creek was called Buffalo Creek. The Presbyterian settlers planned a church to be called the North Buffalo Creek Presbyterian Church. Around this church the community grew. Adam Mitchell was granted 651 acres, in 1753, in the watershed of Buffalo Creek. If Robert received a grant at the same time, there is no record. On October 2, 1762, he bought 560 acres from another member of the colony, Robert Donnell. Robert's land was "on both sides of Reedy Creek." Adam and Robert bought and sold land thereafter. (See record section.). Since our Mitchells in North Carolina were such devout Presbyterians we will devote attention to their religious efforts.

THE BUFFALO CHURCH

Adam Mitchell encouraged church attendance. Until a building was available, services were conducted in Adam's home. On August 31, 1755 Rev. McAden, a Presbyterian Missionary, preached the first service in the community. A church group was organized and a log church building was erected. The exact date is unknown. It is of record that Adam Mitchell sold one acre off his own land (and near his home) for 20 shillings for a church-house and church-yard, in 1768. The deed read in part "For the use of a Presbyterian Meeting-House to those that are members of the Synod of Philadelphia and New York Synod and to that use forever." (Two other deeds issued later, one in 1827 and one in 1850 covering added areas.) In place of the log structure, a frame church building was constructed to seat 100 people. A third and present church (with many improvements during the years) was built in 1827. A brick for the building was made on a lot just west of the church site.

Dr. David Caldwell was the first pastor. The church grew with the community and today has a large congregation housed in a beautiful modern edifice. Adam Mitchell and family were active in church work. Adam was the first Ruling Elder. Robert Mitchell and his family were active members also. The congregation were Whigs and therefore harrassed by the English and the Tories. The church-yard became the final resting-place for many pioneers including over a score of our earlier Mitchells.

GUILFORD COURT HOUSE

The Buffalo Church was at first in Rowan County, N.C. Guilford Co. was formed in 1771, from part of Rowan County including the Buffalo Church area. A place for conducting legal business was essential. A petition was circulated in 1773, containing 248 signatures including those of Adam and Robert Mitchell and John McEachen and others, seeking a court-house and recommending a site. It was granted in 1774. The site was on land adjoining that of Robert Mitchell. Meantime, the legal business was conducted in a private home. By signing the petition they gave proof of their residence in N.C. at that time.

The new court-house was named Guilford. After the Rev. War. the name was changed to Martinsville... In order to have the court-house more nearly in the center of Guilford County, it was moved, in 1808, to its present location.....the town dwindled and died. Today there is scarcely a trace of the town of old. The area had become a part of the City of Greensboro.

THE PIONEER LIFE

Our ancestors in N.C. were real pioneers. Their way of life is well expressed by Rev. S.M. Rankin, Pastor of the Buffalo Church (in later years) in his "The Buffalo Church and its People".

THE PERSECUTION OF THE SCOTCH-IRISH:

The Encyclopedia Britannica says Vol. 18, p 497, "During the Am. Rev. the Presbyterian Churches throughout the Colonies suffered severely. The devotion of their members, especially the Scotch-Irish, to the cause of Independence was equalled by no other denomination. No racial or religious group was superior to them in intelligence, love of freedom, moral firmness and capacity for political achievements." The above quotation was a general appraisal.

PERSECUTION OF OUR MITCHELL GROUP

The Presbyterian Colony in what is now Guilford County was especially persecuted. Among the leaders of that group were Adam and Robert Mitchell. The Rev. S. M. Rankin wrote "The Governor of N. C. was appointed by the English Crown, and he in turn appointed all sheriffs, judges, clerks, and other officers. In this, the people were denied all right of self-government. They were taxed without representation, and the taxes were heavy for the times. The sheriff and his deputies would go out to collect the taxes, and, if the man did not have the money at hand to pay, his horse or some article of value to him, was put up for sale on the spot, with no one present but the sheriff and his deputies. One of the deputies would bid it off at his own figure, and take the man's property away from him. The sheriff would sometimes, in this same manner, actually sell the clothes from the backs of members of the family concerned.

Clerks of court, registers of deeds, surveyors, entry-takers, and such officers defrauded the people by demanding from two to five times as much as legal fees and authorized taxes."

"When a man objected to such illegal treatment, he would have to agree never again to give his opinion of the laws, nor to object to the extraordinary amount of fees. (The Judges themselves used the word "Extraordinary".).

The people petitioned repeatedly to the Governor. He made empty promises. In the meantime the men appointed by him were becoming increasingly wealthy. They flaunted their wealth with fine clothes, new houses and furniture."

One of the worst offenders was Co. Edmund Fanning. He was a leader in robbing the people. Even their lands were taken from them if there was the slightest flaw in the title to them. If no flaws existed, they were trumped up by Fanning and his men. A record in Guilford County shows that Edmund Fanning owned land adjoining Robert Mitchell's land. The earliest records were on file at Salisbury, N.C. (The county-seat of then Rowan County). The officers of this county were said to be ardent co-workers with Edmund Fanning in defrauding the people

It is not known when the original grant to Robert Mitchell disappeared nor when the family first learned that it was missing. When he died in 1775, the loss was discovered in settling the estate but nothing could be done at that time (with Fanning in power).

Naturally there was great resentment at the robbery of the people. Public protest was but to invite more harassment. Secret organizations planned ways to bring about reasonable taxes and fees. For this they were called "The Regulators". When appeals to the Governor failed, their patience was so exhausted they began to handle the sheriffs and their underlings roughly. They forcibly liberated some of their number who had been imprisoned. Some refused to pay more taxes until they were reimbursed by the fraudulent taxes already forced on them. This action brought matters to a climax. During court week in 1770, the harassed settlers gathered in large numbers at Hillsboro, County-seat of Orange County, east of Guilford County and center of Edmund Fanning's operation.

They gathered to seek justice and so frightened the judge that he left town. Edmund Fanning was captured and severely whipped. They demolished his home and fine furniture." (Rankin).

In March 1771, the Council of State declared war on the "Regulators" and an army led by Governor Tyrone went to subdue them. The Regulators met the army about 21 miles south-east of Robert Mitchell's home and a battle was fought on May 16, 1771. The battle (at Alamance) has been called "First Battle for American Freedom." "It is a fact that most of the men of Buffalo Church were there" (Rev. S.M. Rankin). Adam and Robert Mitchell were prominent members and leaders in the Buffalo Church.

THE BATTLE - FIELD AREA

A part of the Battle of Guilford, C.H., was fought on Mitchell land. When Robert Mitchell (b. 1713) received his original grant, most of the acreage lay in the Horse Pen Creek water-shed. That creek was a tributary of Rocky Ford Creek. Rocky Ford Creek comprised quite an extensive acreage. A portion of Robert's land included a tract that extended over a ridge into the Hunting Creek area. That creek was a tributary of Buffalo Creek whose water-shed also comprised a large land area. Land grants then referred to creek drainage areas. Hunting Creek flowed across Robert's land. Robert Mitchell died in 1775.

He left, by a will, the Hunting Creek tract of 107 acres to his "beloved wife" Margaret, to be her home during her life and then to his son Adam or to his grandson, Robert. We may assume that their residence was, at his death, on the 107 acres. After Robert's death, Adam and his family lived with his mother on the tract.

THE 107 ACRES

The 107 acre tract (part of the eventual battle -field lay on both sides of the main road called "The Salisbury Road". The road connected the two county seats, Salisbury of Rowan County, and Guilford C.H., of Guilford County. It was also called "The New Garden Road", after the Quaker settlement of New Garden just west of the Buffalo Church colony. A road from the north called the "Bruce Road" (no longer extant) joined the main road. Much of the fiercest fighting took place on those fields. A log house (tradition states) stood on the south side of the fork of the two roads. A spring was used at the foot of the hill "well known for its purity and refreshing coolness of its waters" (Rankin). The spring still flows. There was an old grist mill on the north side of Salisbury Road and on the west side of Hunting Creek (that flowed across Robert's 107 acres). There is no record of Robert or his son Adam actually operating the mill which was said to "be a great convenience to the town." The mill-race was discernable for over a century.

PERSECUTION OF THE BUFFALO CHURCH PEOPLE

North Carolina had veen spared any major battle until late in the Rev. War. But there were many minor skirmishes. The British and their cruel Tory allies increased their pressure on the resisting Colonists called the "Whigs". Gen. Cornwallis came into the Buffalo Creek area several times and camped. "His cavalry and detached parties of his soldiers were constantly pillaging, plundering and robbing the homes of the community. What the men and their horses could not consume was destroyed, corn cribs were pulled down and their corn wasted. The hay and fodder were burned or scattered about. The fences were destroyed. It seemed to be an object with the British to do as much mischief and produce as much wretchedness over the country as possible". (Life of Caldwell, by Rev. E.W. Caruthers). "Most of the men were away from home in the army. In many cases, the British soldiers drove the women and children from their homes or otherwise mistreated them (Rankin's Buffalo Church)".

MITCHELL (8)

THE BATTLE

(For a more complete discussion of the Battle of Guilford C.H., see "Guilford Court House", a 40 page handbook issued by the National Park Dept....)

The maneuvering of the opposing armies finally brought them in contact in the Buffalo Church area. Gen. Greene took a stand at Guilford C.H. The British approached from the west along the Salisbury Road. Dense forests with heavy underbrush, save for a few open fields caused the British to stay rather close to the road. Both sides' artillery were absolutely limited to the main road. An indecisive skirmish occurred on March 14, 1781 near the Quaker settlement at New Garden (just west of the Buffalo Church area).

Gen Greene's forces encamped for the night around a large pin-oak tree (that still stands). It is called "The Liberty Oak" (It is now over 70 feet in circumference). The colonial troops were placed for defense in three lines of battle (about 400 yds. apart) to the west from the Court-house. The two first lines extended on both sides of the main road..... The hand-to-hand conflict became so bitter at one point and the outcome so uncertain that Gen. Cornwallis, observing from higher ground in rear of his lines, ordered his artillery to fire "whiff" of grape-shot into the mass of friend and foe (to the horror of his own General O'Hara). The grape-shot barrage ended that part of the fighting. Then Col. William Washington's regiment of artillery charged into the British infantry ranks. The result was devastating to the British. Among the American troopers was Peter Francisco, the patriotic giant, armed with the special five-foot club provided by Gen. George Washington. Peter killed 11 men but was badly wounded and fell unconscious on the battle-field. A large monument marks the site of Peter's exploit (on Mitchell land.) Peter eventually recovered. Numerous monuments.... the largest to the memory of Gen. Nathaniel Greene.....

Another patriot left for dead on the battle field was Robert Montgomery, brother of Luther Montgomery, wife of Samuel Leak, Jr. Robert came from the Shenandoah Valley. He also recovered.

AFTER THE BATTLE

....."The British stayed around for a few weeks after the battle. They continued to over-run the country. No man, even the aged, was safe in his own home. The whigs (and the Buffalo Church men were all whigs) had to hide out and sleep in the thickets or collect in squads for protection....The homes were repeatedly robbed until the people had practically nothing left". (Rev. S.M.Hankin).

Life for the Whig men and their unmarried families became almost intolerable. But both men and families carried on as true patriots. Seven of the Buffalo Church men became officers holding the rank of captain to colonel.

MARGARET DEFIES THE BRITISH

As the clash of the opposing forces neared....one group assembled at the Robert Rankin home and prayed. Elizabeth Mitchell and her step-son, 14 years old Robert, and five of her own, including "Ibby", just 3 months old. Where she went is uncertain. One legend is that she took her children down to their spring-house away from the road and the open ground. It is quite definitely reported (but still legendary) that the grand-mother, Margaret, took certain possessions to the spring-house to await the outcome of the battle. A wounded British soldier, seeking water, found the grandmother Margaret and reported her to an officer. The latter went to the spring-house and found Margaret sitting on a hair-trunk. He ordered her to get off the trunk so that he could inspect its contents. She refused and said that they had looted and burned her home and that he could kill her but that she would not get up. The officer left her unharmed. It is said that in later years, after Adam and his family had moved to Tennessee and he had script for 1000 acres over in Davidson County that he never used, that he kept the script with other papers in a "hair trunk". A legal (and recorded) inventory of Adam's personal property after his death lists "one small trunk". It would seem to corroborate the legend of Margaret's defiance of the British at the spring-house, and of Adam using a hair trunk in Tennessee.

POST - BATTLE CONDITIONS

After the Battle, Elizabeth and her family and Adam's mother, Margaret were homeless. We can only surmise that relatives or friends possibly some of the benevolent non-combatant Quaker neighbors gave them temporary refuge. When, following the surrender of Cornwallis, the patriots could safely return home, Adam Mitchell somehow cared for his family. But within a year he sold his land except for the 107 acres that had been willed to his mother by Robert his father. Adam could not give clear title to that 107 acres. Papers had been lost or stolen and no record was extant. Adam did sell 229 acres on Jan. 21, 1782...He left Guilford C.H. between that date and Aug. 18, 1785 when, having been given a re-grant to the 107 acres, he sold it too, being in Washington Co. Tenn.

Adam's loss during the war was great. Legend says it exceeded $20,000.00. His home had been looted and burned. His cleared land was a virtual cemetery. He was urged (legend states) to apply to the Government for damages but refused saying that the young nation could ill afford to pay for such damages. He did accept a grant for 1000 acres of land in Tenn. But instead of going to the script land area Adam elected to move to Washington Co. Tenn where he bought land of his brother-in-law, John Pechuan and 200 acres from William Fain.... this land was only about 10 miles from the home, college and church of Rev. Samuel Cook. Adam's land was about 4 miles north east of present-day Jonesboro and was in the Knob Creek Drainage area.

THE 107 ACRES

.....Patriotic men of Greensboro formed a company "for benevolent purpose of preserving and adorning the grounds over which the Battle of Guilford C.H. was fought" and kept it so for 30 years. They had no reason to ask the city for the 107 acres since the city was doing the exact thing, too, by placing the 107 acres or part of it in its park system. So, in forming the National Military Park, some at least of the 107 acres is not a part of the Military Park and yet they were an important part of the battle field. Hunting Creek ran across the 107 acres providing power for the colonial grist-mill at the junction of creek and main (Salisbury) road. The creek now feeds two or three artificial lakes. The spring still flows. Only the presence of monuments and markers gives evidence of that struggle for freedom on the tract.

ADAM MITCHELL (1712) LINEAGE

When Adam Mitchell (#7) moved to Tenn. all his descendants did likewise except one and possibly two of his sisters who had married local men. But Adam (1712) and his descendants except Robert (#5) remained in North Carolina. They carried on with honor, the religious and patriotic tenets of Adam (1712). (We ask aid in getting more data about them.)

THE TWO JOHN MITCHELLS

Two of Adam (1712) descendants named John Mitchell had dramatic careers. John #4 son of Adam (1712) was a devoted member of the Buffalo Church and the Whig group. He was so eager in his Whig practices that he lost his life in a pre-revolutionary war skirmish with the British.

The other John Mitchell (#34) was a nephew of John #4 and a grandson of Adam (1712). He was known as "Blind John". Legendary report is that, while working in the harvest field, he was prostrated by the heat. He was given cold water to drink. From that time on permanent blindness. John taught as a vocation and also dealt in land. "His rich melodious voice in church services was an inspiration to its members" (Rankin). At his death, in 1841, he most considerably remembered the Caldwell Institute and naturally, the Buffalo Church. John was buried in the Buffalo Church-yard.

WILDERNESS

Until a comparatively few years before the Rev. War, the land that is now Tennessee was a part of North Carolina. It was a wilderness uninhabited save by Indians. It was claimed by three countries. By the Treaty of Paris, France was eliminated and the power of Spain limited. The British actually controlled the area. After the defeat of the Colonial "Regulators" at Alamogordo in 1771, some of them together with other disgruntled pioneers began to settle in the area. At that time N.C. extended north to the Ohio River and west to the Mississippi River. More trails and rivers served as routes of travel. Daniel Boone was no settler but he hunted in what is now Washington Co., Tenn. - (the area where the Fannins, McCarthens and Mitchells ultimately settled.) One time, Daniel escaped the Indians by hiding under a four-foot waterfall on Boone's Creek. A state marker (1837) also indicates where "D. Boone killed a bear in 1760". (Highway 23).

David Crockett was born near the junction of the Hollichucky River and Lineston Creek (His parents moved very soon after to the present site of Morristown outside of Washington County.)

Conditions were very severe for the hunters and the settlers. The Indians were a constant menace. The settlers' clothing was made principally of skins.

Until they could harvest a crop of grain and vegetables, they lived on wild game. It was plentiful. In the absence of grain, "bread" consisted of wild turkey-breasts and the lean part of venison. "Meat" was bear meat. Until vegetables were available, there was much illness.

Money was practically non-existent. As a make-shift "currency", some 20 articles were evaluated and declared legal tender. Among them were "fox skins 1-30D., beaver skins 6-8, beaver 6D., per lb. rye whiskey 2-30D., parchment" (Encly. Brit.)

THE HEBRON CHURCH

After his arrival in Tenn., Adam Mitchell (37) attended Samuel Doak's Salem church about 10 miles away. Samuel, in turn, preached at the home of Adam and also at tow neighbors' homes.....In 1790 Adam and neighbors organized a church that they named the Hebron Presbyterian Church. They were officially aided by Rev. Samuel Doak and Rev. Hezekiah Balch. Adam and wife named the youngest child after Hezekiah Balch.Adam Mitchell was one of the elders chosen... in 1840 the name of the church was changed to Jonesboro Presbyterian Church. On Aug. 10, 1850 a new building was dedicated by Rev. Rufus P. Wells who said in part: "The name Mitchell should be held sacred here and whether we are reminded of old Adam Mitchell facing the wintry weather to attend the House of God at a distance of 10 miles and afterward spending labor and property to build a House of Worship in his immediate neighborhood himself the life and soul of the Hebron Church, or of the younger Adam Mitchell an Elder here nearly 30 years, for a long time the only Elder.a Godly man, discreet and excellent Christian, so deeply interested in the welfare of his church, that though living 2 miles in the country, he could attend an evening prayer-meeting in town, or of Robert Mitchell or of James Mitchell his son, both Elders in this church or of John A. Mitchell, leaving home and friends for Christ".

Today the Church still carries on the work as our Mitchells would all desire.

ADAM MITCHELL (37)

Adam Mitchell lived out his days on his farm near Jonesboro, Tenn. It is to be hoped that, after the hectic life that he and his family lived among the cruel British and their equally cruel Tory associates, that he and his family lived in Tenn. under peaceful conditions and that the privations of their newer frontier life were not too severe. Adam died in 1802. His will was proven in August of that year. Judging from the inventory of his personal property filed in Davidson Co. Tenn. by his sons John and William, Adam Mitchell had accumulated considerable of a fortune before his death.

Adam's military service is vague. In the early part of the war many Whigs were in the militia, coming and going as called to serve. It were better that no record or roll be known to Tory spies lest the British and Tories vent revenge. If Adam had definite service it does not seem to be of record.

ADAM'S SISTERS

Mary Mitchell (#8) married James Ross and moved with him from Guilford County to Davidson Co. Tenn. Her mother, Margaret, joined her there. Mary died in 1783 (will proven on March 29, 1783 in Davidson Co. Tenn.

and his father's crowning. Sarah and Daniel's mother was a Shipley - a prominent family from N.C. Sarah was born in N.C. and died of paralysis on July 16, 1855, at the age of 74 years.

Robert left sons. One of them was Daniel who settled in Washington Co. Ky. on Beech Fork a few miles from Springfield. Daniel married his cousin, Jane Berry.

ADAM MITCHELL'S CHILDREN

1. Robert Mitchell. Moved with his parents to Tenn. in 1796. Married Elizabeth, dau. of James and Jane Allison. Eliz. was born 1773, her parents being among the first settlers in the Little Limestone Riv. area. Robt. was elected Elder of the Hebron Church about 1804. He was buried in Hebron Church. Nancy Doak Mitchell, b. 1790 - 19 yrs. younger than William, died 1879. She married 2nd, Adam Broyles.

In settling the estate of William it is of record that Adam Broyles and wife Nancy, David Mitchell, William . . . Mitchell, George Allen and wife Esther Mitchell Allen all sold their interest in a negro boy, "Tobias" to Samuel Mitchell for $450.00

3. Adam Mitchell (Not to be confused with his father) was born in Guilford Co. N.C. - moved with his parents to Jonesboro, Tenn. He married Martha Gray. He was a cabinet-maker. 11. David Mitchell - married a daughter of John Collom. Was associated with his brother at Brownsborough. At his death (date unknown) his widow married a Mr. Moore. One or more children by 2nd husband.

12. Samuel Mitchell - associated with his brother William at Brownsborough, but little is known of him.

13. John Mitchell - a real frontiersman. Born at Guilford C.H. North Carolina, he was taken to Tenn. by his parents. Became one of youngest members of Hebron Church. A devout Christian but married Dec. 17, 1796, in Washington Co. Tenn. Mary Ann Barnes who had lived in Guilford C.H. N.C. and may have been born there. She had brothers Enos and William. John moved to Ky. He sold land his father had willed him to his brother Robert. Became a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and organized 2 churches of that denomination. It is believed that Mary Ann's father was William Barnes and that he served in the Colonial Army. Mary's mother's name is thought to be Ann Houston, tracing to John Houston of the Shenandoah Valley. John Mitchell enlisted in the Ky. Militia and served under Gen. Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans. He was mustered out Jan. 8, 1815. Upon his return home, he and 3 neighbors hewed out piroques from logs and, with their families, floated down the Cumberland River to the Ohio and then rowed up that river to the Wabash and up it to Fort Vincennes where the group spent the winter. In addition to the hazards of water transportation, they had to be on the alert on the Ohio lest Indians, as was their custom, rowed out and attacked pioneer groups. After wintering at Fort Vincennes, the group rowed up the Wabash River to the White River and then up it, cutting their way to present-day Owen Co., Ind. One day the bed of their wagon floated free with one of John's children in it. Fortunately both were recovered. The settlers made crops in 1817 but on Oct. 3, 1817, a freeze badly damaged the corn. But it was the best to be had and sold at $1.00 a bushel.

John had lived in Wayne Co. Ky in the Cumberland River Valley from 1806 to 1816 (near the present town of Elizabeth) The site of his Owen Co. Ind. home was near present-day Spencer. Associates (including Hugh Barnes) assisted him in building a home, a school and a church. They organized the Bethany Presbyterian Church in Owen Co. on Mar. 20, 1820. at the residence of Minean Steel. John taught the first pioneer school in the old Union Church Building, a short distance from Gosport, Ind. They reared 8 children. Two of them, John Bruce Mitchell and William Barnes Mitchell were twins. The wife of Indian Chief Kilbuck, had twins. She named them John Bruce Mitchell and William Barnes Mitchell. While John and Mary Ann were living in Ind. her parents came from Somerset, Ky. to live with them. Mary Ann's first child of record was Rebecca, b. 1806.

John moved to Ill. in 1828 and settled at the edge of the timber along the Embarrass River (north-west of the present town of Ashmore. Mary Ann's parents had moved to Ill. with her. Her brother, Enos, brought his family from Ky. and settled on Polecat Creek just south of Ashmore. Enos died on Mar. 23, 1873 at the home of his son, Granville. Mary Ann's brother, William, settled near Terre Haute, Indiana.

Mary Ann's mother died at the home of Mary Ann. Her father died at the home of Enos, a few miles away. whither he went after his wife's death. He died in 1833. Both parents were buried on the land of John and Mary Ann Mitchell. William Barnes (by tradition) served seven years in the Continental Army. No record is known except for two years service in N.C. The homes of Enos Barnes and Mary Ann Mitchell were (in then) Clark Co. later Coles Co. Mary Ann died at her son's (Robert's home in 1844, in then Clark Co. She was buried in the Mitchell Cemetery near Ashmore, near her husband, John, who had died in 1843. They had 8 children and 73 grandchildren. John's brother Adam had moved to nearby Charleston with numerous descendants.

.....Rev. Samuel Doak's mother was a Mitchell (probably a sister of Adam (1712) and Robert (1713) Mitchell. Jane's husband, Samuel Doak Sr. had as witnesses to his will James and John Mitchell, believed to have been Jane's relatives).

ORIGINAL PURCHASE OF LAND IN NORTH CAROLINA
BY ROBERT MITCHELL (1713)

Rowan Co. N.C. records. Deed Bk. 5, pg. 1, Oct. 2, 1762. Robert Donnell of Rowan Co. N.C. sells to Robert Mitchell of Rowan Co. N.C. 560 acres lying and being in the county of Rowan, N.C., on both sides of Sumers Branch, the waters of Reedy Fork. Beginning at the north corner, Sumers Survey, then W.T. along his line 15 Ch. to a white oak, then n. 47 chs. to Foster line, then East 15 Ch. to his corner, then North along his line 36 Ch. to a Black Oak, then East 60 chs. to a white oak then S. for compliment (sic). Signed by Robert and Mary Donnell. (Notes) When this land was sold all tracts were said to have been on Horsepen Creek Drainage area. "Sumers Branch" seems to have been an early name for "Little Horsepen Creek" about 600 yards west of the first British line of battle in 1781. The 107 acre tract extended 1/2 mile w. from Guilford C.H. and over the divide between Hunting Creek area and Horsepen Creek area and so could have joined the 560 acre tract described above.

It is most probable that Robert Mitchell received grant of land from Lord Granville at about the same time as his brother Adam (Dec. 4, 1753) for he is shown from records of sales to have owned more than the 560 acres purchased from Robert Donnell. Robert Mitchell's son Adam applied for a regrant in 1773, which confirms the legend that he lost or had records stolen from him, a certain tract or tracts of land. The giving by the state of a regrant for 107 acres further confirms that a title was once issued, no doubt by an original grant.

But having 65 pounds of pewter when he died, rather indicates that he had more than ordinary use for it. In N.C. another explanation is that to prevent the British from getting his pewterware, he melted it down and buried it. Her grandmother is EMMA MITCHELL EPPERSON - 91 years old - quite well and very alert. The marriage of her parents is on record at Pineville, McDonald Co. Missouri - Nathan B. Mitchell & Mrs. Diaph Cloud Oct. 10, 1869. Her aunt said it should have been spelled "Dialpha". They were married by Minister of the L.E. Church.

Her grandmother's half brothers and sisters were: Mary, Sarah, Nancy, Elizabeth. She had a brother, Henry. Her half-sister Nancy, born in Missouri 1861-63 had a child called MISS. She wonders if this was short for "Pleasant".

She finds that she is descended from NATHAN Mitchell, b. cir. 1820 in Tenn - but she doesn't know which county.

COPY: From HISTORY OF SOME BRANCHES OF THE MITCHELL &
STOVALL FAMILIES -- (by Bates Mitchell Stovall)
(Apr. 1 - 1913 - Revised to Sept. 11, 1934):

Mitchell is of considerable antiquity as a family name. It flourished in the central counties of Scotland and where several families of this name held the rank of lesser barons. It is also to be noted that in the year 1633, one of the Mitchells was to be found in the army of Louis XIII, King of France. This was James Mitchell. He was a member of that hard fighting band of Scottish soldiers in the French army known as the Scots men-at-arms or Guards. The Scots were originally all Scotchmen though at a later period Frenchmen were also admitted. Their duty was to guard the person of the King of France and to defend his kingdom against his enemies. These troops in their pale buff coats laced with silver and their plumes of white and blue were composed of some of the best blood of Scotland. They were considered of a type above that of a common man-at-arms and consequently had special privileges. They were recruited in Scotland at intervals in order to keep them up to their full strength. They were at the head of the French Army in many of the great battles fought under the monarchy and for nearly three hundred years the Kings of France were guarded by them.

The part of the Scottish Guards of which James Mitchell was a member was employed in Germany during the Thirty Years' War and took an active part in the conquest of Lorraine. They were under the leadership of Lord Gordon. In the war the Scottish Guards behaved so valiently and by their valor and courage inspired so much confidence that they were always employed upon the hardest and most difficult enterprises. What became of James Mitchell is not known. It is to be hoped that he did not meet with the fate that overtook Gustavus Adolphus, "The Lion of the North" in this terrible war that caused so much bloodshed, sorrow and destruction, especially in Germany. In the battles of this period Scots occasionally found themselves opposed to Scots. Sometimes a party of them mounting a breach would be hailed from within the enemy's ranks by a Scotchman's voice, "Come on, this is not like gallanting at the Cross of Edinburgh!".

On a tombstone in Scotland in the year 1750, the following inscription could be made out: "Here lies in hope of a blessed resurrection a man of approved goodness, Thomas Mitchell, bailie of Aberdeen, who died in the year of our Lord 1626" etc.

Between the reigns of Henry VII of England and James II of England, due to various causes numbers of Scots left Scotland and went to North-East Ireland to live. Within this period and at approximately the beginning of the seventeenth century, several of the Mitchells left Scotland and with but one or two exceptions went to Ireland. These Mitchells who emigrated to Ireland settled in the N.E. part in the County of Monaghan, Ulster Province. One of them became Chief of Clan "Congail". The arms of the Mitchells who settled in Ireland were "a fess between 3 fusils". At least these were the arms inscribed upon a tombstone. "Here lyeth the remains of Thomas Mitchell of Dronlara who departed this life, January - - - the - - - aged 26 years."

The foregoing inscription was copied in the year 1837 from an old tombstone in the old burial ground and churchyard of Tedavnet, in the Townland of Millanrocken in the S.E. part of Tedavnet Parish, close to the Townland of Tedavnet. By order in Council, dated Nov. 15, 1754, the parish church was removed further south to the Townland of Mullaghmore West, near to the village of Bellnode. At this graveyard near the village of Bellnode several Mitchells are buried.)

According to John & John Bernard Burke's "Encyclopaedia of Heraldry and General Armory of England, Scotland & Ireland", the coat-of-arms of the Bandereth, Scotland, Mitchells, an older family was: "Sable or black, a fesse between three mascles, gold or yellow, with a bordure chequy of the second and first.

Crest - 3 ears of barley, conjoined in the states proper.

Motto - "Sapiens qui assiduus"

Before beginning with the Mitchells of the New World, I will call your attention to some of the members of the family who remained in Great Britain and Ireland. The Rev. William Mitchell, one of the incumbents of the High Church Edinburgh and one of the king's chaplains --- for Scotland was three times elected moderator of the General Assembly, to wit, 1714, 1717, 1722.

Sir David Mitchell in June, 1699, became one of the lords commissioners of the British Admiralty. Later he was usher of the Black Rod and on the accession of Queen Anne, when Prince George became lord high admiral Sir David was appointed a member of his council. In 1697-8 he was sent with a small squadron to bring Peter the Great, Czar of Russia, to England. At the Czar's request, Sir David was appointed to attend the Czar during his stay in England and to command the squadron which carried the Czar back to Holland. It is said the Czar invited him to Russia with the offer of a lucrative post but Sir David declined the invitation. This Mitchell began his career as an apprentice to the master of a Leith trading ship.

Andrew Mitchell, Under-Secretary of State of Great Britain during a portion of the years of 1747 to 1753. In the latter year he was appointed ambassador and Minister Plenipotentiary to the court of Frederick William the Great of Prussia. He received for his services the Order of the Bath. The Mitchells who remained in Ireland seemed to have prospered and scattered all over the island. John Mitchell 1815-1875 the storay Irish seemed to have prospered and scattered all over the island. John Mitchell 1815-75 the storay Irish patriot was a descendant of one of these. As a number of the Mitchells seem to have gone about the same time from Scotland to Ireland, so it was in going from Ireland to America, within a comparatively few years over a dozen of them seemed to have taken the long sea trip to America. This immigration occurred approximately in the early part of the 18th Century. Also about this time, or a little earlier, some of the Mitchells from England came over to America and settled in the now New England States.

However, even before these times members of the Mitchell family had arrived in the New World. The first Mitchell to arrive in Virginia in America was Francis Mitchell who came in the ship "Neptune" to Virginia in the year 1613. In 1624 he was 33 years of age and was residing in the county or section of Virginia known as Elizabeth City. With him at this time was his wife Maudlin the "Bona Nova" and arrived in Virginia. John Mitchell, a son, was born in Virginia to this couple in 1624. In the summer of 1623 the ship "Anne" and "Little James" arrived at New Plymouth in New England. They brought 60 passengers among whom were the wives and children of some of those who had come over in the "Mayflower".

Among the passengers was one Experience Mitchell. She (He?) was the first Mitchell to arrive in New England. The early Colonial Records of Virginia contain frequent mention of members of the Mitchell family. At least 12 members of this family fought with Virginia in the various Colonial Wars. Two of the Mitchells were Captains and one a Lieutenant. There were James Mitchells among those Virginia troops one being a Captain.

In 1745 all that portion of the Colony of Virginia which lay west of the Blue Ridge Mountains was made the county of Augusta. In the Augusta Co., Va. court records under date of Nov. 26, 1753, we note a James Mitchell complained that his master, Valentine Severe, or Sevier was abusing him. The Accusations of James Mitchell must have been true as several of Sevier's servants complained of abusive treatment at his hands. However, Sevier's treatment was not sufficient to free James as we find that on May 23, 1755, he was still a servant of Severe. Evidently James was an indentured (indentured) servant.

The same court records show that on August 27, 1754, a James Mitchell qualified as Captain of foot troops. The Augusta County Va. Court Records reveal that on April 11, 1772, 2 slaves were tried for murdering one Thomas Marmoon. They were found guilty and sentenced to be hanged on April 13, 1772 between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 2 o'clock afternoon. It was ordered that after the hanging, the heads of the culprits should be severed from their bodies. It was further ordered that one head should be affixed on a pole to be placed "below the town and near the road at the rocks" the other head to be displayed near the road leading to Staunton from WILLIAM MITCHELL'S PLACE.

Among the Mitchells who came to America from Ireland was James Mitchell, the founder of the Mitchells in the new world with which we are most concerned from now on.

I do not know James Mitchell's age when he arrived in America; neither do I know where he first settled, but it is known that during the latter part of his life, he was dwelling in Bedford Co., Va. and had married Mrs. Rogers, a widow whose maiden name was Caldwell. John Caldwell Calhoun, the celebrated Southern statesman, was related to this lady.

James Mitchell Jr., (a son of the James Mitchell who came from Ireland) was born in Bedford Co. Va. Nov. 17, 1754. He married Elizabeth Brumfield after he had migrated to Kentucky. His lady's family was one of the first families to follow Daniel Boone into Kentucky. Their children were JOHN, ALFRED (who married Thomas Williamson; ELIZABETH, who married David Irvine; MARGARET, who died while a young girl; ROBERT, who married Margaret Catherine Linebarger; FANNY, who married Thomas Williamson after the death of his wife Eleanor; S. Finley, who married Elizabeth Linebaugh and SAMUEL, who married a gentleman whose surname was Prince.

In the fall of 1776 James Mitchell Jr., hereinafter called James Mitchell, enlisted in Bedford Co. Va. to fight the Cherokee Indians. These Indians had been incited to attack the frontier settlements, by British agents. The Indians fell with terrible ferocity upon the settlements. But colonial forces, gathering in South Carolina and Georgia, destroyed the Cherokee towns east of the mountains and drove them from Virginia and the Carolinas destroyed those west of the mountains. James Mitchell's commanders in the Cherokee War were Colonels Christian and Russell. Capt. Christopher Irvine. Mitchell served three months against the Indians. Jan. 1, 1777, 1777, Mitchell enlisted in the Continental Army for three years. His Captain was George Lambert; 1st Lieut. Archibald Moore; 2nd Lieut. Andrew Rodgers. His major was Samuel Jordan Carvel. The different colonels whom he served under during period were Beaufort Davis and Ball. At first he was in the 14th regiment and later in the 10th Va. James Mitchell was with General Washington in New Jersey and spent the winter at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania 1777-1778.

Speaking of Valley Forge, it has been said that history presents no sadder picture than the suffering of the little band of Continental troops at Valley Forge and no nobler illustration of devotion to a patriotic cause. With the coming of warm weather the Continental Army under Washington being in a better condition than it had been in a long time, followed the British General Clinton with his army, which was withdrawing to New York and attacked it. A fierce battle ensued. As a result of the battle the Americans were left in possession of the field.

James Mitchell fought under Lafayette in this battle, which took place near Monmouth, N.J. and was known as the Battle of Monmouth, June 28, 1778. During this fight numbers of the British and Continental troops collapsed because of the intense heat. After the battle of Monmouth, Washington followed Clinton as far as White Plains, where he stopped. The Division in which James Mitchell served, then appears to have done a little campaigning on its own account as it left Washington and under the leadership of General Lafayette circled through Pennsylvania and Maryland. At Frederick, Maryland James Mitchell's term of service being out, he was discharged and returned home. He did not remain at home a long time, however, as we again hear of his volunteering in the Spring of 1781. This time he joined a rifle company that was being raised in Bedford County, Va. His Captain was Jacob Moore and his first Lieutenant Benjamin Rice. I do not find the name of the 2nd Lt.

James Mitchell himself was first sergeant. This rifle company joined Gen. Greene and took part in the Battle of Guilford Court House, North Carolina, March 15, 1781. The Battle of Guilford Court House was fought between the armies of Greene and Cornwallis near what is now Greensboro, North Carolina. After a gallant fight the American line was forced back; yet the British suffered more than the Americans, since their loss amounted to 600 men, whereas the Americans lost 400. Greene, not knowing that the advantage was on his side, ordered a retreat. He won the battle in the field, he claimed the victory, but his army was so badly shattered that he hurriedly withdrew to Wilmington, N.C.

Speaking of the fight, James Mitchell says: 'I was in the heart of that battle; my captain killed. I was promoted as ensign for services in that battle.'

After serving 2 months Mitchell returned home and in the fall of the year 1781, moved from Bedford County, Virginia to Mercer County, Kentucky. That was in the days of Simon Kenton and Daniel Boone, when the war was on of the Indian was liable to be heard at any moment. In Kentucky James Mitchell had several skirmishes with the Indians, but of what account I do not know. According to "History of Kentucky" by Lewis Collins revised, enlarged and brought down to 1874 by Richard H. Collins, Volume 2, page 172, among "the first lot holders of Lexington, Kentucky, on Dec. 26, 1781, when the plan of the town was adopted and the lots disposed of", was a David Mitchell and a William Mitchell. In 1783 the trustees reserved for public use 3 lots "where the Garrison stands", and sold their lots to a number of persons, among them being James Mitchell.

It is possible, even probable, this gentleman is the James Mitchell whose career we have been following. In 1807, James Mitchell moved from Mercer County, Kentucky to Robertson County Tennessee, fifteen miles from Springfield. He was pensioned at $80 per annum, to commence March 4, 1831. His instructions to the Pension Bureau at Washington, D.C., were to direct his bill to Robert S. Mitchell P.M. Great, Robertson County, Tennessee. His death occurred on May 18, 1835, in Robertson County, Tennessee. The following is the epitaph on his tombstone: "He fought the battles of his country in the Wars of the Revolution. He died as he had lived, a Christian and an honest man."

In the party that came with James Mitchell to Kentucky was a man named Thomas Carter. He had lived with and served James Mitchell. Among the various persons who arrived in Kentucky at approximately the time that James Mitchell preached that religion were persons whose last names possibly may then have been Janks.

Thomas Carter wished to marry the woman and her Janks; however one of the obstacles to the marriage was a little girl named Fanny, who was the child of the woman. Thomas Carter did not want the child. James Mitchell, out of friendship for Carter and for other reasons, fulfilling his desire to help the little girl, took the responsibility of raising the child. He took her into his home

She was bound to him by special law. The house of James Mitchell's father was described in the county court house in Harrodsburg, Harrods County, Kentucky, which was later destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell took good care of Nancy and gave her a fairly good education. They considered Nancy a nice girl. When Nancy was about 18 years of age she married Thomas Lincoln. The marriage took place in her mother's house, i.e., Mrs. Mitchell's house.

At the time of Nancy's marriage her mother was not living in the neighborhood in which James Mitchell, who married Elizabeth Irvine, accompanied the wedding party on horseback and was present when Nancy married Thomas Lincoln. The Mitchells did not consider Thomas Lincoln of much force and thought him inferior to his bride.

Thomas Lincoln and Nancy Banks were the parents of Abraham Lincoln, the great Civil War President of the United States.

The facts herein pertaining to Thomas Carter and to Abraham Lincoln's ancestry were obtained from a written statement made in 1909 by Katherine Elizabeth Mitchell Stovell, with a note made by her in May, 1910. Both the statement and the affidavit were sworn to June 11, 1914, by this lady. Statements made by some of the biographers of Abraham Lincoln do not agree with all the allegations made by Katherine Elizabeth Stovell. This lady said she got her information from her father, B. B. Mitchell and her aunt, Elizabeth Mitchell Irvine. Katherine Elizabeth Mitchell Stovell also stated that not long after the Civil War a kinsman of the Mitchells returned to Middle Tennessee after a visit to Middle Kentucky, and related a tradition he had heard in Kentucky concerning the ancestry of Nancy Banks to the effect that she was the daughter of Robert Brumfield, brother-in-law of James Mitchell. Robert Brumfield was a bachelor. This tradition was credited and current in Middle Kentucky in the vicinity of Harrodsburg and Louisville. When the subject matter of the tradition was communicated to B. B. Mitchell and his wife, they said, "This is no news to us, we have known it all the time".

At the close of the Revolutionary War there existed a large number of persons in Virginia who bore the surname of Mitchell. The first census of the U.S., taken in 1790 shows that there were about 22 different families of Mitchell in the State. Besides the James Mitchell whose short biography you have just read, I have definite knowledge of at least two other James Mitchells from the State of Virginia who served in the Rev. War against the British. One of them served in the Navy and the other in the army. More than 25 Mitchells served with the U. S. troops in the Rev. War.

John Mitchell, the oldest son of James & Elizabeth Mitchell, was a soldier in the Seminole War in Florida. He afterwards moved to Illinois and was said to be a landowner.

Robert Brumfield Mitchell, the second son of James & Elizabeth Mitchell was born in Harrods County, Kentucky, Jan. 5, 1792, in that portion that became a part of Boyle County in 1812. The town of Mitchellburg, Boyle Co., Ky., now stands on or near the place where he was born. Two miles to the west of Mitchellburg is the town of Brumfield. Robert B. Mitchell's mother, as we have noted, was one of the Hamfield family. Robert B. Mitchell moved to Robertson County, Tennessee with his father about 1807. Although he did not receive a great deal of schooling, he attained his fine knowledge of mathematics through his own individual efforts. His schooling, he did obtain, he thoroughly mastered. The following is his school certificate: "It is with regret on the one hand and infinite satisfaction on the other that Robert B. Mitchell is about to retire from school; with satisfaction because he has exceeded by some degree the expectations in the acquirement of such branches of literature as I had proposed teaching; and with regret because he will leave the same resolution and behave while under the tuition of their master in like manner as the prayer of J. S. says" - Aug. 2, 1816.

Oct. 13, 1835, R. B. Mitchell married Margaret Catherine Linbaugh in Russellville, Kentucky. Margaret Catherine Linbaugh was the daughter of Thomas Linbaugh of Greensville, Pennsylvania. The father of Thomas Linbaugh was born in Germany. Mr. Thomas Linbaugh seems to have been an honest, industrious gentleman of considerable energy but conspicuous piety. "He lived in all the fidelity of his domestic relations"; never forgot the Sabbath and throughout his life, "maintained an humble consistent and Christian walk". In one of his letters written in 1836 to R. B. Mitchell he says his motto is "As Crockett has said, 'To go ahead'". The children of Robert B. and Margaret Catherine Linbaugh were: Zachariah, Joseph, James Thomas, Robert Henry, and Margaret.

Margaret Catherine Linbaugh Mitchell died in 1880.

Robert Henry married Charles.

Margaret married Judge Clinton L. Randle.

James Thomas died fairly early in life and never married.

R. B. Mitchell is described as being a "very fine looking man with a good-looking man who always walked with dignity and was noted for his courtesy." He was a fine mathematician and served as a surveyor for many years. About the time of the death of James Mitchell in 1835, Robert B. Mitchell bought the life interest of a Mrs. Covington in a farm or plantation which was located near the farm or plantation owned by James Mitchell. He lived there until he moved to Jackson County, Tennessee. This farm was in the north west part of Robertson County, Tenn. and about 20 miles from Clarksville. It was to this farm that Robert B. Mitchell brought his bride Margaret Catherine Linbaugh. She died there. All of the children of Robert B. and Margaret Catherine Linbaugh Mitchell were born on this farm.

A letter addressed to R. B. Mitchell Jan. 9, 1841, gives his residence as being Marcus P.O., Robertson County, Tenn. This was evidently the place where his mail was sent. Marcus or Marcan, P.O. was located in the N.W. part of Robertson County, approximately between the present towns of Adams and Sadlers and approximately on a straight line connecting these 2 towns. The Mitchells were all seceded Whigs, but when Tennessee seceded from the Union on June 28, 1861, they went with their stags. They were a kind of high they were a quote from a letter written by Judge J. B. Mitchell to R. B. Mitchell Aug. 7, 1860 from Illinois Henry Harrison's campaign for the Presidency. "I suppose you will be certainly at Marshall at the convention. I regret that I cannot meet you there.

Perhaps I have not wanted to go anywhere a bad in my life, but it has been that I have some orders of court to execute which do not for a girl who is interfering with the time I would be absent. I am certainly very much. Twenty of our Tippecanoe Club at Marshallburg will be there. About the same number of the club from Danville will be there and perhaps they will be one of the best things that you ever saw. The emblem at the head of this letter will be on the badges of the Danville Club. The Marshallburg boys will bear a most splendid banner prepared by the Shawnee Nun Ladies and perhaps the prettiest girls you ever saw. I expect they will be in uniform with long trim buckeye hats, etc."

Little further on he says: "I tell you, cousin Robert, this old Henry Harrison is performing the operation handsomely."
He signed at the head of Judge J. B. Mitchell's letter in a lo-cabin and a barrel of cider. Judge J. B. Mitchell resided in Danville, Kentucky. Later he moved to Crab Orchard Springs, Kentucky
His second wife was the widow of Ex-Governor McGoffin of Kentucky.
Hereinafter is part of a letter written by Caleb Irving Irvine to R.
B. Mitchell from Mexico City during the Mexican War. Caleb Irvine was a nephew of R. B. Mitchell. He joined the army on July 14, 1840, 1840, enlisting as a private in the mounted rifleman. He became corporal, sergeant, first lieutenant and on June 2, 1849, 2nd lieut. He resigned June 29, 1851 and instead of returning home went to the newly acquired territories in the far west, where he remained. Communications from him became less frequent and finally ceased. His mother and sister went to their graves with the firm conviction he was dead. It was after long acquaintance, however, that instead of dying, he married an English woman and moved to Deer Lodge, Montana, where he became Judge of the Butte City District Court and an influential citizen. He died in the year 1891. On Aug. 13, 1891, his widow, Lelia Irvine filed a pension claim with the U.S. On Apr. 14, 1892, the service was proved. In this letter
----- Irvine speaks of the death of Robert B. Mitchell, private of the 1st Regiment of Mounted Rifleman who died in the General Hospital of the U.S. Army at Delance, Mexico on the 24th of June, 1847 and gives instructions in order that the amount due Robert B. Mitchell may be secured by his family. The Robert B. Mitchell here spoken of was a nephew of the R. B. Mitchell with whom we are now concerned and the son of John Mitchell, the brother of R. B. Mitchell. Caleb Irvine was his cousin. He goes on to say: "I am sure you are all feeling this intense anxiety for the ratification of the 'Peace Treaty' by the Mexican Congress; will, we have already given up hope of that honorable body assembling at all. There are members wanting to form a congress and these gentlemen do not seem determined not to make their appearance at the seat of government, they being opposed to the Treaty, but we should not despair, as the example has a director of the Bank of Tenn. for Robertson Co. in which capacity he he served nearly 2 years. He was a member of the Weakley Co. Agricultural Ass. and received the premium on an agricultural essay in 1860. His plantation also took the premium for best cultivation the same year. He owned the first portable thresher in either Robertson son or Weakley Co. and also the first steam mill in the latter county.

In a letter written at Dresden, Weakley Co. Tenn. R.B. Mitchell describes a horseback trip he was then taking. The letter is dated Oct. Oct. 21, 1849 and is addressed to his daughter Catherine (also spelled Katharine) Elizabeth Mitchell (later Mrs. Hartwell D. Stovall). R.B. Mitchell states "I will commence by telling you that on Friday, the day we left Clarksville we rode 40 miles crossing the Cumberland River at the Rolling Mill and Tenn. River at the mouth of Sandy where we stayed all night at a tolerable good house kept by a Mr. Coony. Next day we rode 43 miles and got to this place and stayed all night at the tavern of Jephth Gardner who moved here at an early date from Robertson Co. (I am now at this tavern). On next day (Sunday) we rode 37 miles to Hickman (Hills Point where we met Mr. Bradley. We then stopped at an excellent house kept by a Mrs. Lee, whose husband left her and two pretty little daughters about the size of your little sis. How unnatural is the conduct of some brutes in human shape. On Monday it poured down rain all day, yet after we got our dinner a Mr. Browder and me each purchased an umbrella (Mr. Bradley having been more wise than us, having taken his with him). We all wrapped up in our coats, leggins etc. and came came up the Kentucky line 14 miles to a Mr. Pinkney Shaws, who treated us with such kindness on Tuesday at about 10 o'clock we all scattered off. Mr Bradley going north, Mr. Browder east and me South S.E. I have not heard from them, since but if they have purchased no more Tobacco than I have done they have got along slowly. So soon as it holes up agin, I shall go about 3 miles from here South West to a Baptist Camp Meeting, where I shall stay tomorrow and from acquaintances on tomorrow with the Planters, etc. etc.

Robert B. Mitchell owned 2 lots in Clarksville, Montgomery Co., Tenn. Numbers 3 and 4 - fronting on Garland Street. R.B. Mitchell moved from Robertson Co. Tenn. to Weakley Co. Tenn. about 1849. At this time he purchased 2450 acres of land in the latter county. His plantation in West Tenn. was at first located entirely in Weakley, Tenn., but the county line was changed throwing a portion of it into Obion County. It was about 6 miles from Fulton, Ky. and 2 miles from the Stovall plantation. The family dwelling house was known as Forest Home. When R.B. Mitchell came to Weakley Tenn. he surveyed land, wrote dues, made roads, built churches and school houses, conducted Sunday Schools, wrote wills, doctored his family and his neighbors &c. &c...made such a name for himself that it was said at his death, "Better 100 common men had died than Esquire Mitchell".

When the Civil War broke out in 1861, he sided with his state, though not believing in secession. His death occurred in Jackson, Madison Co. Tenn. Apr. 19, 1862 while he was on his way home from Miss. where he had been to see his sick son, James, who was in the Confederate Infantry.

Although R.B. Mitchell was not a lawyer by profession, he possessed an unusually good legal mind, and at his death it was even said by some persons that he had possessed a legal mind not inferior to that of Chief Justice Taney of the Supreme Court in Washington.".....

"It has been said that R.B. Mitchell was related to Col. James Smith the famous frontiersman. Apparently, at least there was an indirect relationship between these gentlemen. This relationship may be traced through the mother of James Mitchell Jr., whose maiden name was CALDWELL. She was a Mrs. Rodgers, a widow, when James Smith Sr. married her. At the time of her former husband's death she was residing with him in what was then called Lunenburg, now Charlotte Co., Va. Margaret, a daughter of this lady by her former husband married Abraham Irvine. Nov. 5, 1764 and after his death married Colonel Smith. In the year 1777, Abraham Irvine with a neighbor by the name of William Sandy, agreed they would enlist for the term of 3 years and each would serve 18 months. Irvine was to serve the first half and Sandy the 2nd half. Irvine entered upon duty in company with many others from that section of the country. When they had marched to Dumfries, Va. and before they had joined the main army, they were ordered to halt and inoculate for the small-pox. Irvin neglected to inoculate, under the impression he had been attacked by the disease during his infancy. The consequence was he took small pox and died, leaving Mrs. Irvin and five small children (4 sons & 1 dau).

In the fall of 1782, Mrs. Irvin removed, in company with a number of enterprising Virginians, to the wilds of Ky. and 3 years afterwards intermarried with Colonel Smith, by whom she had no issue. She was a Presbyterian.

The Mrs. Rodgers who married James Smith Sr. was sister to the Rev. James Caldwell who was killed during the Rev. War by the British and Tories at Elizabeth Point, New Jersey. Col. James Smith during the French & Indian War was captured by Indians about 4 or 5 miles north of the present town of Bedford, Pa. etc. (See his account of how he captured the British Fort at Bedford, Pa. Because the above Mitchells were from Middle Kentucky into Robertson County, Tenn. which adjoins Sumner Co. Tenn., where my ELIZABETH MITCHELL (b. Va. 1801; wife of Rev. John Hall Henry, Methodist preacher) lived, I traced the other children of the James Mitchell, above, and have a fairly complete list of his grandchildren &c. I also have deeds &c concerning some of them. They do not seem to tie into my line, but will be glad to search my records for anyone who seems to be of this line. I wrote to Mr. Stovall, author of the book and he answered and referred me to several Mitchell descendants (in 1938), including Mrs. J.W. Neal of Houston (whom I knew well; who was Elizabeth Mitchell before marriage; her husband (now deceased) head of the Maxwell House Coffee Company. Neither of us are of this particular Mitchell group.

Miss Louie Brown of Long Beach, California wrote (in 1944) that her Mitchell line is traced back to DANIEL MITCHELL of Bedford Co. Va. - will June 13, 1775; proved Sept. 25, 1775, in which he named his wife MARY and his children (names not given), and his brother ROBERT MITCHELL, and Michael Prewitt, exors. This Michael Prewitt's daughter JUDITH married Daniel's son, DANIEL II. Charles Cobbs and Thomas Mc Cown were witnesses to the will, and JAMES MITCHELL was security for the exors. JAMES MITCHELL from Pa. moved to Bedford Co. Va. and was either a brother or son of Daniel I. This is why she thinks they came from Penna.

Daniel Mitchell II moved into Fayette Co. Ky and lived there several years, then moved to Shelby Co. When it was divided he lived in Oldham Co. (1824). Daniel II died after Apr. 23, 1822. His will was probated July 1822. His wife, Judith Prewitt Mitchell died before Dec. 1818. Their children were: ELIZABETH, MICHAEL GEORGE, JOHN, JOANNA, DAVID, WILLIAM, ROBERT III and ANDREW.

Daniel III m. Mary Overstreet and had GABRIEL, who m. Ruth Van Cleave, and whose daughter, Sarah Ellen Mitchell was the grandmother of Miss. Brown. Daniel II and his family lived at or near Bryan's Station, and he, with his sons Daniel III and David, helped defend it when it was attacked in August 1782 by Simon Girty and 500 Indians.

From letter of Mrs. Charles E. Lloyd, 1619 Evans Ave., Dayton 10, Ohio.:

"My mother-in-law, Mattie Pearl Jenkins was the daughter of VIENNA MITCHELL and John Frost Jenkins. The best official record I have is the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Tipton County, Indiana on the Mitchells. Vienna remembered her father's mother "talking Kentucky talk". Since Vienna was born about 20 years after the oldest child in this family, there are undoubtedly many Mitchell records over in that county if I have the time to go and search. Both censuses give Kentucky as the birthplace of Vienna's parents and Indiana as the birthplace of all the children. Their census ages vary slightly, so I will indicate the year closest to birth: Tipton County, Indiana 1850 and 1860 censuses:

From letter of Mrs. George E. Hart, 1812 North Jackson, Fort Scott, Kansas:

"Voltemnia Hart married Benjamin C. Hart in Green County, Kentucky on 21 May, 1817. I am interested in the Roberts, Hart, Terrell, Hart and lines of Ky. and Tenn. more, Cousins of V. Terrell's father and cousin. Terrell and Oliver of Va. Miller of Mich. Hart, Clark, Clyde Glyde, Richards, Shaw, Ring, Hunt, Gray, White, Curtis, Hayden, Payne, Bingley, Bass, White, Gordon (Mass.) Thayer, Fortmore, Roberts, Dimery of England. I am having great difficulty with my Ky. families and this Mitchell family seems to have stopped right where it is."

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for ensuring that all parties involved are held accountable for their actions.

In the second part, the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps that must be followed to ensure that all information is captured correctly and that the records are easy to access and understand. This includes instructions on how to handle different types of transactions and how to deal with any discrepancies that may arise.

The third part of the document focuses on the role of the auditor in verifying the accuracy of the records. It explains how the auditor should approach their work, what they should look for, and how they should report any findings. This section also discusses the importance of transparency and how it can be achieved through open communication and the sharing of information.

Finally, the document concludes by summarizing the key points and reiterating the importance of following the guidelines outlined. It stresses that while the process may seem complex, it is a necessary one for ensuring the reliability of the financial data and for maintaining the trust of all stakeholders.

The document is intended to serve as a guide for all those involved in the financial process, from the person responsible for recording transactions to the auditor who verifies them. By following these guidelines, it is hoped that the financial system will be more efficient, more transparent, and more reliable.

Vol. I - McClennan County, Texas - First marriage Record Book - SARAH MITCHELL p 77

The first part of the paper deals with the general principles of the theory of the evolution of the human mind. It is shown that the human mind is not a static entity, but a dynamic one, which is constantly evolving. The author argues that the human mind is a product of its environment, and that it is constantly being shaped by the social and cultural conditions in which it lives. This view is based on the idea of the "social mind," which is a concept that has been developed by many anthropologists and sociologists. The author also discusses the role of the individual in the evolution of the human mind, and how the individual's experiences and actions can influence the development of the mind. The second part of the paper is a detailed study of the evolution of the human mind in the context of the social and cultural conditions of the past. The author examines the evidence from various sources, including archaeological remains, ethnographic records, and historical documents, and shows how the human mind has evolved over time. The author also discusses the role of the individual in the evolution of the human mind, and how the individual's experiences and actions can influence the development of the mind. The third part of the paper is a discussion of the implications of the theory of the evolution of the human mind for the study of the human mind in the present. The author argues that the theory of the evolution of the human mind can be used to understand the human mind in the present, and that it can be used to predict the future development of the human mind. The author also discusses the role of the individual in the evolution of the human mind, and how the individual's experiences and actions can influence the development of the mind.

From - HISTORY OF SOME BRANCHES OF THE MITCHELL - STOVALL FAMILIES, WITH MENTION OF SOME OTHER FAMILIES -
(By Bates Mitchell Stovall)

Apr. 1, 1913 - Revised to September 11, 1934.

MITCHELL is of considerable antiquity as a family name. It flourished in the central counties of Scotland where several families of this name held the rank of lesser barons. It is also to be noted that in the year 1633, one of the Mitchells was to be found in the army of Louis XIII, King of France. This was James Mitchell. He was a member of that hard fighting band of Scottish soldiery in the French army known as the Scots men - at - arms or Guards. The Scots Guards were all originally Scotchmen, though at a later period, Frenchmen were also admitted. Their duty was to guard the person of the King of France and to defend his kingdom against his enemies.

These troops, in their pale buff coats, laced with silver and their plumes of white and blue were composed of some of the best blood of Scotland. They were considered of a type above that of a common man-at-arms and consequently had special privileges. They were recruited in Scotland at intervals in order to keep them up to their full strength. They were at the head of the French Army in many of the great battles fought under the monarchy and for nearly three hundred years the Kings of France were guarded by them.

The part of the Scottish Guards of which James Mitchell was a member, was employed in Germany during the thirty years' War and took an active part in the conquest of Lorraine. They were under the leadership of Lord Gordon. In the war the Scottish Guards behaved so valiantly and by their valor and courage inspired so much confidence that they were always employed upon the hardest and most difficult enterprises.

What became of James Mitchell is not known. It is to be hoped he did not meet with the fate that overtook Gustavus Adolphus, "The Lion of the North" in this terrible war that caused so much blood shed, sorrow and destruction, especially in Germany.

In the battles of this period, Scots occasionally found themselves opposed to Scots. Sometimes a party of them, mounting a breach, would be hailed from within the enemy's ranks by a Scotch voice., 'Come on, this is not like gallanting at the Cross of Edinburgh!' On a tombstone in Scotland in the year 1750, the following inscription could be made out: "Here lies in hope of a blessed resurrection, a man of approved goodness, Thomas Mitchell, baillie of Aberdeen, who died in the year of our Lord 1686" etc. Between the reigns of Henry VIII of England and James II of England due to various causes, numbers of Scots left Scotland and went to N.E. Ireland to live. Within this period and at approximately the beginning of the 17th century, several of the Mitchells left Scotland and with but one or two exceptions went to Ireland. These Mitchells, who emigrated to Ireland settled in the N.E. part in the County of Monaghan, Ulster Province.

One of them became chief of clan "Congail. The arms of the Mitchells who settled in Ireland were "a fess between 3 fusils". At least those were the arms inscribed upon a tombstone - "Here lyeth the remains of Thomas Fitchell of Dronlara, who departed this life, January.....the... aged 86 years".

The foregoing inscription was copied in the year 1837 from an old tombstone in the old burial ground and churchyard of Tedavnet(?) in the Townland of Millanrochen, in the S.E. part of Tedavnet parish, close to the Townland of Tedavnet. By order in Council dated Nov. 15, 1754, the parish close-to-the-townland-of-the church was removed further South to the Townland of Mullaghmore West, near to the village of Bellnode. At the graveyard near the village of Bellnode several Mitchells are buried.

According to John & John Bernard Burke "Encyclopaedia of Heraldry & General Armory of England, Scotland & Ireland" the coat of arms of the Bandereth, Scotland Mitchells, an older family, was "Sable or black, a fesse between three mascles, gold or yellow, with a bordure chequy of the second and first. Crest -- 3 ears of barley, conjoined in the stalks proper. Motto: Sapienter qui assiduis".

Before beginning with the Mitchells of the New World, I will call your attention to some of the members of the family who remained in Great Britain and Ireland. The Rev. Wm. Mitchell one of the incumbents of the High Church, Edinburgh and one of the King's Chaplains for Scotland, was 3 times elected moderator of the General Assembly, to wit - 1714, 1717, 1722.

Sir David Mitchell in June, 1699, became one of the lords commissioners of the British Admiralty. Later he was usher of the Black Rod and on the accession of Queen Anne, when Prince George became lord high admiral, Sir David was appointed a member of his council. In 1697 -8 he was sent with a small squadron to bring Peter the Great, Czar of Russia, to England. At the Czar's request, Sir David was appointed to attend the Czar during his stay in England and to command the squadron which carried the Czar back to Holland. It is said the Czar invited him to Russia with the offer of a lucrative post, but Sir David declined the invitation. This Mitchell began his career as an apprentice to the master of a Leith trading ship.

Andrew Mitchell was Under - Secretary of State of Great Britain during a portion of the years of 1747 to 1753. In the latter year he was appointed ambassador and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Frederick William the Great of Prussia. He received for his services the Order of the Bath. The Mitchells who remained in Ireland seemed to have prospered and scattered all over the island. John Mitchell, 1815 -75 the stormy Irish patriot, was a descendant of one of these. As a number of the Mitchells seemed to have gone about the same time from Scotland to Ireland, so it was in going from Ireland to America, within a comparatively few years over a dozen of them seemed to have taken the long sea trip to America. This migration occurred approximately in the early part of the 18th century. Also about this time, or a little earlier, some of the Mitchells from England came over to America and settled in the now New England States.

However, even before these times, members of the Mitchell family had arrived in the New World. The first Mitchell to arrive in Virginia and in America was Francis Mitchell, who came in the ship "Neptune", to Virginia in the year 1618. In 1624 he was 30 years of age and was residing in the county or section of Virginia known as Elizabeth City. With him at this time was his wife Maudlin, the "Bone Aorta" and arrived in Virginia. John Mitchell, a son, was born in Virginia to this couple in 1624. In the summer of 1623 the ships "Anne" and "Little James" arrived at New Plymouth in New England. They brought passengers along whom were the wives and children of some of those who had come over in the Mayflower. Among the passengers was one Experience Mitchell. He was the first Mitchell to arrive in New England. The early Colonial records of Virginia contain frequent mention of members of the Mitchell family. At least twelve members of this family fought with Virginia in the various Colonial wars. Two of the Mitchells were captains and one a Lieutenant. There were two James Mitchells among those Virginia troops, one being a captain.

In 1745 all that portion of Virginia which lay west of the Blue Ridge Mountains was made the county of Augusta. In the Augusta Co. Va. court records under date of Nov. 26, 1753, we note a James Mitchell complained that his master Valentine Severe, or Sevier, was abusing him. The accusations of James Mitchell must have been true, as several of Severe's servants complained of abusive treatment at his hands. However, Severe's treatment was not sufficient to free James, as we find that on May 23, 1755, he was still a servant of Severe. Evidently James was an indented servant.

The same court records show that on August 24, 1754, a James Mitchell qualified as captain of foot troops. The Augusta County Va. Court records reveal that on April 11, 1772, 2 slaves were tried for murdering one Thomas Marreton. They were found guilty and sentenced to be hanged on Apr. 13, 1772 between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 2 o'clock afternoon. It was ordered that after the hanging the heads of the culprits should be affixed on a pole to be placed "below the town and near the road at the rocks" the other head to be displayed near the road leading to Staunton from Wm. Mitchell's place.

Among the Mitchells who came to America from Ireland was James Mitchell, the founder of the Mitchells in the New World with whom we are most concerned from now on. I do not know James Mitchell's age when he arrived in America; neither do I know where he first settled but it is known that during the latter part of his life he was dwelling in Bedford County, Va. and had married Mrs. Rodgers, a widow, whose maiden name was Caldwell. John Caldwell Calhoun, the celebrated Southern statesman, was related to this lady.

James Mitchell, Jr. (a son of the James Mitchell who came from Ireland) was born in Bedford Co. Va. Nov. 17, 1754. He married Elizabeth Brumfield after he had migrated to Kentucky. This lady's family was one of the first families to follow Daniel Boone into Kentucky. Their children were John, Eleanor, who m. Thomas Williamson; Elizabeth, who married Caleb Irvine; Margaret, who died while a young girl;

In the fall of 1776, James Mitchell Jr., hereinafter called James Mitchell, enlisted in Bedford County, Va. to fight the Cherokee Indians. These Indians had been incited to attack the frontier settlements, by colonial forces, gathering in South Carolina and Georgia. The Indians fell with terrible ferocity upon the settlements led on by British agents, but the colonial forces destroyed the Cherokee towns east of the mountains and armies from Virginia and the Carolinas destroyed those west of the mountains. James Mitchell's commanders in the Cherokee War were Colonels Christian and Russell, & Capt. Christopher Irvine. Mitchell enlisted in the Continental Army for three years. His captain was George Benburt; 1st Lieut. Archibald Moore (Moore?) 2nd Lieut. Andrew Rogers. His major was Samuel J. Jordan. The different colonels whom he served under during this period were Benburt, Davis and Ball. At first General George Washington was his commander in N.H. He spent the winter at Valley Forge, Penna. He was in the 14th - later 10th Va. Regt.

Speaking of Valley Forge (1777-8) it has been said that history presents no sadder picture than the suffering of the little band of Continental Troops in Valley Forge and no nobler illustration of devotion to a patriotic cause. With the coming of warm weather, the Continental army under Washington, being in a better condition than it had been for a long time, followed the British General Clinton with his army, which was withdrawing to New York and attacked it. A fierce battle ensued. As a result of the battle the Americans were left in possession of the field.

James Mitchell fought under Lafayette in this battle, which took place near Monmouth, N.J. and was known as the Battle of Monmouth, June 28, 1778. During this fight numbers of the British Continental troops collapsed because of the intense heat. After the battle of Monmouth, Washington followed Clinton as far as White Plains, where he stopped. The Division in which James Mitchell served, then appears to have done a little campaigning on its own account as it left Washington and, under the leadership of General Lafayette, circled through Pennsylvania and Maryland. At Frederick, Maryland, James Mitchell's term of service being out, he was discharged and returned home. He did not remain at home a long time, however, as we again hear of his volunteering in the spring of 1781. This time he joined a rifle company that was being raised in Bedford County. His Captain was Jacob Moore and his first lieutenant, Benjamin Rice. I do not find the name of the second Lieut.. James Mitchell himself was first sergeant. This rifle company joined General Greene and took part in the battle of Guilford Court House, North Carolina, March 15, 1781. The battle of Guilford Court House was fought between the armies of Greene and Cornwallis near what is now Greensboro, N.C. After a gallant fight, the American line was forced back; yet the British suffered more than the Americans, since their loss amounted to 600 men, whereas the Americans lost 400. Greene, not knowing that the advantage was on his side, ordered a retreat. As Cornwallis retained the field, he claimed the victory, but his army was so badly shattered that he hurriedly withdrew to Wilmington, N.C.

Speaking of the fight, James Mitchell says: "I was in the heat of that battle. My captain was killed. I was promoted to ensign for services in that battle."

After serving two months, Mitchell returned home and in the fall of the year 1781 moved from Bedford Co. Va. to Mercer County, Kentucky. That was in the days of Simon Kenton and Daniel Boone, when the war cry of the Indian was liable to be heard at any moment. In Kentucky James Mitchell had several skirmishes with the Indians, but of what account I do not know.

According to Lewis Collins' "History of Kentucky", revised, enlarged and brought down to 1874 by Richard H. Collins, Vol. 2, pp. 172 - a long "the first lot holders of Lexington, Kentucky on Dec. 26, 1781, then the plan of the town was adopted and the lots disposed of" was a David Mitchell and a William Mitchell. In 1783 the trustees reserved for public use 3 lots "where thearrison stands", and sold other lots to a number of persons, among them being a James Mitchell. It is probably this gentleman is the James Mitchell whose career we have been following. In 1807, James Mitchell moved from Mercer Co. Ky. to Robertson Co. Tenn. fifteen miles from Springfield. He was pensioned at 180 per annum to commence March 4, 1831. His instructions to the Pension Bureau at Washington, D.C. were to direct his mail to Robert H. Mitchell. L.E. Cross, Robertson County, Tenn.

His death occurred on May 18, 1830, in Robertson County. The following is the epitaph on his tombstone: "He fought the battles of his country in the 'ars of the Revolution. He died, as he had lived, a Christian and an honest man."

In the party that came with James Mitchell to Kentucky was a man named Thomas Carter. He had lived with and served James Mitchell. Among the various persons who arrived in Kentucky at approximately the time that James Mitchell reached that region, was a woman whose last name possibly may then have been Hanks. Thomas Carter wished to marry the woman named Hanks. However, one of the obstacles to the marriage was a little girl named Nancy, who was the child of the woman. Thomas Carter did not want the child. James Mitchell, out of friendship for Carter and for other reasons, including his desire to help the little girl, took the responsibility of raising the child. He took her into his home. She was bound to him by proper legal methods and a record of James Mitchell's act was recorded in the County Court House in Harrodsburg, Mercer Co. Ky. which was afterwards destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell took good care of Nancy and gave her a fairly good education. They considered Nancy a nice girl. When Nancy was about 18 years of age, she married Thomas Lincoln. The marriage took place in her mother's house, i.e. Mrs. Carter's house. At the time of Nancy's marriage her mother was not living in the neighborhood in which James Mitchell resided. Elizabeth Mitchell, a daughter of James Mitchell who married Caleb Irvine, accompanied the wedding party on horseback and was present when they married Thomas Lincoln. The Mitchells did not consider Thomas Lincoln as of much force and thought him inferior to his bride.

Thomas Lincoln and Nancy Hanks were the parents of Abraham Lincoln the great Civil War President of the United States. The facts herein pertaining to Thomas Carter and to Abraham Lincoln's ancestry, were obtained from a written statement made in 1903 by Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell Stovall, with addenda made by her in May, 1910. Both the statement and the addenda were sworn to June 11, 1914, by this lady. Statements made by some of the biographers of Abraham Lincoln do not agree with all the allegations made by Katharine Elizabeth Stovall. This lady said she obtained her information from her father, A.S. Mitchell, and her aunt, Elizabeth Mitchell Irvine. Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell Stovall also stated that not long after the Civil War a kinsman man of the Mitchells returned to Middle Tennessee and on a visit to Middle Kentucky and related a tradition he had heard in Kentucky concerning the paternity of Nancy Hanks to the effect that she was the daughter of Robert Brumfield, brother-in-law of James Mitchell. Robert Brumfield was a bachelor. This tradition was credited and current (current) in Middle Kentucky in the vicinity of Harrodsburg and Danville. When the subject matter of the tradition was communicated to S. Finley Mitchell and his wife, they said, "This is no news to us; we have known it all the time."

At the close of the Revolutionary War there existed a large number of persons in Va. who bore the surname of Mitchell. The first census of the U.S. taken in 1790 shows that there were about 22 different families of Mitchell in the State. Besides the James Mitchell whose short biography you have just read, I have definite knowledge of at least two other James Mitchells from the state of Va. who served in the the Rev. War against the British. One of them served in the Navy and the other in the army. More than 35 Mitchells served with the Va. troops in the Rev. War.

JOHN MITCHELL, the oldest son of James & Elizabeth Mitchell, was a soldier in the Seminole War in Florida. He afterwards moved to Texas and was said to be handsome.

ROBERT BRUMFIELD MITCHELL, the 2nd son of James & Elizabeth Mitchell was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, Jan. 5, 1798, in that portion that became a part of Boyle County in 1842. The town of Mitchellsburgh Boyle Co., Ky. now stands on or near the place where he was born. Two miles to the west of Mitchellsburgh, is the town of Brumfield. Robert B. Mitchell's mother as we have noted, was one of the Brumfield family.

Robert B. Mitchell moved to Robertson Co. Tenn. with his father about 1807. Although he did not receive a great deal of schooling, he attained his fine knowledge of mathematics through his own individual efforts. What schooling he did obtain he thoroughly mastered. The

The following is his school certificate: "It is with regret on the one hand and infinite satisfaction on the other that Robt. B. Mitchell is about to retire from my school; with regret because his stability and orderly behaviour was an example to the school; with satisfaction because he has exceeded my most sanguine expectations in the acquirement of such branches of literature as I had proposed teaching. May all students persevere with the same resolution and behave while under the tuition of the master as like a man, is the prayer of J. Newby. Aug. 2, 1816.

Oct. 13, 1835, R.B. Mitchell married Margaret Katherine Linebaugh in Oct. 13, 1835. R.B. Mitchell married Margaret in Russellville, W. Va. She was the daughter of Thomas Linebaugh of Greencastle, Pennsylvania. The father of Thomas Linebaugh was born in Germany. Mr. Thomas Linebaugh seems to have been an honest, industrious gentleman of a somewhat proud but generous nature. "THE LIVED IN A HOUSE OF HIS domestic relations" never forgot his friends and throughout his life maintained an humble, consistent and Christian walk".

In one of his letters written in 1836 to R.B. Mitchell he says his motto is "As Crickett has said, 'To go ahead'". The children of Robert B. Mitchell were: Katherine Elizabeth, James Thomas, Robert Henry and Margaret. Katherine married William Mitchell, Robert Henry married Charles Rogers, and Margaret married J. C. WALL. Robert Henry married Charles Rogers, and Margaret married Judge Clinton L. Huddle. James Thomas died fairly early in life and was never married. R.B. Mitchell is described as having been "over 6 feet in height and a good-looking man who always walked with dignity and was noted for his courtesy." He was a fine mathematician and served as a surveyor for many years. About the time of the death of James Mitchell, in 1835, Robt. B. Mitchell bought the life interest of a Mrs. Cavinton in a farm or plantation which was located near the farm or plantation owned by James Mitchell. He lived there until he moved to Weakley Co., Tenn. This farm was in the N.W. part of Robertson Co. Tenn. and about 20 miles from Clarksville. It was to this farm that Robert B. Mitchell brought his bride, Margaret Katherine Linebaugh. She died there. All of the children of Robt B. & Margaret Katherine Linebaugh Mitchell were born on this farm.

A letter addressed to R. B. Mitchell Aug. 9, 1840, gives his address as being Marcus L.O. Robertson County, Tennessee. This was evidently the place where his mail was sent. Marcus or Marcus L.O. was located in the N.W. part of Robertson Co. Tenn. approximately between the present towns of Adams and Sadlers and approximately on a straight line connecting these two towns. The Mitchells were all present when but when Tenn. seceded from the Union on June 25, 1861, they went to their state. A letter of this kind of which they were I quote from a letter written by Judge J. Payne Mitchell to R.B. Mitchell Aug. 2, 1840, dated Willis Henry Harrison's commission for the post office. I suppose you will be certainly at Marshall at the convention. I regret that I cannot meet you there. Perhaps I have not wanted to go anywhere as it is in my life, but it happens that I have some orders of court to execute which are set for special days interfering with the time I would be absent. I am exceedingly sorry indeed. Twenty of our Dispenance Club at Harrodsburg will be there. About the same number of the club from Danville will be there and perhaps they will be 40 of the best Whigs and best fellows that you ever saw. The emblem at the head of this letter will be on the l-edges of the Danville Club. The Harrodsburg boys will bear a most splendiferous banner prepared by the Shawnee Gun Ladies and perhaps the prettiest girls you ever saw. I expect they will be in fine form with large trim buckeye hats, etc."

A little further on he says: "I tell you, Cousin Robert, this old Grampy Harrison is performing the operation handsomely". The emblem at the head of Judge J. Payne Mitchell's letter is a log cabin and a barrel of cider. Judge J. Payne Mitchell resided in Danville Kentucky. Later he moved to Crab Orchard Springs, Kentucky. His second wife was the widow of Ex-Governor McGuffin of Kentucky.

Hereinafter is part of a letter written by Caleb Irvine to R.E. Mitchell from Mexico City, Mexico during the Mexican War. Caleb Irvine was a nephew of R.E. Mitchell. He joined the army on July 14, 1846, enlisting as a private in the Mounted Riflemen. He resigned June 30, 1851 and instead of returning home, went to the newly acquired territories in the far west where he remained. Communications from him became less frequent and finally ceased. His mother and sister went to their graves with the firm conviction that he was dead. He was afterwards ascertained however, that instead of dying, he married an English woman and moved to Deer Lodge, Montana, where he became Judge of the Butte City District Court and an influential citizen. He died in the year 1891. On Aug. 31, 1891, his widow, Lydia Irvine, filed a pension claim with the U.S. On Jan. 12, 1892, the pension was granted. In this letter, Irvine speaks of the death of Robert E. Mitchell, Private of Co. D. Regiment of Mounted Riflemen who died in the general hospital of the U.S. Army at Jalapa Mexico on the 24th of June, 1847, and gives instructions in order that the amount due Robert E. Mitchell may be procured by his family.

The Robert E. Mitchell here spoken of was a nephew of the R.E. Mitchell with whom we are most concerned and the son of John Mitchell the brother of R.E. Mitchell. Caleb Irvine was his cousin. He goes on to say: "I suppose you are all looking with intense anxiety for the ratification of the 'Peace Treaty' by the Mexican Congress; well, we here, have almost given up hope of that honorable body assembling at all. There are members wanting to form a quorum and these gentlemen elect seem determined not to make their appearance at the seat of government, they being opposed to the treaty, but we should not murmur, as the example has been set them by the honest Democracy of our own gallant Tenn. as well as by the Legislature of several other states. But even should they assemble. I very much fear that they will not make peace for, as strange as it may seem there is here a powerful and growing opposition party, which will do its utmost to prevent peace being made. I hope, however, for the best. We have no news of importance. The rainy season is just beginning and consequently the evenings are quite unpleasant."

"I wish I was at your house to supper this evening. My best wishes to all. As ever, your friend & nephew, C.E. Irvine.
P.S. Tell Mother I wrote to her a long letter about 10 days ago..
"Caleb".

This letter was addressed from the National Palace, City of Mexico, Apr. 18, 1848." It, like all of the old letters, was not enclosed in an envelope, but was cleverly folded over and sealed with sealing wax. It was postmarked, "Veracruz, Mexico, April 26".

On Apr. 15, 1846, Margaret Catharine Mitchell the wife of R. B. Mitchell, died. She was born in Russellville, Logan County, Kentucky Dec. 23, 1815. She was a relative of Patrick Henry, the Revolutionary War Governor of Virginia, through her mother, who was a Henry.

R.B. Mitchell deeply loved his wife and in a letter to his daughter Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell, written several years after his wife's death, he stated: "You, my dear daughter....had one of the best of mothers". Thomas Linebaugh, the father of Margaret Catherine Mitchell outlived her death did not occur until Jan. 3, 1855. In regard to Thomas Linebaugh's death I herewith publish an obituary which appeared in a Russellville, Ky. newspaper in Jan. 1855.

"Obituary. It is thought that something more is due the memory of him who is the subject of this communication than a mere passing notice of his death, which was announced some days since. On the morning of the 3rd inst. Mr. Thomas Linebaugh left this place for his home in Robertson Co., Tenn. At about 10 or 11 o'clock our community was startled with the rumor that he was found on the roadside dead. The impression is that his horse which was a spirited one, became unmanageable and threw him and from every indication must have dragged him some distance. Mr. Linebaugh was born in the town of Greencastle, Penna. Oct. 10, 1787. He settled in this place at an early date and was an honorable citizen for many years. Some years since he removed to Robertson Co. Tenn. He lived in all the fidelity of his domestic relations and has left a wife and children widowed and fatherless. Several years since he made a public profession of his faith in Christ and is a member of the Methodist Church; has ever since maintained an humble consistent & Christian walk, though his spirit has been called from earth at the very threshold of a new year we doubt not that a new and beautiful season has opened to him in a world where clouds and shadows can no longer obscure his path."

Robert B. Mitchell was a magistrate in Robertson County for 12 years. In 1839 he made the surveys for the Clarksville Tenn., Russellville, Ky. turnpike. In the fall of 1838 he was elected a director of the Bank of Tenn. for Robertson Co. in which capacity he served nearly 2 years. He was a member of the Oakley Co. Agricultural Ass. and received the premium on an agricultural essay in 1860. His plantation also took the premium for best cultivation the same year. He owned the first portable thrasher in either Robertson or Oakley Co. and also the first steam(?) mill in the latter county. In a letter written at Dresden, Oakley Co. Tenn. R.B. Mitchell describes a horse back trip he was then taking. This letter is dated Oct. 21, 1849 and is addressed to his daughter, Catharine (also spelled Katharine).

 Elizabeth Mitchell (later Mrs. Hartwell D. STOVALL), R.B. Mitchell states: "I will commence by telling you that on Friday the day we left Clarks ville, we rode 46 miles, crossing the Cumberland River at the Rolling Mill and Tennessee River at the mouth of Sandy, where we stayed all night at a tolerable good house kept by a Mrs. Coony. Next day we rode 43 miles and got to the place and stayed all night at the tavern of Jephth Gardner, who moved here at the early date from Robertson County. (I am now at this tavern). On next day (Sunday) we rode 37 miles to Hickman Mills Point where we met Mr. Bradley. We then stopped at an excellent house kept by Mrs. Lee, whose husband left her and two pretty little daughters about the size of your little sis. How unnatural is the conduct of some brutes in human shape. On Monday it poured down rain all day, yet after we got our dinner a Mr. Browder and me each purchased an umbrella, Mr. Bradley having been more wise than us having taken his with him. We all wrapped up in our coats, leggings, etc. and came up the Kentucky line 14 miles to a Mr. Pinkney Shaw's, who treated us with such kindness. On Tuesday at about 10 o'clock we all scattered off. Mr. Bradley going North, Mr. Browder East and we South S.E. I have not heard from them since, but if they have purchased no more tobacco then I have done, they have got along slowly. So soon as it holes up again, I shall go about 8 miles from here South through West to a Baptist Camp Meeting where I shall stay tomorrow and from acquaintances on tomorrow with the Planters" etc. etc...

Robert B. Mitchell owned 2 lots in Clarksville, Montgomery Co., Tenn. numbers 3 and 4 - fronting on "Farland" Street. R.B. Mitchell moved from Robertson Co. Tenn. to Weakley Co. Tenn. about 1849. At this time he purchased 2450 acres of land in the latter county. His plantation in West Tennessee was at first located entirely in Weakley Co. Tenn., but the county line was changed, throwing a portion of it into Obion County. It was about 6 miles from Fulton, Ky. and 2 miles from the STOVALL PLANTATION. The family dwelling house was known as Forest Home.

When R.B. Mitchell came to Weakley Co. Tenn. he surveyed land, wrote dues, made roads, built churches and school-houses, conducted Sunday Schools, wrote wills, doctored his family and his neighbors etc. etc.! --made such a name for himself that it was said at his death: "Better 100 common men had died than Esq. Iro Mitchell."

When the Civil War broke out in 1861, he sided with his state, though not believing in secession. His death occurred in Jackson, Madison Co., Tenn. Apr. 19, 1862 while he was on his way home from Mississippi, where he had been to see his sick son, James, who was in the Confederate Infantry.

Although R.B. Mitchell was not a lawyer by profession, he possessed an unusually good legal mind, and at his death it was even said by some persons that "he had possessed a legal mind not inferior to that of Chief Justice Taney of the Supreme Court in Washington".....

It has been said that R.B. Mitchell was related to Colonel James Smith the famous frontiersman. Apparently, at least there was an indirect relationship between these gentlemen. This relationship may be traced through the mother of James Mitchell, Jr. whose maiden name was Caldwell. She was a Mrs. Rodgers, a widow, when James Smith, Sr. married her. At the time of her former husband's death she was residing with him in what was then called Lunenburg (now Charlotte Co., Va. Margaret, a daughter of this lady by her former husband married Abraham Irvine Nov. 5, 1764 and after his death married Colonel Smith. In the year 1777, Abraham Irvine with a neighbor of the name of William Hanley (or Handy) agreed they would enlist for the term of 3 years and each would serve 18 months. Irvine was to serve the first half and Handy the second. Irvine entered upon duty in company with many others from that section of the country. When they had marched to Dumfries, Va. and before they had joined the main army, they were ordered to halt and inoculate for the small pox. Irvin neglected to inoculate, under the impression he had been attacked by the disease during his infancy. The consequence was, he took small-pox and died, leaving Mrs. Irvin and five small children (4 sons and 1 daughter).

In the fall of 1782, Mrs. Irvin removed, in company with a number of enterprising Virginians, to the wilds of Kentucky and three years afterwards intermarried with Colonel Smith, by whom she had no issue. She was Presbyterian.

The Mrs. Rogers who married James Smith, Sr. was sister to the Rev. James Caldwell, who was killed during the Rev. War by the British and Tories at Elizabeth Point, New Jersey. Col. James Smith, during the French & Indian War was captured by Indians about 4 or 5 miles north of the present town of Bedford, Pa. etc etc.. (see his account of how he captured the British fort at Bedford, Pa.)

S. Finley Mitchell was generally called and described as Finley or Findley Mitchell. His address in 1841 was Elkton, Todd Co., Ky. In this year his house in Elkton, including all his furniture, was burned. Later he moved to Robertson Co., Tenn. Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell, the eldest of R.B. Mitchell & Margaret C. Mitchell's children, was born in Robertson Co., Tenn. in Dec. 1853., while attending school, she stated: "I will tell you how I spent my vacation. Two days before school was out, I went to the country to Old Roberts on - the dearest place to me on earth, for it is there that I was born. I have dear friends living there and there, too, is the sacred spot where the remains of my dear sainted Mother sleep, a beautiful quiet place beneath the forest oak and beside the old orchard planted years ago by my venerable grandfather"...etc.

Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell was married on the 6th of January, 1855, to HARTWELL DICKASON STOVALL. This was Hartwell's second marriage. He had previously married a Miss. N.T. Martin, who died soon after the marriage. Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell was a brunette of medium height, "a pretty little girl; a true daughter of the old South".

Hartwell Dickason Stovall was 5 feet - 8 inches in height and inclined to be fleshy. He was born in Sumner County, Middle-Tennessee on the 15th of Sept. 1822. His parents moved to Weakley County, Tennessee in 1829. The father of Hartwell Dickason Stovall was GEORGE STOVALL. He was born April, 1780 and died Sept. 1840. He married a FANCY DICKASON and had five children: MADISON, CAROLINE, WILLIAM, FANNY and CATHERINE. He was the oldest son of BARTHOLOMEW STOVALL. He was born August 23, 1759 in Bedford County, Virginia in the part that became Campbell County in 1784. He lived in Bedford County, Virginia from his birth to 1804, when he moved to Turner County, Tenn; he died in 1841. Bartholomew Stovall married FANCY LUMBER. He had 11 children: GEORGE, TERRY, BIRD, WILLIAM, THOMAS, JAMES, JOEL, WOLF, FANNY and two daughters, who married gentlemen with the surname of FLYNN.

BARTHOLOMEW STOVALL was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and received a pension from the United States for his services in that war. Stovall was drafted in August or September 1777 for the term of three months. He joined a company of Virginia Militia under Capt. John Talbot. He marched his company to the Little York counties to help repel an attack of a British fleet commanded by Col. Holcome. However, the British did not attempt a landing, but left. Bartholomew was discharged Oct. 1777 and returned to Bedford County. In January, 1781 he was drafted for three months and joined a company under Capt. Thomas McRunolds. Later he had great difficulty in walking, due to the arch in one of his feet falling out of place. He gave James McRunolds $15.00 to take his place in the Company, and returned home.

However, in June, 1781 he was again drafted for three months. This time he became a member of a company under a Capt. Willicox and marched with his company to Richmond, Va. His company joined the brigade of General Lawson at Robling Mills. Bartholomew was the Commander - in - Chief.

Later BARTHOLOMEW STOVALL seems to have been in General Stephen's Brigade when he was discharged and the war ended.

The name STOVALL is the same as STOVEL, STOVELL or STOVILL, which is derived from the ancient French place - name ST. OLEVILLE. The Charter Rolls of England for the years 1260 - 1261 contain the name of a certain JOHN DE STOVILL. The Hundred Rolls of England for the year 1274 mention one ADAM DE STOVILL. The earliest STOVALLS to arrive in America landed in Virginia in the last part of the seventeenth century, probably about 1683. They came from Wales. Members of this family had emigrated to Great Britain from France at an early date. It is said they arrived in England with William the Conqueror.

BARTHOLOMEW STOVALL and possibly a brother named GEORGE STOVALL, were among the first Stovalls to arrive in America. They originally settled in the Tidewater section of Virginia. Later Bartholomew moved to Henrico County, Virginia. He was residing in this county at the time of his death in 1721.

HAGAR STOVALL, said to be a sister of Bartholomew Stovall, married William Tebor. Possibly Hagar arrived in America with her brothers, Bartholomew and George. Bartholomew married ANN MURFON in 1693. They had seven children: These children were: GEORGE, WILLIAM, MATTHEW, ROBERT, BARRETT, ELIZABETH, PHILLIP, ANN, BENJAMIN and JOHN. ELIZABETH was the first or given name of JOHN STOVALL'S wife. Her last or family name is not known, though possibly it may have been Robinson.

JOHN STOVALL, son of JOHN STOVALL, was the Bartholomew who was born August 23, 1759 and died 1801. Members of the STOVALL family are frequently and frequently mentioned in the early records of Virginia. A few examples will suffice:

We read that 400 acres of land in Woodland County had been leased in 1738 from a certain GEORGE STOVALL. The land is described as adjoining the land granted to Bartholomew Stovall on Stovall's French. Woodland County was organized in 1727 from Henrico County. In 1741 there was an old JACOB STOVALL living who owned lands on the branches of the Jermonds, apparently in Orange County.

In 1755 a public ferry was operated across the James River by a GEORGE STOVALL between lands owned by him in Albemarle and Bedford Counties. Albemarle County was formed from Woodland County.

Among the children of this GEORGE STOVALL apparently was GEORGE STOVALL JR., who became Clerk of the House of Burgesses.

Among the Stovalls from Virginia who served on the side of the colonies during the Revolutionary War were: ANDREW, BARTHOLOMEW, JOHN, JAMES, ROBERT, and several others.....etc. etc.

For their wedding trip BARTHOLOMEW STOVALL and BARTHOLOMEW DICKERSON STOVALL went to New Orleans, Louisiana and back by steamboat from Hickman, Kentucky. Bartholomew Stovall and Robert Bartholomew Stovall each owned a large number of slaves. When the Civil War commenced, both James and Robert, the brothers of Bartholomew Stovall entered the Confederate Army. The former entered the Cavalry, the latter the Cavalry. In 1862 James was taken sick with typhoid fever while with the army in Mississippi, but recovered his health sufficiently to rejoin his regiment under Col. Douglas. This regiment was part of the 1st Kentucky Cavalry and went north into Kentucky with General Johnston at the battle of Corinth, Oct. 3, 1862 fought between Bragg and Buell which resulted in the retreat of the Confederates, James was mortally wounded, but did not die until Nov. 9, 1862 within few miles of Knoxville, Tennessee, where he had been carried. He was buried near Knoxville in a country churchyard. After the war his grave was placed on his grave by his relatives. Robert was 17 when he enlisted in Company "H", Seventh Tennessee Cavalry under Col. (afterwards General) W.H. Jackson. He served during the entire war and was in 23 engagements. He was wounded in the arm at Mulbury Springs, Alabama and took the oath of Allegiance at Paducah, Kentucky, under the terms of the general surrender. He resided for a long time in Obion County, Tennessee.

The first part of the year was spent in the field, collecting specimens and making observations on the habits of the various birds and mammals of the region. The weather was generally favorable, though there were some periods of heavy rain and high winds.

The second part of the year was spent in the laboratory, preparing the specimens and making up the reports. The work was very tedious, but it was necessary to do it in order to have the material ready for publication.

The third part of the year was spent in the field again, making a few more collections and observations. The weather was not so good as in the first part of the year, but the work was still done.

The fourth part of the year was spent in the laboratory, finishing up the reports and making up the final accounts. The work was very busy, but it was necessary to do it in order to have the material ready for publication.

The fifth part of the year was spent in the field again, making a few more collections and observations. The weather was not so good as in the first part of the year, but the work was still done.

The sixth part of the year was spent in the laboratory, finishing up the reports and making up the final accounts. The work was very busy, but it was necessary to do it in order to have the material ready for publication.

The seventh part of the year was spent in the field again, making a few more collections and observations. The weather was not so good as in the first part of the year, but the work was still done.

The eighth part of the year was spent in the laboratory, finishing up the reports and making up the final accounts. The work was very busy, but it was necessary to do it in order to have the material ready for publication.

The ninth part of the year was spent in the field again, making a few more collections and observations. The weather was not so good as in the first part of the year, but the work was still done.

The tenth part of the year was spent in the laboratory, finishing up the reports and making up the final accounts. The work was very busy, but it was necessary to do it in order to have the material ready for publication.

and was a resident of that county at the time of his death, which occurred Jan. 14, 1916. He was born on Jan. 8, 1844.

Hartwell Dickason Stovall procured a substitute for himself in the war and stayed at home to protect his wife and infant children, as the county was swarming with bandits, gun rillas, horse thieves and other scoundrels. The children of Hartwell and Katharine Stovall were: I. D. STOVALL, GEORGE ROBERT JAMES STOVALL, and WILLIAM HENRY.

GERTRUDE was quite a little girl when the war began. One day some robbers visited the Stovall plantation while F.D. Stovall was away. They helped themselves to what they wanted and then started off with all the horses and Gertrude's saddle and bridle. But though they made an easy getaway with the horses and other things, they had quite a different time with the saddle and bridle, since Gertrude clung to the arm of the man who had her saddle and bridle clear across the yard exclaiming all the time, "You can't have my saddle and bridle my Papa gave me!" until the robber finally gave them back to her.

Katherine Elizabeth Stovall thus describes the terrible time they had during the Civil war: "Thieves and plunderers robbed us of horses and mules - set fire to out-buildings; stole valuable negro boys; searched our houses and almost killed my husband because he did not give them as much money as they wanted, but it remained for Union soldiers (although he had taken the iron-cold oath) to commit even greater depredations. For instance, they carried off 40 wagon-loads of corn and a large herd of cattle. Pulled my husband from a sick bed and detained him with threats of a Northern prison (where more than one friend of his had died) unless he paid them to release him. Whereupon I sent them $500.00 in gold coin, which was just half I had concealed for safe keeping".

The Stovall plantation was located in Weakley County, Tennessee, four miles S.E. of Fulton, Kentucky and 18 miles from Dresden, the county seat. The original dwelling - house was made of logs and was known as Sweet Briar Cottage. Although in 1859 the cottage was replaced with a large house, the name "Sweet Briar Cottage" apparently was continued as the name of the family dwelling.

In 1875, Hartwell Dickason Stovall sold his plantation in Weakley County, Tenn. and moved with his family to Fulton, Kentucky, in order to obtain better school facilities for their children.

In the year 1876, Ida Gertrude Stovall, the only daughter of Hartwell & Katharine Stovall, married STORLEY DONELSON HAYS of Jackson, Tennessee. The next year Hartwell Dickason Stovall died at his residence in Fulton, Kentucky on Oct. 25, 1877. He was buried near H.B. Mitchell at the latter's home in what is now Obion County, Tennessee. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Fulton, at the time of his death. The following is a copy of the resolutions passed by the board immediately after his death, etc. etc. (condolences &c.)

WILLIAM HENRY STOVALL, the youngest of the Stovall family, was the next to be married, as on Nov. 21, 1894, he married Ruth Nelson Bates in Washington, D.C.

Reginald Hartwell Stovall died Sept. 29, 1899, unmarried. One morning in the summer of 1912, a lady and two children, in order to escape from the rain, took refuge on the porch of the cottage belonging to Katharine M.M. Stovall and located at 408 East Baltimore Street, Jackson, Tennessee. Katharine Stovall resided in the dwelling and she immediately invited her visitors into the house. The lady informed Mrs. Stovall that she was from Obion County, Tennessee. Mrs. Stovall inquired if she knew any of the Stovalls of that county. In reply the lady said that her grandfather who had recently died was WILLIAM STOVALL. He was a son of JOEL STOVALL of Logan County, Kentucky.

Mrs. Stovall was greatly pleased and surprised, as she and her husband, Hartwell Dickason Stovall, had visited JOEL STOVALL long ago in Logan County and WILLIAM STOVALL years ago had visited Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Dickason Stovall when they resided in Weakley County, Tenn.

Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell Stovall died Oct. 5, 1915 at her residence in Jackson, Tenn. She was considered a lady of great culture and intellect- member of the First Methodist Church of Jackson, Tennessee.

ROBERT JAMES STOVALL married Estelle Henderson on Nov. 29, 1910 in Lexington, Mississippi; died March 5, 1932 in Louisville, Miss. He never had any children.

GEORGE STOVALL disappeared. Ida Gertrude Hays said that he was last heard from in approximately the year 1891, when he was in a hospital in Houston, Texas. He left the hospital and was never heard from again.

After the death of Katharine Elizabeth Stovall on Oct. 5, 1915, Earnest Edenton, the executor of her estate advertised in Dallas and Houston, Texas newspapers for news of George Stovall, but received no news.

Katharine Elizabeth Mitchell Stovall, in her last will, dated Sept. 2, 1914, stated that she had not been able to hear from her son, George Stovall "for more than two years".

WILLIAM HENRY STOVALL was born on the 2nd of Oct., 1868, in Weakley Co., Tenn. He graduated from the public schools of Jackson, Tenn. on May 30, 1884 and attended the S.W. Baptist University, now Union College, at Jackson. His first job was clerking in a book- and stationery store in Jackson. In 1886 he taught in a country school about 10 miles S. of Jackson and near a place named Meador.

ANCESTRY LINES - FURNISHED BY MRS. TOM MOORE, 1020 B ALDON AVE.,
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA (in 1936).

COL. - - - - MITCHELL, Officer under WILLIAM of ORANGE at the Battle of the Bayne, July 12, 1690. He is credited in history and tradition with bringing up reinforcements, blocking the way against fleeing Protestant soldiers by use of the draw-bridge chain, and beating the soldiers back to victory with his sword. This chain was divided among the officers for a souvenir, and his three links brought to America by David and Andrew, his sons. They were later made into a pot-hook and are in possession of great-grandchildren at Athens, Alabama or Pulaski, Tenn.

Known children - Numbered by generations in America. From Family records.

DAVID MITCHELL¹, b. Ire. probably before 1700; m. Ann Anderson; had several children, well grown before they emigrated;

ANDREW MITCHELL¹, b. Ire. m. Mary McGowan in Ire. just before they came;

ISABELLA MITCHELL, I b. Ire. m. in Ire. -----/Stewart;

These three came to America early in 1700, settling in Lancaster Co., Pa. In this party were Alexander Mebane, Sr., a jurist for the Crown; John Anderson (prob. brother of Ann), Mrs. Margaret Moore and her daughter Ann, who married John Anderson after they reached Pa. Their oldest child, Charity Anderson, was born 1735 in Pa.

JOHN MITCHELL I b. Ire., m. -----

WILLIAM MITCHELL¹ b. Ire. m. -----

ELIZABETH MITCHELL¹, b. Ire., m. -----DAVIS

These three came to America some 7 or 8 years after the others and settled in Lancaster Co., Pa. In this party were some from the Pennsylvania group, who joined them in Virginia, where the above three finally settled. Some did not like it in Va. so moved on down to Orange Co. N.C. near the Mebanes. Andrew settled in Orange Co. N.C. about five miles south of Hillsborok in Caswell County, on Hycocoochee Creek. After the Revolution the Stewart family returned to Virginia. William Davis, son of Elizabeth, settled on Harpeth river in Williamson County, Tenn., about 1806, but did not stay long. Not known where they went.

From - "History of New Hope Church" by Craig:

The early settlers of New Hope, consisting of the Craigs, Blackwoods, Kirklands, Freeland's, Strayhorns, Harts etc. were not only closely connected among themselves, but had intermarried with the Nelsons, the Bates, the Tinnins, the MITCHELLS, the Johnstons, etc. of the Hawfields, thus rendering the bond of union and sympathy between the two settlements the more close and lasting.

New Hope Church was organized probably by Henry Batillo (Minister) about 1765. From that year until 1795, the following persons were known to have been elders...

From letter of Mrs. Moore: "Andrew Mitchell married Mary McGowan. They had ten children. There was no Joseph among them.

The Mitchells, Bates, Craigs and Johnstons were active in the Presbyterian Church in Orange County, N.C. About 1807, Nancy Mitchell, and husband, James Kerr, also James Mitchell and wife, Mary Craig, moved to Tennessee, at the same time the Craigs and others moved there.

James Mitchell & Mary Craig's daughter ELIZABETH married Wm. Neely and moved from Tenn to Miss. ANDREW MITCHELL's daughter ELIZABETH married John Hall Henry, son of William & Nancy Keesee Henry. I have their entire line." (Note: This is my Elizabeth Mitchell, but I do not think she was daughter of Andrew and still have no idea which of my various Tenn. cousins gave Mrs. Moore this line. As I am still uncertain as to her parentage, I have been keeping these Mitchells under close observation, but our ELIZABETH was born "in Va." as was her sister Mary (Polly) in 1801 and 1806. Mrs. Moore had my entire line (with some mistakes - where she got it I cannot guess. Will copy hers:

WILLIAM C. HENRY, b. 1819

BETSY HENRY m. JAMES RICHARDSON (should be RICHMAN)

JOHN HALL HENRY (1783 - 1879) (actually b. 1803) - m. ELIZABETH

MITCHELL (1801-1873) daughter of ANDREW & MARY TATE MITCHELL.

They had 8 children.

WILLIAM HENRY, b. 1753 m. NANCY KESSEE, b. 1779 in N.C. She died 1800 - in Tenn. They had three children - (those above) - maybe more."

NOTE: William Henry, above was b. 1779 in N.C. and Nancy Kessee was born 1779 in Pittsylvania Co. Va. She lived to be over 101 years of age - almost 102, but not so long as indicated above!) David Henry, father of Wm. was b. 1751, so d. 1756 incorrect).

Names of their children, as given to Mrs. Moore are correct:

1. MALVINA HENRY - m. William Whitesides
2. MARGARET HENRY - m. Robert Burnett (should be BLINNETT)
3. NANCY HENRY (1851 -1899) m. 1st, JAMES RICHMAN; 2nd 1858, DAVID LINK? (should be DAVID LINK, my gr-gr-father and her full name was NANCY EMMALINE HENRY - called "Emmaline".
4. CARNEY HENRY
5. EMILIA HENRY m. Samuel Rickman
6. HATTIE HENRY (should be HARRIETT) m. Samuel Apperson
7. WILEY HENRY - m. Auretha White
8. JOHN MITCHELL HENRY - m. Nellie Parsley (PURSLEY).

NOTE: My father was named for the WILEY HENRY, above. I have thought that the names WILEY & CARNEY (not being Henry names) must fit into the MITCHELL family somewhere. Also the name MALVINA which name occurs in the family of Elizabeth's sister POLLY MITCHELL Heador and also in that of her brother HENRY MITCHELL & brother JOHN MITCHELL. Another brother was PLEASANT MITCHELL and Carney Henry, above, was Carney PLEASANT Henry. Since Henry Mitchell and Pleasant Mitchell (but not Robert, Nancy & John) were so much younger than Elizabeth that I have thought they might be her nephews instead of brothers, though I have evidence that they were almost certainly her brothers. It is my belief (though no definite proof as yet) that Elizabeth was daughter of PLEASANT MITCHELL who married in 1791, Rebecca Coleman in Amelia County, Va. though this seems too early for Rebecca to have been mother of Henry (youngest - born 1818). One thing is certain. The father of these Mitchells had died before they married as some of the Henrys and others were bondsmen at all their weddings and none of the Sumner Co. records show who their parents might be. A REBECCA MITCHELL married JAMES HENRY in Davidson Co. Tenn. 1818. I think she was widow of PLEASANT and married a HENRY. Davidson Co. adjoins Sumner. I cannot identify the James Henry, but doubtless relative of the others - perhaps son of JAMES (bro. of David).

From SAMUEL'S Inventory also in Henrico County I learn that SAMUEL died in 1770. SALLY was an only child. In 1811 ROBERT MITCHELL'S will is filed in Henrico County mentioning son, WILLIAM; daughter SARAH SCOTT; sisters, FANNY LEFT and ISABELLA GRAHAM, both of Kentucky Probably this is the same ROBERT mentioned above. I am a descendant of Walter King Cole and SALLY MITCHELL and I want to know; who was WILLIAM MITCHELL, "now of Dublin"? Am interested in contacting any descendants of ROBERT MITCHELL."

York Town.

THE SUBSCRIBERS, who have for some Years past kept the Ferry established at this Place, and experienced the Inconvenience and Loss that attend making Accounts of Ferriges, take this Method of desiring these Gentlemen who cross to pay their Ferriges at the Swan Tavern; and also assure them, that the Ferry shall be kept inferior to none in the Colony.

Mary Giffons.

From Files of 1766:

ALL Persons who have any claim against the Estate of William Corridon, dec. are desired to make them known to the Subscriber before the 1st of August, to prevent any Disputes that may hereafter arise.

JAMES MITCHELL.

Mrs. Roy M. Morris, 3224 Windsor Rd., Austin, Texas, 78763, writes that she is interested in the GEORGIA MITCHELLS. Says the FRIDLEY family married into Mitchell family there. She still has not located the Mitchel who married her gr-gr-grandmother, MARGARET LESLIE, probably in Ireland. She later married John Williamson and they died in George. John fought in the Am. Rev. in Virginia.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell, 13006 - 132nd Ave., Kirkland, Washington, 98033 is anxious to trace her Mitchells, but does not say who they were. A later letter explains that her husband, ROBERT LEE MITCHELL, b. 21 Nov. 1930, W. Mnid, Okla was son of WILLIAM FLOYD MITCHELL, b. 24 Sept. 1897 in Colby, Kansas - wife Evelyn Angeline Gant, b. 29 Aug. 1905. He was son of HARTZELL MITCHELL, b. 19 Mar. 1852, Bucks Co. Penna - wife Lena May Overman, of West Linden, Iowa. Hartzell MITCHELL was son of a DAVID MITCHELL

Mrs. Bevan L. Williams, 13822, 6th Ave., S.W., Seattle, Washington, 98166, who is just beginning her search and therefore would appreciate any assistance, sends her Mitchell chart as follows:

Line of Mrs. Paul Mainlen, Route 1, Converse, Ind. 46919:

She writes that the gr-gr-grandfather was WILLIAM A. MITCHELL, who married Emily COLE." They came from Ky. to Preble Co. Ohio and to Grant Co., Ind. They had children: ANDREW, PHILLIP, ISAAC, AVALINE & MALINDA ALICE. I have never been able to get my Cole & Mitchell families out of Grant County, Indiana. I know they came from Preble Co. Ohio, and that the Coles came from Kentucky and I think the Mitchells did too. I am sure my Mitchells are related to ELIJAH MITCHELL family but can't prove it so far. Think they are like the Indians; they buried every thing with them when they died."

Miss. Lenore Bright, 122 S. College, Gonzales, Texas, calls attention to an ELIZABETH MITCHELL in "First Families of Va." who is descended from two JAMES MITCHELLS.

Mrs. Ras Jones, 1332 Chestnut Street, Bowling Green, Ky. also has a MITCHELL interest.

Simon Christopher married ANN MICHEL, (Louisa Co., Va. M. Bonds)
 Another book listed the bride's name as Mickey; may have married in Orange Co. but listed in Louisa.

MITCHELL (3)

From letters of Mrs. Opal White, Box 248, Watonga, Okla.

"...I think perhaps you are correct, that my "Mitchells" came from the N.C. branch.. However, I just received some information written by a cousin of my mother, who remembered his grandparents, "WILLIAM MITCHELL & ELIZABETH STEINCIPHER" (that is the spelling he used. And he says that William's father was HENRY MITCHELL, who came to N.C. from Belfast, Ireland.....anyway, I am looking for a "HENRY MITCHELL" who was born somewhere around 1770, probably had 13 sons - I don't know about daughters, and came to America around 1800. I do not know, but think WILLIAM was born in the U.S...I think this is pretty well correct, as I have a relative who says WILLIAM MITCHELL told him about his father coming from Ireland. They were, however, originally from Scotland.

"...my great-grandfather, ANDREW MITCHELL, was born in 1823 in Wilkes Co. N.C. so may have been a cousin of those in Ky. WILLIAM MITCHELL died Aug. 13, 1880, Phelps County Mo. His wife, Eliz. Stonecipher is said to have come from Switzerland and she talked "broken" English. She died in 1890, and she and her husband are buried in Phelps Co. Mo. My information is that they "moved from N.C. to Morgan Co. Tenn., then to Capt. Girardo, Missouri, about 1858." This would indicate that they were married in N.C. I believe my gr-grandfather was their oldest child.

Re: Pg. 964, of Oct. 1965 Issue of "Missing Links". Rev. Abraham Pierson A. Abigail Wheelwright of Exeter, New Hampshire. There is no record of the Revolution. John Wheelwright, having had a daughter, Abigail, He did have a daughter Elizabeth, born 1637, who married a George Pearson according to Main & New Hampshire Gen. Dict. by Libby, Noyes & Davis. There is strong evidence in the Medical Journal of John Winthrop, Jr. that the Mrs. Pierson he mentions in connection with the illness of the Coe child, was a sister of HANNAH MITCHELL (daughter of MATTHEW & SUSAN (BUTTERFIELD) MITCHELL who married Robert Coe following the death of the latter, which would indicate a close relationship. Ref. Cutter Families should always be checked, as it is not always an accurate reference - but is excellent for clues to be checked out.

MATTHEW MITCHELL born ca. 1590 in England, married 16 April, 1616, Susan Butterfield, who came with him in 1639. She is not mentioned on the ship's list with the Mitchells in 1635."

From "REGISTER OF THE KENTUCKY HISTORICAL SOCIETY:"

"Salt Lick Creek and its Salt Works:

P. 104. "Obviously Greenup began to see the necessity of having someone supervise the work of the salt works, so on June 7, 1809, he employed CAPT. THOMAS MITCHELL, of Montgomery County, Kentucky to come to the salt lick and over see the operation of the salt works. (MITCHELL had been doing business for Greenup since 1808)

"CAPTAIN MITCHELL, it was agreed, was to operate a tavern there and to sell or barter the salt. Shortly after this, MITCHELL came with his family to live near what is now Clarksburg, Lewis County.....Greenup came frequently to visit the licks and to settle business questions there. THOMAS MITCHELL, the supervisor, appointed by Greenup, made a statement that Greenup came to his tavern and in 1816 and that he came down with the gout while there. His visit was for June 21st, 1816 to November 15, 1816. MITCHELL explained that he had to board Greenup and his servant, as well as provide stabling and provender for 2 horses.

"Greenup, during all this time, stayed in his room, mostly in bed, and required a great deal of attention. His son, Wilson P. Greenup was there part of the time (part of the year 1816) and boarded with MITCHELL. Aaron Stratton had made an agreement over salt operations. MITCHELL sold Stratton an equal moiety of the furness, kettles &c. at the furnace on Hazel Run, formerly known as the firm of Stratton & MITCHELL- together with the wagon, chains, shed, salt-house, troughs, and Hunter's cabin, with all the articles used in salt-making.

"Mitchell and Stratton had leased wells from Greenup and Fair for 20 years, with all the cesters and machinery belonging to them, except the land and the cabin and stable. MITCHELL & Stratton had failed to find sufficient salt-water. They had planned to lay pipes from the salt wells to the Ohio River.

It is now BELIEVED, but not an entirely corroborated fact - that ELIZABETH M. MITCHELL, who was born May 8, 1801, in "Virginia" (Bible & census records) and called "BETSY", wife of REV. JOHN HALL HENRY of Sumner Co. Tenn. was daughter of PLEASANT MITCHELL, who married in 1791, in AMELIA COUNTY, VA., REBECCA COLLAMAN, daughter of DANIEL COLLAMAN, JR. of Amelia County. Though she named a son JOHN MITCHELL HENRY, two John Mitchells of this section of Tenn. are known to belong to other Mitchell families, with the exception of the JOHN MITCHELL, known to have been her brother.

It is also BELIEVED (no proof) that the REBECCA MITCHELL, who married JAMES HENRY in Lebanon, Wilson County, Tenn. on October  1818, was the widow of the above PLEASANT MITCHELL, who had perhaps died before the family came to Tenn. since all of their marriage bonds were signed by various HENRYS - mostly Moses Hall Henry and WILLIAM HENRY (uncle & father of JOHN HALL HENRY, above.) Though this may be an inaccurate list, it is thought to be list of brothers & sisters of ELIZABETH (MITCHELL) HENRY.

- ELIZABETH M. MITCHELL (BETSY or BECKY) m. Dec. 20, 1821, REV. JOHN HALL HENRY - MOSES HALL HENRY, bondsman (his uncle).
2. POLLY (MARY) MITCHELL m. (1) - Moses Austin; m. (2) JESSE LEADOR March 20, 1825. (definitely known to be sister of Eliz. census records say she was b. 1806 "in Va."; said to have lived in a house half in Tenn. half in Ky. (Moses H. Henry, bondsman)
3. FANNY MITCHELL - m. Miles Stewart 9/13/1821 - Wm. H. HENRY, bd. (Wm. Hall Henry, father of Rev. John H.)
4. JOHN MITCHELL - m. Susan Hunt 10/17/1820; John Henry, bondsman.
5. PLEASANT MITCHELL - m. Sarah Hunt (sister of Susan, above and daughter of Thomas Hunt (do not have copy of his m.))
6. ROBERT MITCHELL - m. Wiley Wordall 1/13/1827; John Henry, bondsman
7. HENRY MITCHELL (called "HARRY") born 1818 in Tenn. (definitely claimed by an elderly descendant to have been a brother of Elizabeth, though age would seem to make him nephew. She told me she visited him in Toddville, Ky. (and I verified that he lived there by many deeds). He married Harriet Sheawell. (do not have date)
8. SARAH A. MITCHELL - m. Joseph F. Tooley (probably an aunt instead of sister. She was made guardian of the minor heirs of Pleasant Mitchell - whether those of Pleasant Sr. or Jr. I do not know.
(another record says PLEASANT MITCHELL m. 1827, Elizabeth Hunt, dau of HARDY HUNT (not Thomas) whose will in 1829 shows wife Sally, dau Elizabeth; Susan Hunt, wife of John Mitchell, may have been a cousin instead of sister of Elizabeth)
Will of THOMAS MITCHELL, Amelia County, Va. (Nottoway Parish) May 17, 1779, names wife ANN; sons WILLIAM, ROBERT, RICHARD & PLEASANT (b. ca. 1770); daughters MARY, SARAH, RACHEL & ELIZABETH Admrs. Friends John Howsin, John Gooch & Richard Jones.
(Probably parents of PLEASANT MITCHELL, above) more proof and data needed on this line.

The first part of the year was spent in the hospital, where I was treated for my illness. I was very weak and had to be kept in bed for several weeks. During this time, I was able to read a few books and write a few letters. I was very grateful for the care I received and the kindness of the staff.

After I was discharged from the hospital, I went home and continued my recovery. I was able to get up and walk around the house, but I was still very weak. I was able to read a few more books and write a few more letters. I was very grateful for the care I received and the kindness of the staff.

In the second part of the year, I was able to get up and walk around the house. I was able to read a few more books and write a few more letters. I was very grateful for the care I received and the kindness of the staff.

In the third part of the year, I was able to get up and walk around the house. I was able to read a few more books and write a few more letters. I was very grateful for the care I received and the kindness of the staff.

In the fourth part of the year, I was able to get up and walk around the house. I was able to read a few more books and write a few more letters. I was very grateful for the care I received and the kindness of the staff.

In the fifth part of the year, I was able to get up and walk around the house. I was able to read a few more books and write a few more letters. I was very grateful for the care I received and the kindness of the staff.
